WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

COLLEGE: Georgetown
HOMETOWN: Chicago, IL

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). While he has seen quite a bit in over seven decades of involvement with the team, few achievements compared to those reached by the Cardinals a year ago when they captured their first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

The 78-year-old Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990. In August of 2006, the team opened the state-of-the-art University of Phoenix Stadium, which gave the 110+ year old franchise its first true home.

Arizona hosted its second Super Bowl when the game was played at University of Phoenix Stadium in February of 2008. Bidwill was also credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January of 1996.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill is co-chair of the Board of Trustees for the Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Player Benefit Plan. In August of 2007 he was named to the Board of Trustees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the governing body of the Canton-based organization.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

MICHAEL BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: St. Louis University CARDINAL SEASON: 14th
HOMETOWN: St. Louis, MO

After practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor, Michael Bidwill joined the organization in 1996 as Vice President/General Counsel and today serves as team President. In that time, no one has been more influential in steering the organization on its path towards an eventual NFC Championship.

In addition to guiding the Cardinals, Bidwill has also taken on an ever-increasing role in the National Football League and the greater Phoenix business community as well. In 2007, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Michael to the league's Business Ventures Committee, one of the NFL's most prominent. In September of 2008, he took over as Chair of the influential Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders.

Within the league, Michael chairs the NFL Security Advisory Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities. He additionally serves on Arizona's Super Bowl Host Committee which successfully staged Super Bowl XLII at University of Phoenix Stadium last February and will seek to bring the game back to the state.

Among his most significant roles with the Cardinals has been the development of University of Phoenix Stadium, a project that he spearheaded from its inception. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the team's success. It has received worldwide acclaim for its distinctive architecture and cutting-edge design and even before it opened, it was selected by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world and has received numerous honors in its three full years of operation.

From 1990–96, Bidwill was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

Bidwill earned a bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

BIDWILL IN THE COMMUNITY

Strong community involvement has been a hallmark of Bidwill's tenure with the Cardinals and a particular emphasis has been placed the value of youth sports. That awareness was recognized in 2005 when the Cardinals were selected as the NFC recipient of the "2005 Pop Warner NFL Team of the Year" for their commitment to the development of youth football in the Arizona area.

Two years earlier, that same organization presented Michael with the Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity.

In October of 2008, Bidwill was also honored by Midwestern University and local community leaders with the COMET (Community Outreach: Motivating Excellence for Tomorrow) Award at the annual "Bright Lights, Shining Stars" Gala.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico.

ROD GRAVES

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: Texas Tech
CARDINAL SEASON: 13th
NFL SEASON: 26th

Coming off the most successful season in recent Cardinals history, Rod Graves begins his 13th season with the team and his 26th season in the National Football League. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1997 as Assistant to the President. Graves was promoted to the position of Vice President of Football Operations following the 2002 season and the 2009 campaign will be his third as the team's General Manager.

Graves, 50, is responsible for all facets of the Cardinals' football operations. He has provided leadership in hiring, planning, budgeting, player acquisitions, negotiations, and scouting. Graves has represented the Cardinals on a number of NFL committees and currently serves on the board of directors of National Football Scouting, Inc. and National Invitational Camp, Inc. (Indy Combine).

In June of 2008, Graves was named to the NFL's new General Managers Advisory Committee. The 11-member group provides advice and other feedback to the league's Football Operations Department.

Graves with former Cardinals defensive back Aeneas Williams.

Consistent with the Cardinals efforts to become champions in the community, Rod and his wife Dreama, devote their time and resources to supporting Cardinals Charities, The United Way, and The American Diabetes Association.

A native of Houston, TX, Rod began his career in professional football in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993. He was promoted in 1994 to director of player personnel.

Rod is a graduate of Texas Tech University. He is also the son of the late Jackie Graves, former player personnel executive of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod and Dreama reside in Phoenix with their three children: daughters, Brittany & Taylor, and son, Joshua.

KEN WHISENHUNT

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: Georgia Tech
HOMETOWN: Atlanta, GA
DOB: February 28, 1962

CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 13th

NOTE CARDS

- Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 14, 2007. He came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end/H-Back.
- In year one, Whisenhunt led Arizona to an 8-8 mark in 2007, the team's best record since going 9-7 in 1998.
- The 2008 season was even better as Arizona secured the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1998 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75 thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. It ended with the team's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance.
- Whisenhunt became just the second Cardinals head coach to go .500 or better in each of his first two seasons. The other was Arnie Horween who went 8-4 in 1923 and 5-4-1 in '24.
- Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests in January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).
- In the 36 total games played in Whisenhunt's two seasons as head coach, the Cardinals have scored 20-or-more points in 29 of them (80.6%) and 30+ points in 16 (44.4%).
- In his two years as head coach, the Cardinals have posted a 12-4 regular season mark at home (6-2 each year). That's the best home record in the NFC over that span and trails only New England and Pittsburgh among all NFL teams (both 13-3). Arizona's best single-season home record previously was 6-1 in 1976.
- In 2007, Arizona set a franchise record for passing TDs in a season (32) and the team's point total of 404 was the second-highest in team history. In '08, the Cards offense was again explosive and scored a franchise record 427 total points. They added 188 more points in the postseason, the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.
- Before coming to AZ, Whisenhunt spent the previous six seasons with the Steelers. For the first three, he was tight ends coach and then was offensive coordinator for three, helping the team earn a victory in Super Bowl XL.
- Previously coached at the NFL level with the Jets (2000), Browns (1999) and Ravens (1997-98); began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt (1995-96).
- Was selected in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta; went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93).
- Entered Georgia Tech as a walk-on and finished career ranked second on the school's all-time receiving yardage list and fourth in career receptions; earned degree in civil engineering.

Whisenhunt was named Arizona's head coach on January 14, 2007 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. In two seasons, he has clearly established himself as one of the top coaches in the National Football League.

Whisenhunt is just the second Cardinals head coach to go .500 or better in each of his first two seasons; the other was Arnie Horween in 1923 (8-4) and '24 (5-4-1). In his two years as head coach, the Cardinals have posted a 12-4 regular season record at University of Phoenix Stadium (14-4 including postseason). That's the best regular season home record in the NFC over that span and among all NFL teams trails only New England and Pittsburgh (both 13-3).

The Cardinals have also scored 20-or-more points in 29 of 36 total games played (80.6%) in the last two seasons and 30+ points in 16 of the 36 (44.4%).

2008 SEASON: After a solid inaugural campaign as head coach, Whisenhunt's second one resulted in the most successful season in team history. The Cardinals secured the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1998 with a 9-7 mark, first division crown since '75 thanks to a 6-0 record within the NFC West, and first home playoff game since 1947. That of course led to Arizona's first-ever conference title and Super Bowl appearance.

Arizona's 12 total wins in '08 were the most in team history and the Cardinals won more postseason contests in January (3) than they had in their entire history (2).

2007 SEASON: In his first year as an NFL head coach, Whisenhunt led Arizona to its best record in 10 years (8-8) and the team recorded a 6-2 mark at home, its best since 1976. Year one had its share of excitement and last-second finishes. Seven of the season's first eight games were decided by seven points or fewer and in all, the Cardinals played an NFL-leading 12 games decided by eight or fewer (six by a field goal or less). Arizona's three-win improvement in '07 was the largest of any of the NFL's five teams with first-year head coaches that year.

In 2007, the Cardinals set a franchise record for passing TDs (32) and recorded the second-highest season point total in team history with 404 (423 in 1984).

Coaching Career:

Whisenhunt came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end and H-Back.

Immediately before coming to Arizona, Whisenhunt served six seasons as an assistant on Bill Cowher's staff with the Pittsburgh Steelers. After three years as tight ends coach, he spent the 2005-07 seasons as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator and helped the team to a victory over Seattle in Super Bowl XL.

In his first year as coordinator, the Steelers rushing attack improved from 31st to 2nd and the overall offense ranked 16th behind rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger. His second year ended with an NFL title after the Steelers offense averaged 26.8 points per game in the playoffs. Pittsburgh's 2006 offense ranked 7th overall (9th passing and 10th rushing).

Whisenhunt took over as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator in 2004 when Mike Mularkey became head coach of the Bills. That was the same year the team drafted Roethlisberger and the rookie QB went on to set an NFL record with wins in his first 13 career starts en route to Offensive Rookie

WHIS TO A TEE

As a native of Augusta, it is no surprise that Whisenhunt is also an avid golfer. Like many Augusta residents, he worked the Masters tournament as a teenager, handling the manual scoreboard on the 18th hole. He's attended the Masters each of the last two years and has also had the opportunity to play the course on several occasions. The last time he played the course was in May of 2008 when he shot an even par 72 that included an eagle on the par four 11th hole. There was a time when he considered playing the sport professionally. After concluding his nine-year NFL playing career in 1993, Whisenhunt took a year off and played a lot of golf. In fact, that year he played in the 1994 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Hazeltine. His career-best score is a 65 and he has made two holes in one over the years. (That doesn't include another tee shot on a par three that found the bottom of the cup but since it came after his first ball went out of play, he recorded a three on the hole).

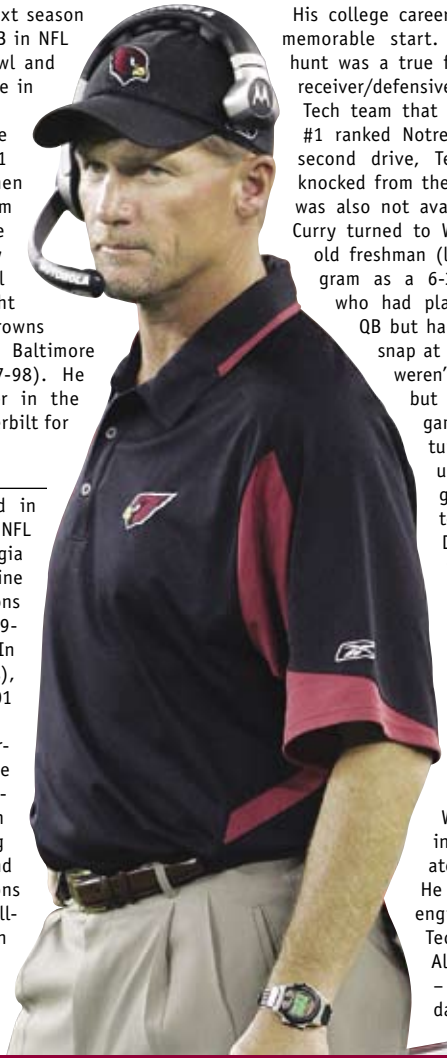

of the Year honors. The next season he became the youngest QB in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and finished third in the league in passer rating (98.6).

Whisenhunt joined the Steelers in January of 2001 as tight ends coach when Mularkey was elevated from that position to offensive coordinator. He previously coached at the pro level with the New York Jets (tight ends, 2000), Cleveland Browns (special teams, 1999) and Baltimore Ravens (tight ends, 1997-98). He began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt for two seasons (1995-96)

Playing Career:

Whisenhunt was drafted in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta out of Georgia Tech. He went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93). In 74 career games (37 starts), he caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six touchdowns.

After going to Georgia Tech as a walk-on, he finished his college playing career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

His college career did get off to a very memorable start. On 11/8/80, Whisenhunt was a true freshman, walk-on wide receiver/defensive back on a 1-7 Georgia Tech team that hosted undefeated and #1 ranked Notre Dame. On the game's second drive, Tech's starting QB was knocked from the game and the back-up was also not available. Head coach Bill Curry turned to Whisenhunt, an 18-year old freshman (listed in the game program as a 6-3, 190-pound receiver) who had played some high school QB but had never taken a college snap at any position. His stats weren't gaudy (3-5, 29 yards) but he played most of the game with a stress fracture in his leg that went unnoticed until after the game. He did have his team up 3-0 before Notre Dame kicked a game-tying field goal with a little over four minutes remaining, denying Tech the upset win though they did hold on for the surprising 3-3 tie.

Personal:

Born February 28, 1962 in Atlanta, GA, Whisenhunt was raised in Augusta and is a graduate of Richmond Academy. He earned a degree in civil engineering from Georgia Tech. Ken and his wife, Alice, have two children – son, Kenneth, Jr. and daughter Mary Ashley.

RUSS GRIMM

ASST. HEAD COACH/RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: Scottdale, PA
DOB: May 2, 1959
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 18th

Russ Grimm begins his third season with the Cardinals as the assistant head coach/run game coordinator/offensive line after joining the team on 1/23/07. Grimm spent his first two seasons as assistant head coach/offensive line and was given the additional title of run game coordinator on 2/18/09. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the same capacity, Grimm is beginning his 18th season as an NFL assistant after playing 11 years at guard for the Washington Redskins.

Grimm, 50, spent six seasons with the Steelers coaching with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt before coming to Arizona. He joined the Steelers staff in 2001 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's tenure, making an instant impact in developing the Pittsburgh's offensive line. Grimm's value to the coaching staff was recognized by Cowher, who promoted Grimm to assistant head coach prior to the 2004 season, the only coach to hold that title under Cowher.

In 2008, Grimm's five regular offensive linemen started all 20 games during the regular season and postseason including Super Bowl XLIII. The offense finished with a top five ranking (4th overall) for the second consecutive season and rookie running back Tim Hightower set a franchise rookie mark with 10 rushing touchdowns.

Grimm made an immediate impact in his first season with Arizona in 2007. His offensive line allowed only 24 sacks, 6th best in the NFL and the fewest given up by the Cardinals since 1978 (22). Grimm's offensive line also paved the way for running back Edgerrin James to rush for 1,222 yards, the fifth best total in team history. The Cardinals offense finished with the 5th best passing attack in the NFL and threw for a team record 32 touchdowns.

The 2006 Steelers offensive line helped pave the way for running back Willie Parker to gain 1,494 yards and 13 touchdowns on 337 carries (4.4 yard avg.) and earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Pittsburgh's offense finished the 2006 season with the 10th best rushing attack in the NFL, helping to give the Steelers the 7th ranked total offense in the league. Parker finished the season with the second and third-best rushing performances of the year in the NFL with 223 rushing yards (32 att., TD) against Cleveland (12/7) and 213 yards (22 att., 2 TDs) vs. New Orleans (11/12).

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/23/07 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offensive line.
- Given the additional title of run game coordinator following 2008 season on 2/18/09.
- In 2008, his five offensive linemen started all 20 games during the season including Super Bowl XLIII.
- In 2007, Arizona's offensive line ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing only 24 sacks, the lowest total for the team since 1978 (22).
- Was among 17 finalists for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame the past three years (2007-09) in addition to being named one of 10 finalists in 2006.
- Spent 20 seasons with the Washington Redskins, the first 11 as an All-Pro lineman (1981-91) and then as an assistant coach for nine seasons (1992-2000).
- In his career, his teams have earned four Super Bowl victories. Three as a player (XVII, XXII and XXVI) and one as a coach (XL).
- Earned four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the NFL's 1980's all-decade team.

Under Grimm's guidance in 2005, the Super Bowl champion Steelers averaged nearly 140 yards rushing per game during the regular season to rank fifth in the NFL while also grinding out 181 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XL victory over the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Pittsburgh, Grimm molded a formidable and tough offensive front anchored by All-Pro guard Alan Faneca, who earned his sixth trip to the Pro Bowl and his fifth consecutive start in 2007, and center Jeff Hartings, who made his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2006 and developed into one of the best centers in the NFL in just six seasons.

A native of Scottdale, PA, Grimm began his NFL coaching career as Washington's tight ends coach (1992-96) before moving to coach the Redskins offensive line for four seasons (1997-2000). He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and five-time Pro Bowler Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line.

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86), was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team, and an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line. During his playing days with the Redskins, Grimm was a teammate of Whisenhunt (1989-90).

He was among the 17 finalists for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame the past three years (2007-09) and among the 10 finalists in 2006.

An All-American center at Pitt who helped his team to a 22-2 record over his junior and senior seasons, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third round (69th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team and signed with the Cardinals as a rookie free agent in 1991.

Grimm punted, played quarterback, and linebacker at Southmoreland High School while earning nine varsity letters and starring on the basketball team. Grimm was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad, an offensive assistant with the Cardinals, Cody and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan.

BILL DAVIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Cincinnati
HOMETOWN: Youngstown, OH
DOB: November 5, 1965
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 18th

Bill Davis enters his third season with the Cardinals and first as defensive coordinator after being promoted to the position on 2/18/09. The 18-year NFL assistant originally joined the Cardinals on 1/19/07 to coach linebackers following two seasons as the San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator.

During Davis' two seasons in Arizona, linebackers Karlos Dansby and Gerald Hayes both have eclipsed over 100 tackles each year with Dansby leading the team in 2007 (117 tackles) and setting a new career-high in 2008 (128 tackles). Hayes' 107 tackles in 2008 marked the third season that he recorded over 100 tackles during his career. Dansby tied for the team lead with three fumble recoveries last season after leading the team with four in 2007. During Davis' first season in Arizona, linebacker Calvin Pace also recorded over 100 tackles for the first time in his career (106) while also collecting 6.5 sacks to finish second on the team.

In 2006, the 49ers defense was highlighted with cornerback Walt Harris' first Pro Bowl selection after tying with an NFC high (GB-C. Woodson) eight interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown (@ Den). Harris also led San Francisco with five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. The veteran corner was not alone in producing a career season under Davis' tutelage. Linebacker Brandon Moore, in his second season as a starter, had a break-out season with a team and career-high 114 tackles (67 solos), including a team-high 6.5 sacks.

Davis joined San Francisco after completing one season (2004) as linebackers coach for the New York Giants. Prior to the season in New York, Davis spent the previous three campaigns as the Atlanta Falcons linebackers coach. During that span, linebacker Keith Brooking was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his three seasons under Davis. In 2002, Davis was instrumental in helping Atlanta's linebackers adjust to a new 3-4 defense installed by defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

Davis gained valuable experience as a ball boy under Dick Vermeil (Philadelphia) and Don Shula (Miami) while his father, Bill, served 13 years in the NFL, including six years as the Cleveland Browns Vice President of player personnel.

After beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, Davis joined the NFL in 1992 as a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers under Bill Cowher. With a playing and coaching career primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Davis worked for three successful seasons with the Steelers on the defensive side of the ball.

As a defensive assistant coach, Davis sat in meeting rooms with a list of former and current head coaches including Cowher, Dom Capers, Marvin Lewis and Dick LeBeau.

In 1995, Davis began a four-year stretch as the outside linebackers coach with the Carolina Panthers under Capers. With Davis as their coach in 1996, linebackers

NOTE CARDS

- Promoted to defensive coordinator on 2/18/09 after working as linebackers coach with the Cardinals for the past two seasons (2007-08).
- 18-year NFL assistant who has worked with seven other teams during coaching career.
- Worked for two seasons as defensive coordinator for San Francisco (2005-06) prior to joining Arizona's staff.
- Served as outside linebackers coach in Carolina (1995-98) and helped guide linebackers Kevin Greene (14.5 sacks) and Lamar Lathon (13.5 sacks) to finish first and second in the NFL in sacks with each being selected for the Pro Bowl.
- Coached linebackers for Atlanta for three seasons (2001-03) and helped Keith Brooking reach the Pro Bowl in each of those three seasons.

Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon finished first and second in the NFL in sacks, with 14.5 and 13.5 respectively. Each made the Pro Bowl and the second-year Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

After leaving Carolina, Davis had a pair of one-year stops, first with the Cleveland Browns (1999) as a defensive assistant/linebackers and next with the Green Bay Packers (2000) as a defensive assistant/defensive line.

A native of Youngstown, OH, Davis was a college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati from 1985-88. He also spent time in training camp as a wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins.

Davis and his wife, Sherry, have four daughters; Monica, Brooke and twins Grace and Ava.

MIKE MILLER

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Clarion (PA) University
HOMETOWN: Pittsburgh, PA
DOB: April 9, 1970
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 10th

Tenth-year NFL assistant Mike Miller begins his third season with the Cardinals and first as passing game coordinator after being promoted on 2/18/09. Previously Arizona's wide receivers coach for the past two seasons (2007-08), Miller joined the Cardinals in 2/6/07 as an offensive assistant and was promoted to receivers coach on 3/21/07. He came to Arizona after splitting 2006 between the Berlin Thunder (quarterbacks/receivers) of NFL Europe in the spring and Robert Morris University (defensive line) in the fall. The Cardinals are the third NFL franchise Miller has worked for as an assistant after previous jobs with the Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers.

Miller's top two receivers, Anquan Boldin (160 receptions for 1,891 yards and 20 TDs) and Larry Fitzgerald (196 receptions for 2,840 yards and 22 TDs) combined for 356 receptions and 4,731 yards to go along with 42 touchdowns over the past two seasons. They have also combined for three Pro Bowl appearances (Fitzgerald 2007-08, Boldin 2008). Fitzgerald led the NFC for the second consecutive season in both receptions (96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008) and touchdowns with a career-high 12 last season. Even though Boldin missed four games due to various injuries, he still caught 89 passes for 1,038 and a career-high 11 touchdowns in 2008. Second-year receiver Steve Breaston set career highs with 77 receptions for 1,006 yards, giving the Cardinals three 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in team history and only the fifth time in NFL history. Arizona finished the season with NFL rankings of 4th in total offense and 2nd in passing offense as quarterback Kurt Warner threw a franchise record 30 touchdown passes. In both of Miller's seasons with the Cardinals, the passing offense has finished with a top five ranking in the NFL (5th in 2007).

Miller joined the Thunder in the spring of 2006 from the Buffalo Bills where he was quality control/tights ends coach in 2004 and tight ends in 2005. He previously served as an offensive assistant with current Cardinals Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt and Assistant Head Coach/Run Game Coordinator/Offensive Line Russ Grimm with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2003.

The Pittsburgh, PA native got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant coaching running backs at Robert Morris University (PA) for two seasons (1997-1998). He also worked as a public relations and operations intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1994-95) and with the Indianapolis Colts(1996).

After attending Plum Senior High School, Miller received his bachelor's degree in communications from Clarion University (PA) and his masters in education from Robert Morris.

RON AIKEN

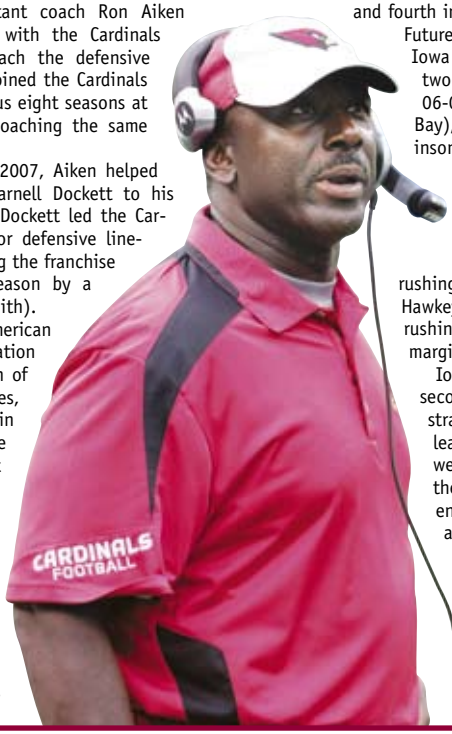

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: North Carolina A&T
HOMETOWN: Moncks Corner, SC
DOB: August 18, 1955
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 3rd

Veteran college assistant coach Ron Aiken enters his third season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach the defensive line on 2/14/07. Aiken joined the Cardinals after spending the previous eight seasons at the University of Iowa coaching the same position.

With the Cardinals in 2007, Aiken helped tutor defensive tackle Darnell Dockett to his first Pro Bowl selection. Dockett led the Cardinals and all NFL interior defensive linemen with nine sacks, tying the franchise record for sacks in a season by a defensive tackle (Mark Smith).

Named the 2002 American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year with the Hawkeyes, Aiken joined Iowa's staff in 1999 and helped lead the Hawkeyes to six straight bowl appearances (2001-06). His defensive line finished the 2005 season ranking 29th nationally in rush defense (126 yards per game) and 22nd in scoring defense (20 points per game), finishing third in the Big Ten in both categories and fourth in total defense.

Future pros he coached while at Iowa include defensive end and two-time Pro Bowl selection (2006-07) Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), defensive end Derreck Robinson (Miami), nose tackle Colin Cole (Seattle), defensive end Matt Roth (Miami), and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux (Atlanta).

Iowa led the Big Ten in rushing defense in 2004 and the Hawkeyes were fifth nationally in rushing defense, sixth in turnover margin and 11th in total defense.

Iowa's rushing defense ranked second in the Big Ten for three straight years before leading the league in 2004. The Hawkeyes were fifth in the nation against the run (81.9) in 2002, seventh in 2003 (92.7) and fifth again in 2004 (92.5).

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Aiken spent the 1998 season coaching linebackers at San Diego State where all three of his linebackers earned all-conference honors.

He was at the University of Texas coaching defensive tackles in 1997, worked with the defensive line at Vanderbilt from 1995-96 and was at New Mexico coaching linebackers and defensive ends from 1991-94.

Aiken was the head coach at Langston (OK) from 1986-90 where his teams led the nation (NAIA Div. I) in defense in two of his four seasons. He was special teams coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1985, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Tarkio College from 1982-84 and he coached the offensive line and special teams at Bethany College from 1980-81. Aiken began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Boiling Springs (SC) High School and in 1979 became head coach at Greensville County (VA) High School.

A graduate of North Carolina A&T, Aiken earned all-conference honors while playing guard and center for the Aggies (1973-76) and was a team captain in 1976.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from North Carolina A&T in 1977 and a masters degree in secondary education from The Citadel in 1982. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three sons: Matthew, Stephen and Joshua.

TERYL AUSTIN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: Sharon, PA
DOB: March 3, 1965

CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 7th

Teryl Austin is entering his seventh season as an NFL assistant and third with the Cardinals after being hired to coach defensive backs on 1/18/07. Austin came to the Cardinals having a reputation for developing young defensive backs during his four years in Seattle. That proved true again last season as 2008 first-round pick (16th overall) Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie led the Cardinals with four interceptions during the regular season and had two more in the playoffs during the Cardinals run towards Super Bowl XLIII.

During his tenure in Seattle, Austin was instrumental in the development of Seattle's secondary, heavily pieced together through the NFL Draft, mentoring draft picks Marcus Trufant (1st Round, 2003), Ken Hamlin (2nd Round, 2003), Michael Boulware (2nd Round, 2004) and Kelly Jennings (1st Round, 2006).

In 2007, Austin's secondary helped the Cardinals lead the NFL in interception returns (6) for touchdowns and in return yardage (551). Cornerbacks Rod Hood and Antrel Rolle each had five INT's with Rolle returning three of them for TDs and Hood returning two. Rolle's 231 return yards were good for second in team history and his two interception returns for touchdowns against Cincinnati (11/18) tied an NFL record.

In winning the NFC in 2005 in Seattle, Austin's secondary, despite missing a combined 19 games due to injury, helped carry the Seahawks to the Super Bowl. The defensive backfield was led by safety Michael Boulware, who in only his second NFL season, led the team in interceptions (four) and was second on the team in tackles (73).

In 2004, Austin coached a group of Seahawks defensive backs that, for just the second time in Seahawks history (1984), had three different players intercept at least five passes and for the first time since 1984, all four starters intercepted at least four. Collectively, the Seahawks ranked 3rd in the NFL with 23 interceptions and collected at least one pick in all but two games.

Prior to joining the Seahawks in 2003, Austin was an assistant for 12 years at the collegiate level where he also coached defensive backs. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Penn State (1991-1992) before heading to Wake Forest (1993-1995), Syracuse (1996-1998) and Michigan (1999-2002).

While coaching at the college level, Austin found his niche for developing young NFL caliber players. At Syracuse he mentored All-Americans Donovan Darius and Kevin Abrams. Darius was named the 1997 Big East Conference Player of the Year and went on to become a first-round NFL Draft pick with fellow defensive back Tebucky Jones – the first time in Syracuse history that two Orangemen were selected in the first round. He also coached NFL talents Will Allen (Dolphins) and Keith Bulluck (Titans) at Syracuse and tutored Marlin Jackson (Colts) and Cato June (Texans) while at Michigan. As well as developing individual talents, Austin also helped lead teams to seven consecutive bowl berths from 1996-2002.

A 1988 graduate of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's degree in communications, Austin was a three-year starter and four-year letterman (1984-87) for the Panthers participating in the 1984 Fiesta and the 1987 Bluebonnet Bowls. After graduating, Austin competed in the training camps of the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats before playing for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991.

RICK COURTRIGHT

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Wheaton College
HOMETOWN: Miami, FL
DOB: January 4, 1961
CARDINAL SEASON: 6th
NFL SEASON: 6th

With a coaching background entering its 22nd year, Rick Courtright begins his sixth season on the Cardinals staff and third as the assistant defensive backs coach. As the defensive quality control coach for three seasons (2004-06) prior to his current assignment, Courtright was instrumental in helping to guide strong safety Adrian Wilson to his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2006 while also tutoring Wilson to eight sacks in 2005, the most of any defensive back in NFL history. Wilson once again was recognized with a Pro Bowl selection in 2008 and free safety Antrel Rolle successfully made the transition from cornerback to finish second on the team with a career-high 119 tackles.

A native of Miami, FL, Courtright began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Hendricks (MN) High School in 1988, then moved to head coach at Teton County High School in Driggs, ID for two seasons (1989-90). He was then part of the University of Washington staff in 1991–92 that produced two Pac-10 Conference titles, a pair of Rose Bowl appearances, and the 1991 National Championship.

Following his two seasons as assistant offensive line coach at Washington, he joined the staff at Minnesota-Morris as defensive line coach, strength coach, and academic coordinator in 1993. He coached defensive ends at Ohio University in 1994, served as outside linebackers coach at Idaho State (1995) and as linebackers coach, tight ends coach, special teams coordinator, and recruiting coordinator at the University of Idaho (1996–99) before serving one season (2000) as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Murray State. Prior to his appointment with the Cardinals, Courtright spent three seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois (2001-03) where he was instrumental in guiding the Leathernecks to a Gateway Conference Championship in 2002 and postseason berths in 2002-03.

Courtright was an All-State linebacker at Miami Christian High School, and played college football at Wheaton (IL) College where he earned a degree in physical education in 1983, which he later complemented with a degree in sports pedagogy (the science of teaching) from Idaho in 1999. Courtright has been married to his wife Lois for 25 years and the couple resides in Phoenix.

COLLEGE: Virginia Tech
HOMETOWN: Fairfax, VA
DOB: May 18, 1985
CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 1st

Chad Grimm enters his first season with the Cardinals as an offensive quality control coach after joining the team on 3/2/09. A four-year linebacker at Virginia Tech (2003-06), Grimm enters his first job in the NFL.

Born in Fairfax, VA, Grimm played four seasons at Virginia Tech as a reserve linebacker and special teams player where he appeared in 16 career games. After playing in eight games as a freshman on special teams, Grimm appeared in one as a sophomore, four as a junior and three as a senior.

Grimm lettered for three seasons as an outside linebacker and long snapper at Oakton High School (Vienna, VA). He collected over 100 tackles and 5.5 sacks during his senior season including notching 10 tackles, a sack, and a blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown in the regional championship game. He was also an all-district player and state champion in lacrosse at Oakton.

Grimm's father, Russ, is an assistant coach with the Cardinals who played 11 seasons with the Washington Redskins (1981-91).

He graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's degree in Apparel, Housing and Resource Management in 2008.

CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 4th

Tight ends coach Freddie Kitchens enters his third season on the Cardinals coaching staff after beginning his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 2006. Kitchens joined the Cowboys staff with seven years of collegiate coaching experience following a successful stint as a quarterback at the University of Alabama. In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games.

Kitchens' tight ends in 2007 (Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick, Troy Bienemann) helped the Cardinals finish with the 5th best passing offense in the NFL as well helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a new franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most since 1988 and the trio also recorded six redzone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second best redzone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

Kitchens came to Dallas after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round NFL Draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a Mississippi State single-season record with four touchdown receptions from his tight end position.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas from 2001-03 and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. During the previous two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tiger staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. He ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions upon his departure. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1994 Citrus Bowl, and the 1996 Outback Bowl.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters Bennett and Camden.

JOHN LOTT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: North Texas
HOMETOWN: Denton, TX
DOB: May 9, 1964
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 14th

John Lott, in his 14th year as an NFL assistant, enters his third season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 1/19/07. Previously with the Cleveland Browns prior to joining Arizona (2005-06), Lott served in the same capacity with the New York Jets for eight years (1997-2004) where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt in 2000.

A native of Denton, TX, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. A fixture at the NFL scouting combine each February in Indianapolis, Lott was recognized this past February at the combine as the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. He was also honored as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach by Power Magazine.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance. He is also responsible for working with injured players on secondary rehabilitation programs.

He originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for six years (1991-96) where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team.

During his tenure at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his work at Houston, Lott served two years (1989-90) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, the athletes he tutored garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and was twice voted a team captain by his teammates and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his bachelor's degree in corporate fitness in 1988 with minors in biology and kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in physical education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott and his wife Kim have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

JOHN McNULTY

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: Penn State
HOMETOWN: Scranton, PA
DOB: May 29, 1968
CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 7th

John McNulty makes the transition back into the professional ranks as he begins his first season with the Cardinals as wide receivers coach after being hired on 2/18/09. McNulty comes to Arizona after working the past five seasons at Rutgers, coaching the past two seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks after originally joining the staff as the wide receivers coach in 2004. McNulty previously worked six seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1998-2002) and Dallas Cowboys (2003).

McNulty began his tenure at Rutgers in 2004, starting as the wide receivers coach before taking on the duties of assistant offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2006. In 2006, McNulty took over the play call duties and the Scarlet Knights finished the season ranked 12th in the country with an 11-2 record. The following season, McNulty was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and Rutgers set school records for total offense (5,841 yards), points scored (421) and first downs (295). They also became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000 yard passer (Mike Teal-3,147 yards), a 2,000 yard rusher (Ray Rice-2,069 yards), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Kenny Britt-1,232, Tiquan Underwood-1,100 yards). During McNulty's five seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights posted a record of 38-24 and won three consecutive bowl games while he was in charge of play calling.

Prior to joining Rutgers, McNulty spent his first five NFL seasons in Jacksonville as an offensive quality control coach (1998-2000) and then as wide receivers coach (2000-02). While in Jacksonville, McNulty worked with one of the NFL's top receiving tandems in Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell. During the 2000-01 seasons, the pair combined for 390 receptions and 4,903 yards, while Smith earned All-Pro honors both years. In 2002, Smith had 80 receptions for 1,027 yards, his seventh consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season. McNulty helped Jacksonville to playoff appearances in 1998 (11-5 record) and in 1999 (14-2 record).

McNulty then spent the 2003 season with the Dallas Cowboys as the wide receivers coach as the Cowboys went 10-6 and earned a playoff berth.

Before making the jump to the NFL, McNulty spent three seasons (1995-97) at Connecticut working with the wide receivers and special teams. At UConn, McNulty helped wide receiver Carl Bond earn Division I-AA All-America honors in 1997.

McNulty was a safety at Penn State (1988-90) and was a member of two Nittany Lion bowl teams. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant helping out with the wide receivers at the University of Michigan in 1991. Michigan won two Big Ten titles and appeared in four bowl games including two Rose Bowl appearances during his time in Ann Arbor. In 1994, McNulty worked with standout wide receivers and future NFL players Amani Toomer and Mercury Hayes.

After attending Abington Heights High School (Clarks Summit, PA), McNulty received his bachelor's degree in Business Management from Penn State in 1990.

McNulty and wife Kim reside in Phoenix with daughters Abigail, Allison, and Megan.

CHRIS MILLER

QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: Oregon
HOMETOWN: Pomona, CA
DOB: August 9, 1965

CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 1st

Chris Miller begins his first season with the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach after being hired on 2/18/09 to coach the same position he played in the NFL for 10 years with three different teams (Atlanta Falcons 1987-93, St. Louis Rams 1994-95, Denver Broncos 1999). Miller is a former first-round draft choice (13th overall) in the 1987 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons out of the University of Oregon.

Miller spent seven seasons with the Falcons before signing with the Rams as an unrestricted free agent in 1994. He sat out of football for three years due to medical advice following concussions, but returned in 1999 with the Broncos for one season before finishing his career. A former teammate of Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt while in Atlanta, Miller was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1991 season as he threw for 3,103 yards and 26 TDs for Atlanta. He also played in two postseason games for the Falcons in 1991 when he threw for 469 yards and three touchdowns.

He finished his NFL career with 1,580 completions on 2,892 attempts for 19,320 yards and 123 touchdowns in 98 games played (92 starts). He also threw for nine 300-yard games during his 10 seasons in the league.

Following his playing career, Miller served as an assistant coach at Sheldon High School, Churchill High School and Marist High School before being named the head coach of South Eugene High School in 2002 in his hometown of Eugene, OR. Miller led South Eugene to four straight playoff appearances after the school had 11 consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival. He coached there for five years (2002-06) until getting out of football and serving as the executive director of Kidsports in April of 2006. Kidsports is a youth sports organization which provides athletic opportunities for 17,000 kids in soccer, football, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and softball for children from preschool through high school in his native Eugene, Springfield and surrounding areas.

During that time, Miller was able to gain some NFL coaching experience with the Cardinals as he served as a coaching intern under Whisenhunt during Arizona's training camp in the summer of 2007.

As a collegiate at Oregon, Miller broke 13 school records held by NFL greats Dan Fouts, Bob Berry, and Norm Van Brocklin. As a senior, Miller set school marks for passing yards (2,503), completions (216), completion percentage (60.7) and total offense (2,549). He became the first Pac-10 quarterback to earn back-to-back first-team all conference honors (1985-86) since Jim Plunkett at Stanford (1969-70) accomplished the feat. Miller finished his career with 6,681 passing yards, 42 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns. He was named the MVP of the Hula Bowl and was the Offensive Player of the Game in the Senior Bowl in 1987 prior to being drafted.

An All-State prep player in football, basketball and baseball at Sheldon High School (Eugene, OR), Miller led the Irish to an 8-1 record and trip to the AAA playoffs as a senior. A former Punt, Pass, and Kick finalist at age eight, Miller was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1983 and the Seattle Mariners in 1985. He played shortstop for Bellingham of the Northwest League in 1986 and batted .556. Miller was inducted into the University of Oregon's Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the state of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and Sheldon High School's Hall of Honor in 2008.

Miller and his wife Lori have six children, daughters Jessie and Mikayla, and sons Dillon, Mitchell, Matthew and Michael.

CURTIS MODKINS

RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: TCU
HOMETOWN: Marlin, TX
DOB: November 15, 1970

CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 2nd

Veteran collegiate assistant Curtis Modkins begins his first season with the Cardinals and second in the NFL after being named running backs coach on 2/19/09. A 13-year assistant in the college ranks, Modkins comes to the Cardinals after working last season as the running backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Modkins spent the 2008 season with the Chiefs after working the previous six seasons tutoring both running backs (2003-07) and defensive backs (2002) at Georgia Tech. While at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets rushing attack led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense in 2007, totaling 2,591 yards (199.3 yards per game) and 28 rushing touchdowns. Georgia Tech boasted the ACC's leading rusher three different times (2003-P.J. Daniels, 2006-07-Tashard Choice) during Modkins' tenure and he was instrumental in the development of Daniels, a former walk-on and two-time All-ACC running back and Choice, who finished his senior season as an honorable mention All-American. Both players were drafted in the fourth round--Choice by Dallas in 2008 (122nd overall) and Daniels by Baltimore in 2006 (132nd overall)--and both are currently in the top five on Georgia Tech's all-time rushing list (Choice-4th, Daniels-5th).

While serving as the defensive backs coach in 2002, Modkins coached Georgia Tech's only first-team All-ACC honoree that season, free safety Jeremy Muyres. During Modkins' time at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets had six straight winning seasons and six consecutive bowl appearances including a 9-3 regular season mark in 2006 and an appearance in the ACC Championship game against Wake Forest.

Before going to Georgia Tech, Modkins enjoyed a successful four-year tenure as cornerbacks coach at New Mexico (1998-2001). From 2000-01, the Lobos' defense ranked among the top 20 nationally in total defense (309.4 yards per game in 2000, 310.8 yards per game in 2001) while also intercepting 15 passes in each of those seasons.

Modkins began his coaching career at his alma mater TCU, first serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then coaching the secondary (1996) and tight ends (1997) under head coach Pat Sullivan.

Throughout his various college stops, Modkins received plenty of experience in the NFL as he served three different NFL Minority Coaching Fellowships. His first stop was in 1997 with the Philadelphia Eagles under then head coach Ray Rhodes. Modkins then worked with the Dallas Cowboys in 1999 with Cowboys head coach Chan Gailey, whom he would later work with at Georgia Tech and Kansas City before working with the Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach Bill Cowher and then offensive coordinator Ken Whisenhunt in 2005.

A standout running back at TCU, Modkins was a three-year starter who led the Horned Frogs in rushing three consecutive seasons (1990-92). He concluded his career ranked third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,763 yards and was twice named second-team All-Southwest Conference.

Modkins earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from TCU in 1993 and then earned his M.L.A. degree from TCU in 1997. Modkins and his wife Kristi have three children, Ciera, Jett, and Mariah.

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Westminster
HOMETOWN: Monaca, PA
DOB: August 16, 1970

CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 6th

Matt Raich enters his third season with the Cardinals and first as linebackers coach after being promoted on 2/18/09. He joined the Cardinals on 2/6/07 and served the past two seasons as a defensive assistant assisting with the linebackers. Previously an offensive assistant under current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt with the Pittsburgh Steelers for three seasons (2004-06), Raich switched to the defensive side of the ball with the Cardinals, helping to coach the position where he played in college.

Raich joined the Steelers coaching staff prior to the 2004 season after spending two years as an intern in the Pittsburgh player personnel department.

Prior to joining the Steelers scouting department in 2002, Raich served three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris (2000-02). He also held assistant coaching positions at Glenville State (1999), Robert Morris (1996-98) and Westminster (1993-94). In addition, he served as the defensive coordinator for the Hildesheim Invaders Football Club in the German Federal League in the spring of 1999.

A Monaca, PA native, Raich was a standout middle linebacker at Westminster College (PA) from 1989-1992 and a member of Titans' 1989 NAIA National Championship team. He was a three-time NAIA All-American and ended his career as the school's all-time leading tackler. Raich graduated from Westminster in 1994 with a bachelor's in education and was inducted into the Titans Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing their clocks forward or setting them back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2009, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 8) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 1). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

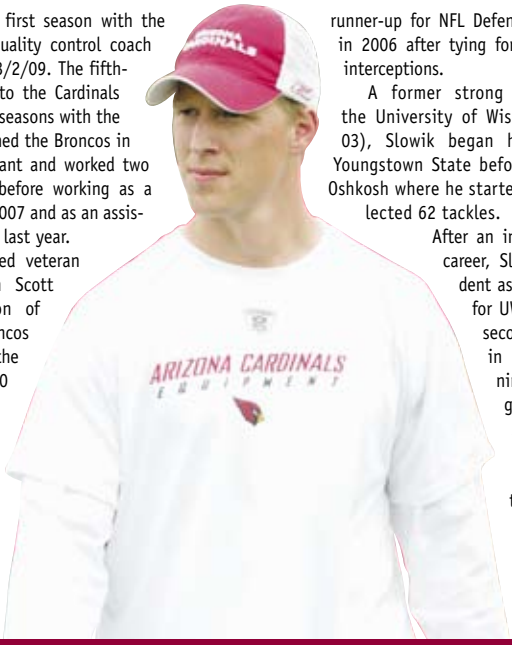

RYAN SLOWIK

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

COLLEGE: Wisconsin-Oshkosh
HOMETOWN: Gainesville, FL
DOB: December 27, 1980
CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 5th

Ryan Slowik enters his first season with the Cardinals as a defensive quality control coach after joining the team on 3/2/09. The fifth-year NFL assistant comes to the Cardinals after working the past four seasons with the Denver Broncos. Slowik joined the Broncos in 2005 as a defensive assistant and worked two seasons in that capacity before working as a special teams assistant in 2007 and as an assistant defensive backs coach last year.

In 2007, Slowik assisted veteran NFL special teams coach Scott O'Brien in the instruction of Denver's special teams. Broncos kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to convert four walk-off, game winning field goals in the same season with two in regulation and two in overtime. In 2005-06, Slowik worked closely with the Broncos defensive backs as cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions.

A former strong safety in college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh (2002-03), Slowik began his playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to UW-Oshkosh where he started eight games and collected 62 tackles.

After an injury ended his playing career, Slowik worked as a student assistant secondary coach for UW-Oshkosh in 2004. His secondary played a key role in the Titans posting the ninth best turnover margin in Division III that season.

Slowik's father, Bob, is a 17-year NFL assistant who served as the Denver Broncos defensive coordinator in 2007-08.

Slowik was born in Gainesville, FL.

KEVIN SPENCER

SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: Springfield (MA) College
HOMETOWN: Queens, NY
DOB: November 2, 1953
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 19th

Nineteen-year NFL coaching veteran Kevin Spencer begins his third season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach special teams on 1/19/07. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers for five seasons (2002-06), Spencer was selected as the 2003 NFL "Special Teams Coach of the Year" by the league's special teams coaches.

In 2008, Cardinals special teams captain Sean Morey was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the unit in tackles with 22. One of the Cardinals more memorable highlights of the 2008 season came via Morey as he blocked a Mat McBriar punt in overtime against the Dallas Cowboys which was returned three yards by Monty Beisel for the game winning points. Kicker Neil Rackers completed his franchise record fourth consecutive season of over 100 points as he collected 119 for the season which was good for second in team history behind only the 140 he had in 2005.

In 2005, Spencer guided the Steelers special teams to one of the best units in the NFL. Pittsburgh posted two punt returns for touchdowns in 2005, marking the second time the team accomplished the feat over the course of his five-year tenure with the Steelers. The unit also ranked as one of the best in net punting average, allowing a 34.5 average for 4th in the AFC.

Steelers punt returner Antwaan Randle El set a team record with four punt returns for touchdowns during his time with the Steelers (2002-05) while kicker Jeff Reed's 80.0% (112 of 140) career field goal percentage under Spencer was good for second in team history (Norm Johnson, 82.7%). Reed kicked five game winning field goals during his time with Spencer.

Prior to joining the Steelers in 2002, Spencer spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Indianapolis Colts (1998-2001). While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the premiere kickers in the NFL. In 2001, Vanderjagt ranked 1st in the AFC in scoring (125 points) and 2nd in the NFL (127, Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis). During the 2000 season, Vanderjagt connected on 25-of-27 field goals to rank 2nd in the AFC in scoring and tied for 5th in the NFL with 121 points. Under Spencer's guidance, Vanderjagt was the first player in Colts history to post four straight 100+ point seasons.

Spencer also served three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He started his NFL coaching career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

The Queens, NY native began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York where he coached wrestling and lacrosse. He coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1976-79) in Birmingham, MI, before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80). Spencer then coached for one season at the Gillman School in Baltimore, MD before holding positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. He served five years (1987-91) as the head coach at Wesleyan (CT) University where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990. While at Wesleyan, Spencer coached current Cleveland Browns head coach Eric Mangini for two seasons (1989-90).

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (MA) College from 1972-75 and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons Timothy and Jack.

STEVE KEIM

DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: North Carolina State
HOMETOWN: Harrisburg, PA
CARDINAL SEASON: 11th
NFL SEASON: 12th

Steve Keim enters his 11th season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout. Formerly the Cardinals scout in the east, Keim was promoted to the title of Director, College Scouting in June, 2006 and was promoted again to his current title of Director, Player Personnel in May, 2008. In his current role, Keim coordinates the activities of both the college and pro scouting departments under the direction of General Manager Rod Graves.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State 1995.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November, 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named 3rd team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players. In the fall of 2004, Keim was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Keim resides in Raleigh, NC with his wife, Kimberly, their son Carson and their daughter Sloane.

T.J. McCREIGHT

DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: Liberty
HOMETOWN: Willoughby, OH
CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 13th

T.J. McCreight begins his first season with the Cardinals as Director, Pro Personnel after joining the team in March, 2009. He joined Arizona after spending the previous four years with the Cleveland Browns, including the last two years as Director, Player Personnel. His responsibilities include heading up the Cardinals pro personnel department, assisting in pro scouting, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, and unrestricted free agency.

McCreight joined the Browns in 2005 as the club's Assistant Director, Player Personnel until being promoted in 2007. He came to Cleveland after an eight-year stint as a member of Baltimore's scouting staff (1997-2004), including serving the last two seasons with the Ravens (2003-04) as the team's national scout. He was hired by Baltimore in 1997 and served three seasons as the Ravens east coast area scout in addition to receiving expanded coverage to scout players throughout the entire country.

After playing in college as a tight end at Liberty University (Lynchburg, VA), McCreight began his coaching career as the receivers coach at Oberlin College in 1993. He then worked four seasons as the defensive line coach at Delaware State (1994-97) before joining the Ravens.

McCreight graduated from Liberty in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in marketing. He and his wife Linda, have a son, Matthew and daughter, Maggie.

REGGIE TERRY

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

COLLEGE: Syracuse
HOMETOWN: Hempstead, NY
CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd
NFL SEASON: 5th

Reggie Terry begins his third season with the Cardinals as Director, Football Administration after being hired in June, 2007. Terry joined the Cardinals after spending 14 seasons at Syracuse University, serving the last seven years as Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations.

With the Cardinals, Terry's responsibilities include budget planning, managing the day to day operations, managing player personnel matters and directing the team's travel.

Terry joined the Syracuse football staff in 2000 as the Director of Football Operations and Player Development and stayed in that position until being elevated to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Operations in 2006. At Syracuse, Terry was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, team travel, the team's compliance with NCAA academic requirements, coordination of pro days, youth clinics and camps and an agent education program.

While at Syracuse, Terry helped organize bowl trips for the 2004 Champs Sports Bowl representing the Big East Conference as Co-Champions as well as the 2001 Insight.com Bowl. He joined the Syracuse staff in 2000 and remained with the university until 2007.

Prior to joining the Syracuse football program in 2000, Terry worked as a graduate assistant and administrative supervisor in the Orange athletic department from 1993-1999. He also worked as an intern with the New York Jets football operations department in 1997 before interning with the NFL's Management Council in 1998.

A linebacker at Syracuse (1989-93), Terry was a part of the school's bowl game victories in 1993 (Fiesta Bowl), 1992 (Hall of Fame Bowl), 1990 (Aloha Bowl), and 1989 (Peach Bowl).

A native of Hempstead, NY, Terry graduated from Syracuse in 1993 with degrees in both history and education. A two-time Big East Conference Academic All-Star, Terry also earned the Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow Scholarship. He received his Master's degree in 1994 in education, his C.A.S. in education leadership in 1999 and is currently working on his PhD in higher education at Syracuse.

Terry and his wife, Tamicka, have four children, Ryon, Reggie II, Regen, and Rory.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO RETIRES AFTER 42 YEARS WITH THE CARDINALS

After stepping down from his role of head athletic trainer prior to the 2008 season and assuming the role of senior advisor to sports medicine, John Omohundro officially retired in the spring of 2009 completing a run of over 40 years of working for the Cardinals.

Including preseason, regular season and postseason games, Omohundro worked 838 games over the course of his Cardinals' employment with the final being Super Bowl XLIII last February.

"Johnny O is truly one of a kind," owner Bill Bidwill said in a statement. "He has never thrown a pass or made a tackle but what he's meant to this football team for over four decades is impossible to measure. His job is often a thankless one but on behalf of the team and everyone who has had the pleasure of working with John during his 42 years as a Cardinal, we extend a very sincere thanks for a job well done."

Omohundro was given the Fain-Cain Memorial award during the 2008 offseason by the NFL Teams Physician's Society, presented to someone who best reflects the virtues of a certified athletic trainer and displays the highest level of professionalism.

The Cardinals' training staff was also named staff of the year in 1993 by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Omohundro came to the Cardinals in 1967 after spending six years in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist. A graduate of the University of Wyoming, Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

A farewell lunch was thrown in his honor this past May and he'll have an NFC Championship ring as the exclamation point to an outstanding career.

QUENTIN HARRIS

SCOUT

COLLEGE: Syracuse
HOMETOWN: Wilkes-Barre, PA
CARDINAL SEASON: 6th
NFL SEASON: 7th

Former Cardinals safety Quentin Harris begins his second season as a pro scout in Arizona after being hired in June, 2008. A free safety for four seasons with the Cardinals (2002-05), Harris began his scouting career last year after finishing his NFL playing days with the Denver Broncos in 2006.

Harris was signed by the Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 3, 2002 out of Syracuse and appeared in 54 games over four seasons including six starts. He led the Cardinals in special teams tackles for two consecutive seasons (19 in 2004, 24 in 2005) before signing as a free agent with the New York Giants in 2006. After being waived by the Giants following training camp, Harris was signed by the Broncos later that season and appeared in six games.

He finished his NFL career with 50 tackles (42 solos), one sack, one interception, five passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and 58 special teams tackles in 60 career games (six starts).

Harris was a four-year starter at free safety for Syracuse where he finished his Orange career with 327 tackles (183 solos), four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 10 interceptions in 42 career games. Harris left Syracuse ninth in school history for the most career interceptions while also being chosen as an honorable mention All-American, first-team All-Big East conference selection and a second-team choice from the conference's coaches as a senior in 2001.

Harris was an honorable mention All-America selection at Wyoming Seminary Upper School in Kingston, PA. He received a bachelor's degree in Information Studies from Syracuse in 2001.

Harris and his wife Tara have a daughter, Aliyah, and two sons, Amani and Elijah and the family resides in Phoenix, AZ.

His primary area of responsibility is scouting the northeast region of the country while also serving as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service.

Boni started his professional career with the NFL's New York office in 2002-03 serving as an operations intern for NFL Europe. He then returned to Ohio University where he served as a student assistant for the football team during the 2003 season.

In 2004, Boni was hired as the linebackers coach and video coordinator for Division III Frostburg State University where he spent two seasons until being hired by the Bills in 2006.

Boni graduated from Ohio University with a bachelor's degree in Sport Sciences in 2004 and then received a Master's of Business Administration from Frostburg State in 2006.

MALIK BOYD

SCOUT

COLLEGE: Southern University
CARDINAL SEASON: 5th
NFL SEASON: 10th

Malik Boyd enters his fifth season with the Cardinals in the scouting department after joining the team in June, 2005. The eighth-year scout came to Arizona after spending two seasons in Indianapolis after joining the Colts in June, 2003. Boyd was promoted to a regional scout last year after previously working as an area scout. His primary area of responsibility is cross checking player evaluations for the western half of the country.

A Houston, TX native, Boyd attended Southern University where he played defensive back and graduated with a bachelor's degree in rehabilitation counseling/psychology in 1994. He went on to play for the Minnesota Vikings (1994-95), the New Orleans Saints (1996) and was with British Columbia in the CFL (1997). Serving as a nickel back during his rookie season with the Vikings, Boyd led all non-starters with 42 tackles and one interception.

After his playing career was finished, Boyd served as the defensive backs coach at his alma matter Smiley High School in Houston, TX from 1999-2001. During that span Boyd worked as a scouting intern with the Vikings in 2001.

Boyd resides in Houston, TX with his wife Varinia. He has three kids, Makenzi, Madeline, and Xavier and three step-sons, Joshua, Jacob, and Edward.

DON CORZINE

SCOUT

COLLEGE: Indiana University
HOMETOWN: North Canton, OH
CARDINAL SEASON: 5th
NFL SEASON: 5th

Don Corzine enters his fifth season with the Cardinals and his second scouting the eastern region of the country after being promoted to an area scout in 2008. Corzine spent his first three years with Arizona scouting the northeast region while also serving as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service after being hired in 2005.

Corzine joined the Cardinals after spending six seasons on the University of Connecticut football staff, including the last five as the Director of Football Operations. As the director, he oversaw official and unofficial recruiting visits, team travel, high school coach relations, preseason camp, player housing, budgetary matters, and day-to-day operations. He joined the UConn staff in March, 1999 as a defensive assistant while also handling the recruiting coordinator duties. In addition to his duties as Director of Football Operations at UConn, he also served as the director of UConn Head Coach Randy Edsall's Football Camp for six years.

A 1998 graduate of Indiana University with a degree in Sports Management, Corzine began his football career during high school, evaluating college players for the Cleveland Browns. While an undergraduate at IU, Corzine served in a variety of positions as a student assistant. From 1994-97, he served under then head coach Bill Mallory. In his first year, Corzine worked with the linebackers, under Joe Novak, before shifting for the last three years to the position of video coordinator while also helping to coach the defensive backs under Doug Mallory and then Jon Harbaugh. While at Indiana, he worked closely with the recruiting coordinator in the evaluation of prospects and coached at the Bill Mallory Football Camp. In 1998 Corzine served as an intern for Harold Mauro, Indiana's Senior Associate Athletic Director.

A North Canton, OH native, Corzine got his first job out of college as a graduate assistant/video coordinator at Ball State University for the 1998 season under Bill Lynch before moving onto UConn the following year.

JERRY HARDAWAY

SCOUT

COLLEGE: Southern Illinois
HOMETOWN: Memphis, TN

NFL SEASON: 22nd

Jerry Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 21st season with the Cardinals and 22nd in the NFL with a primary responsibility for scouting the eastern half of the country.

Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, has handled regional scouting the past six years after working the previous four years as the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) under former NFL quarterback Joe Kapp where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under the late legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as a running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State under current Carolina Panthers wide receiver coach Richard Williamson, where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton High School in Memphis-Arlington, TN in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep in Richmond, CA prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, TN but raised in Richmond, CA, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

COLLEGE: Notre Dame
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 12/6
DOB: August 15, 1975

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2004

Pro Career:

Regarded as one of the best free-agent acquisitions in Cardinals history, Berry signed a five-year contract with Arizona on 3/6/04. Since then, he has recorded 34.0 sacks in 57 games during his five seasons with the Cardinals. Originally a third-round draft selection by the Colts as a linebacker, Berry converted to defensive end and played three seasons in Indianapolis before spending the 2000 season out of football after being released by the St. Louis Rams on 8/20/00. After a brief stint with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, Berry signed with the Denver Broncos on 1/3/01. Berry has ended three of the last four seasons on the injured reserve list, two with freak tricep injuries that occurred against the same opponent (Detroit) at almost the same time in the season. Renegotiated his contract with the Cardinals on 2/20/07 to allow team additional flexibility in free agency. Signed a one-year contract to stay with the Cardinals on 3/18/09.

2008: Split time with DE Travis LaBoy and played in the most regular season games (14) since 2004, totaling seven sacks in the regular and postseason, the third best sack total of his career and highest since a career-best 14.5 sacks in 2004 ... recorded a forced fumble and first sack of the season against QB J.T. O'Sullivan in season opener @ SF (9/7) ... for second straight week, recorded one sack to go with five tackles vs. Mia (9/14) ... registered a sack for the third consecutive game as well as one assisted tackle @ Was (9/21); left game with a groin injury but returned ... registered two quarterback hits and forced a fumble on a sack of QB Tony Romo that DE Antonio Smith recovered on the AZ 28-yard line vs. Dal (10/12) ... made first start of the season for the injured Travis LaBoy and registered two tackles and recovered one fumble @ StL (11/2) ... started in place of LaBoy who was limited all week with an ankle injury and recorded one tackle and one sack vs. NYG (11/23) ... for the second straight week started for the injured LaBoy and tied a season-high with five tackles while registering a team-high three quarterback pressures vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career postseason game for the injured LaBoy (ankle) and led the team with two quarterback pressures and one sack vs. Atl (1/3/09); sack came on third down and forced the Falcons to punt; part of defense that held the Falcons, the second best rushing team in the NFL during the regular season with 152.7 yards per game average, to just 60 yards on 24 carries (2.5 avg.) ... recorded first career sack of QB Jake Delhomme and one quarterback hit @ Car (1/10/09) ... registered a quarterback hit and recovered a fumble on the Eagles 43-yard line vs. Phi (1/18/09) ... recorded one quarterback hit in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

2007: Started all nine games played in 2007 before an injury (triceps) ended his season for the third year in a row ... recorded a half sack of QB Alex Smith that forced a fumble which was recovered by the Cardinals and led to an Edgerrin James TD to put Arizona up 10-7 in the season opener @ SF (9/10) ... recovered a Steve McNair fumble at the Baltimore 35-yard line that led to a Neil Rackers field goal @ Bal (9/23) ... registered a half sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger vs. Pit (9/30) and helped hold Willie Parker, the NFL's leading rusher heading into the game, to just 37 yards on 19 carries ... recorded second sack of the season @ StL (10/7) which marked eighth sack in 10 games; Gus Frerotte became the 33rd different QB he sacked during his career ... made 70th career start vs. Car (10/14) ... was part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards (73 yards rushing, 87 yards passing) @ Was (10/21); lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards total offense on 9/4/94 ... recorded a half sack and two QB pressures before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a season-ending triceps injury vs. Det (11/11); with the half sack, Jon Kitna (5.5)

NOTE CARDS

- Led the Cardinals with five sacks in 2008, appearing in 14 regular season games (four starts).
- In his third career postseason, started three of the four games during the Cards Super Bowl run. Recorded a sack in each of the first two playoff games, finishing the postseason with eight tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery.
- A Pro Bowler in his first season with the Cards in 2004, Berry had his next three campaigns cut short due to injury. He missed the final eight contests of 2005 (pectoral), the last six of 2006 (triceps) and the last seven of 2007 (triceps).
- Earned his first career Pro Bowl berth in 2004 after leading the NFC in sacks with 14.5 (second in NFL behind Indy's Dwight Freeney with 16.0).
- Berry's 14.5 sacks in 2004 ranked as the Cardinals third-highest single-season sack total behind Simeon Rice (16.5, 1999) and Curtis Greer (16.0, 1983).
- Spent the 2000 season out of football but returned to the NFL with the Denver Broncos after receiving a tryout on New Year's Day 2001; spent the next three seasons with the Broncos before signing a free agent contract with the Cardinals on 3/6/04.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2005, Berry established the "Bertrand Berry Foundation." The non-profit foundation was created to help provide children with better life experiences by providing them an opportunity to make a difference. The foundation's signature event is their golf tournament and gala, followed by a dinner and auction and football camp for children. The fourth annual celebrity weekend was held this past March and included former and current athletes including Pro Bowlers, Super Bowl Champions and Hall of Famers. B-Train's Bash took place on Saturday night which followed his Tropical Illusion Gala and the Celebrity Football Camp at the Cardinals Training Facility.

The beneficiaries of Berry's Celebrity Weekend are the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, ChildHelp USA, and the Big Brothers, Big Sisters of Arizona.

Berry hosted his fifth annual "B Train's Holiday Express" at a Phoenix Wal-Mart last December. Along with 20 of his teammates, Berry shopped with 50 needy children from Childhelp USA to assist them in spending $100 for themselves or family members during the holiday season.

In addition to his foundation work, Berry has been very active in participating in Cardinals community efforts. Along with his wife Shellie, Bertrand has been part of a group from the Cardinals to visit sick children at the Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the annual "Teddy Bear Express" program. The Cardinals group handed out personalized teddy bears to children in the pediatric unit during the holiday season.

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2003, 2006, 2008

NOTE CARDS

- Selected as a starter to his third career Pro Bowl in 2008. Joined Larry Fitzgerald (2005, 07-08) and Mel Gray (1974-77) as the only receivers in franchise history with three or more Pro Bowl selections.
- Eclipsed 1,000 yards receiving for a franchise record fourth season, recording 89 receptions for 1,038 yards.
- Moved into third place on the franchise career receptions list (502), becoming the third player in franchise history to eclipse 500 career receptions (Roy Green-522, Larry Centers-535) and reached the milestone nine games faster than any other player in NFL history (80 games).
- Finished third in the NFL with a career-high 11 TD receptions in 2008 despite appearing in just 12 games.
- With 11 TDs in 2008, joined RB Tim Hightower (10) and Fitzgerald (12) to mark the first time that three Cardinals players surpassed 10 TDs each in a season. It marked only the seventh time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that three players on the same team had registered 10 TDs in the same season.
- With 89 receptions for 1,038 yards in 2008, joined Fitzgerald (96-1,431) and WR Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. It was also the fifth time in league history (second time by a trio of wide receivers) that a team had three players record at least 75 receptions each in a season.
- In 2008, established a franchise record with a receiving touchdown in six consecutive games.
- Became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 400 career receptions when he hit the milestone vs. Atlanta (12/23/07) in his 67th career game, five games faster than the previous record holder—Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow Sr.
- Caught a career-high 14 passes for 181 yards in Baltimore on 9/23/07; his 14 receptions rank as the second-highest single game total in franchise history (Sonny Randle 16, 11/4/62 @ NYG).
- Reached the 4,000-yard receiving mark in his 48th career game and became the third fastest player in NFL history to reach the milestone behind Lance Alworth (42) and Randy Moss (47); Charley Hennigan and Jerry Rice also did it in 48 games.
- Despite missing two games in the middle of the 2005 season, caught 102 passes, breaking his previous personal best and franchise record of 101 (2003). Only surpassed by Fitzgerald who caught 103 passes in 2005.
- In 2005, Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- In 2003, set NFL rookie records for most pass receptions (101); most receiving yards—first NFL game (217); and the Cardinals single-season receptions record (101) en route to Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year honors that season.
- Began his career with a 10-catch, 217-yard game in his NFL debut in Detroit on 9/7/03.

Pro Career:

Originally drafted by the Cardinals in the second round (54th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft, has appeared in 80 regular season games with 77 starts during his first six seasons with the Cardinals. Has collected 502 passes for 6,496 yards and 40 touchdowns while earning three Pro Bowl selections during his Cardinals tenure. Signed an extension on 7/31/05 that keeps him under contract through the 2010 season.

2008: Started 11-of-12 games during the regular season as well as all three games he played in the postseason while dealing with numerous injuries ... recorded career-high three TD receptions including a career-long 79-yarder vs. Mia (9/14); his three TD receptions marked the first time a Cardinals receiver had hauled in three since Rob Moore vs. Was (12/7/97); with Larry Fitzgerald totaling 153 yards receiving it marked the first time that both had eclipsed 100-yards receiving in the same game since 11/26/06 @ San Francisco ... by recording 119 yards on 10 receptions with a TD @ NYJ (9/28), passed Jackie Smith as the franchise leader with 23 career 100-yard receiving games; left the game with 27 seconds left after a helmet-to-helmet collision that left him with facial fractures; combined with Fitzgerald (8 rec.-122 yds.) to mark the second time in three weeks that both eclipsed 100-yards receiving in the same game; Steve Breaston added 122 yards on nine receptions to mark only the second time in franchise history that three receivers went over 100 yards receiving in the same game (happened in 11/10/68 vs. Pit); went on to miss next two games ... in first game back after the injury suffered against the Jets, recorded career-long 30-yard run as well as tied for the team-high with nine receptions for 63 yards and hauled in two TDs vs. Car (10/26) ... tied for team lead with six receptions for 85 yards and one TD @ StL (11/2) ... registered two TDs vs. SF (11/10); ... extended franchise record to 24 career 100-yard receiving games by totaling 186 yards (second most of his career) on 13 receptions (tied the 2nd highest total of his career) @ Sea (11/16) ... did not start because Arizona opened the game with a two tight end package @ Phi (11/27); marked only the third time he has not started a game he has played in during his career ... registered 62 receiving yards vs. StL (12/7); marked the second time he and Fitzgerald have each gone over 1,000 yards in the same season (2005) and third time in franchise history that two receivers have eclipsed 1,000 yards; moved past Frank Sanders (1995-2002 - 493 rec.) into third place on the franchise career receptions list ... with six receptions vs. Min (12/14) became the third player in franchise history to eclipse 500 career receptions and reached the milestone nine games faster than any other player in NFL history (80 games) ... inactive (shoulder) for the final two regular season games ... in first career playoff game recorded the longest pass play in franchise postseason history by going 71 yards for a TD in the second quarter vs. Atl (1/3/09); injured hamstring on the TD and was out for the rest of the game; marked the fourth longest reception in Wild Card playoff history ... after being limited in practice with a hamstring injury finished second on the team with four receptions for 34 yards vs. Phi (1/18/09) ... recorded a team-high eight receptions in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

ANQUAN BOLDIN FOUNDATION

In 2004, Boldin established his foundation, "Q81" which is dedicated to expanding the educational and life opportunities for underprivileged children in both Arizona and his home state of Florida. Money raised through the foundation helps provide technology and materials for schools in low-income areas, college scholarships for high school graduates and food and clothing for children. The goal is to provide athletes, parents, and coaches a spiritual outlet through sports and to develop within each athlete strong values and attitudes.

Throughout the past couple of years, Boldin and his foundation have worked closely with West Valley Child Crisis Center in Glendale to provide temporary homes to children who are abused or are at risk for abuse while also working with Glendale's Independence High School to provide opportunities for the student athletes that they normally wouldn't have.

Boldin's involvement with Independence H.S. first started in July of 2005 when he offered two free football camps at the school, using the football team as guest instructors. He then "adopted" the entire football team and made surprise visits to their practices and their games throughout the season. In 2005, Boldin donated game tickets for the entire team. Later in the year the football team received $10,000--$5,000 from Boldin personally and the other $5,000 from the NFL Youth Football Fund with Boldin's assistance.

This past April, Boldin held his fifth annual "Q Fest" in his hometown of Pahokee, Florida where residents were able participate in a golf tournament, watch a celebrity basketball game, get autographs, and take part in a fun day at the park at the Pahokee Recreation Center. Boldin along with Cardinals teammates and other stars from around the NFL, joined together in Florida to help raise money for the foundation and the community of Pahokee.

The Cardinals 2004 Walter Payton "Man of the Year" and his foundation along with the University of Phoenix created a scholarship program to help graduating students attend college. Each year, six full-tuition scholarships are offered to help high school graduates and single parents in Florida and Arizona achieve the goal of higher education.

After the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Boldin, along with several teammates, visited hurricane refugees that were displaced to Phoenix. He helped serve food and drinks to the Louisiana residents while also donating money to the Hurricane Relief Disaster Fund.

Each year, Boldin and his foundation host free youth football camps in Arizona and Florida at various high schools to benefit 400 children in grades 3-12 by teaching them about the fundamentals of football while also focusing on education. Boldin also donates t-shirts and duffel bags at each camp in addition to providing autographs for all of the campers.

2007: Started 11-of-12 games played due to injuries but still registered 71 receptions for 853 yards and a career-high nine TDs while serving as one of five team captains … became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 400 career receptions (67 games) … tied Torry Holt as the fastest player to reach 5,000 career receiving yards (63 games) … recorded four receptions for 22 yards and one touchdown reception while registering one carry for 14 yards in the season opener @ SF (9/10); for the third time in four season openers (missed first six games of 2004 season due to injured knee) Boldin registered a TD (1 vs. SF 9/10/06, 2 @ Det 9/7/03) … recorded 350th reception of his career in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) … registered a career-high 14 receptions for 181 yards as well as tying a career-high with two TDs @ Bal (9/23); 181 yards receiving is the second-most of his career behind the 217 yards @ Det (9/7/03); Boldin's 14 receptions were the second most in team history behind only Sonny Randle (16, 11/4/62 @ NYG) and the second highest single-game total in the NFL in 2007; marked first time he registered two receiving TDs in a game since 11/23/03 vs. StL … inactive (hip) for the first time in 26 games vs. Pit (9/30) … after missing three games with hip injury, recorded eight receptions for 29 yards and tied a career-high with two TDs @ Was (10/21); marked first time he had two TDs in consecutive games and the first time he had totaled two multiple TD games in one season since 2003 … in 63rd game eclipsed 5,000 career receiving yards while registering four receptions for 71 yards and a 44-yard touchdown @ Cin (11/18); tied with Torry Holt as the fifth-fastest receiver in NFL history to reach 5,000-receiving yards … recorded two receptions for 25 yards before an injured toe forced him to leave the game late in the third quarter vs. Cle (12/2) … after being limited in practice all week came off the bench for the second time in his pro career (66 games played) and led team with six receptions for 83 yards @ NO (12/16) … led team with 13 receptions (second most in career) for 162 yards (third highest total of career) with two TDs vs. Atl (12/23) to become the fastest player to reach 400 career receptions in NFL history; marked second 100-yard receiving game of the season and 21st of career to be one behind Jackie Smith (1963-77) for first in franchise history; third time in 2007 he had recorded multiple TDs in a game, had only two multi-TD games in his career which both came in 2003 … recorded one TD vs. StL (12/30) to set a new single season career-high with nine TDs, topping the eight he registered as a rookie in 2003; along with Larry Fitzgerald became the first teammates in NFL history to record performances of 11+ catches and 160+ receiving yards in consecutive weeks (Boldin, 13 for 162 and 2 TDs vs. Atl 12/23; Fitzgerald 11 for 171 and 2 TDs vs. StL 12/30).

2006: For the third time in four years went over 1,000 yards receiving and was also selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career … hauled in four passes for 62 yards with his first catch of the season being a six-yard TD from Kurt Warner in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10) … hauled in 10 passes for 129 yards vs. StL (9/24), marked his 11th game in a row with at least three catches and 60 yards receiving … caught four passes for 71 yards, including rookie QB Matt Leinart's first career TD pass, when he pulled in a team-long 49-yard pass in the first quarter to give the Cardinals a 7-0 lead vs. KC (10/8) … established a new career-high on the regular season's biggest

BOLDIN'S AMAZING RETURN

Anquan Boldin was on the receiving end of a vicious helmet-to-helmet hit in the closing seconds of the Cardinals 9/28/08 game in New York that drew a one-game suspension and $50,000 fine for Jets safety Eric Smith. Boldin had seven plates and over 40 screws inserted to fix multiple facial fractures.

Despite the severity of his injury, Boldin missed just two games and was back in the lineup three weeks later after the bye as the Cardinals faced the Panthers. He never missed a beat, catching nine passes for 63 yards and two TDs while also adding a career-long 30-yard run.

Despite missing four games due to injury during the 2008 regular season, Boldin earned his third Pro Bowl nod after recording 89 receptions for 1,038 yards and a career-high 11 TD receptions. The TD total tied for the third-most in the NFL during the regular season.

1,000-YARD SEASON #4

Anquan Boldin surpassed 1,000 yards in 2008, becoming the first receiver in franchise history to record four 1,000-yard seasons in his career. Boldin missed the final two games of the 2008 season and four games in all.

Both Boldin and Fitzgerald went over 1,000 yards in 2008, the second time the duo has done so (2005) and it marks just the third time in franchise history that two receivers have recorded 1,000 yards in the same season. Rob Moore and Frank Sanders accomplished the feat in 1997.

Boldin reached the 1,000-yard mark in 11 games.

2005: Opened the season by continuing his streak of catching at least three passes in every game he has played, catching four passes for 62 yards @ NYG (9/11) … recorded his eighth career 100-yard receiving game vs. StL (9/18) with 119 yards on eight receptions … recorded a game-high eight receptions for 116 yards and a TD vs. SF (10/2); combined with Fitzgerald's 102 yards, the duo became the first Cardinals pair to collect 100 or more receiving yards in the same game since 1999 … recorded 10 receptions for 162 yards vs. Car (10/9) becoming the first Cardinals receiver since David Boston in December of 2001 to record consecutive 100-yard receiving games; teamed with Fitzgerald to become the first pair of Cardinals receivers to record 100+ yards in consecutive games; seven of his 10 receptions vs. Carolina went for 10 or more yards … held without a catch for the first time in his career vs. Ten (10/23) which ended his streak of having three or more receptions in every game he has played at 31 … suffered a bone contusion in his right knee @ Dal (10/30) after catching three passes for 69

THREE WENT FOR 1,000

In 2008, the Cardinals had three receivers—Larry Fitzgerald, Anquan Boldin and Steve Breaston—who all reached 1,000 yards receiving on the season.

It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that a team has had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Chargers	1980	Kellen Winslow (89-1,290); John Jefferson (82-1,340); Charlie Joiner (71-1,132)

In addition to reaching 1,000-yards receiving, all three players reached 75 receptions for the season. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that three players on the same team hauled in 75+ receptions in a season and just the second wide receiver trio. Although it has happened just five times in league history, even more impressive is that Kurt Warner has now been the quarterback for three of the five teams that had three players with 75+ receptions in a season.

MOVING UP THE TOUCHDOWN LISTS

Receivers Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin both had career seasons in 2008 when it came to TD receptions. Boldin grabbed a career-high 11 TDs on the season, despite playing in just 12 games, while Fitzgerald also established a career-high with 12 TD receptions, the final two coming in an electrifying performance in the season finale against the Seahawks.

Both receivers are moving up the franchise lists of total TDs and receiving TDs for their career.

Fitzgerald has 46 TDs for his career, which is the fifth-highest total in franchise history. Boldin has 40 career TDs, good for the eighth-highest total on the franchise list.

TOUCHDOWN TRIO

For the first time in franchise history, the Cardinals had three players with at least 10 touchdowns in 2008. Larry Fitzgerald had a career-high 12 receiving TDs, Anquan Boldin established a new career-high with 11 and rookie Tim Hightower had 10 rushing TDs.

Their combined accomplishment marks just the seventh time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that three players have registered 10 TDs in the same season.

CHASING 100

Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald have both recorded a pair of 100-catch seasons in their NFL careers. Boldin had 101 in 2003 and 102 in 2005. Fitzgerald caught 103 passes in 2005 and 100 in 2007.

In NFL history, there have been 60 total 100-catch seasons accomplished by 41 different players.

Boldin and Fitzgerald are two of just 14 players to record more than one 100-catch season (see list below) and two of the four who have hit 100 twice in their first four years, with Denver's Brandon Marshall and New England's Wes Welker being the others.

BOLDIN AND FITZGERALD FIND ANOTHER WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

In the Cardinals week 11 meeting with Seattle in 2008, the Pro Bowl receiving tandem of Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald found another way to enter the franchise and NFL record books. They became the first teammates in franchise history to each reach 150+ yards receiving in the same game.

The duo also became just the third set of receivers in NFL history to each have 10-or-more receptions and 150-or-more yards in the same game.

The game in Seattle also marked the eighth time (third time in '08) that Boldin and Fitzgerald went over 100 yards in the same game. Dating back to 1960, only Jacksonville's Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith (9) went over 100 yards more times than Fitzgerald and Boldin.

BOLDIN COLLECTING 100's

Anquan Boldin had three 100-yard receiving games in 2008, giving him 24 for his career. He now has more 100-yard receiving games than any player in franchise history, passing Jackie Smith (22) for the franchise lead.

Larry Fitzgerald added seven 100-yard games in 2007, totaling 20 for his career, good for fourth on the career list.

THREE WENT FOR 1,000

In 2008, the Cardinals had three receivers—Larry Fitzgerald, Anquan Boldin and Steve Breaston—who all reached 1,000 yards receiving on the season.

It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that a team has had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Chargers	1980	Kellen Winslow (89-1,290); John Jefferson (82-1,340); Charlie Joiner (71-1,132)

In addition to reaching 1,000-yards receiving, all three players reached 75 receptions for the season. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that three players on the same team hauled in 75+ receptions in a season and just the second wide receiver trio. Although it has happened just five times in league history, even more impressive is that Kurt Warner has now been the quarterback for three of the five teams that had three players with 75+ receptions in a season.

CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

ARIZONA CARDINALS Preparatory Academy
University of Phoenix Founding Partner

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club and Cardinals Charities along with founding partner, The University of Phoenix, have teamed up with the Washington Elementary School District and Communities in Schools of Arizona to develop a small school learning environment within a public school district know as the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy.

The Academy, located in north central Phoenix, opened in August 2007 and will move into its new building in August, 2009 with a full complement of 5th through 8th graders.

The Academy offers accelerated instruction to help students focus on learning and achieving success that they might not otherwise be able to accomplish. The community partnership is designed to deliver a support model that addresses the non-educational barriers to staying in school.

CARDINALS CARAVAN TOUR

Arizona Cardinals players, team mascot Big Red and cheerleaders took to the road for the annual "Cardinals Caravan Tour" to cultivate fan relationships, visit radio affiliates, and have a presence in community activities throughout Arizona.

The statewide tour included stops in Sedona, Safford and Tucson. At each stop there were various activities involving the players and cheerleaders and Cardinals giveaway items for fans.

Some of the highlights from the trip included a parade, canned food drives, town visits, autograph signings, helping out at a food bank, and participating at youth football camps to stress the importance of education and fitness.

NO SLOWING DOWN DANSBY

Linebacker Karlos Dansby was named a Pro Bowl alternate when the NFL balloting results were announced. Over the last 11 games of the 2008 regular season and in four playoff games, Dansby was a consistent playmaker for the Cardinals and had at least eight tackles in 12 of those 15 games. He recorded three sacks, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and four passes defensed in that span as well.

Dansby recorded 10 tackles and three tackles for a loss in a huge performance during the Cardinals NFC Wild Card Game against the Falcons. He followed that up with another 10-tackle performance against the Panthers in the Divisional Playoff game and in four playoff games, recorded 37 total tackles.

In his fifth-year with the Cardinals, Dansby recorded a career-high 128 tackles during the 2008 season, surpassing his previous career-high of 117, established in 2007. Dansby started all 16 games this season for the first time in his career and, including the playoffs, has started in 71 of his 78 career games.

Dansby has now recorded at least 100 tackles in three of his five NFL seasons.

A product of the Auburn University, Dansby was selected by the Cardinals in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2004 Draft. The Cardinals placed the "non-exclusive" franchise tag on Dansby following the 2007 season, the first time they had used the tag on a player since 2002 (Kwamie Lassiter). The Cardinals placed the franchise tag on Dansby again following the 2008 season.

ter vs. StL (9/18) ... tied his then career-high with 10 tackles for the second time in three weeks vs. Car (10/9); recorded one pass defensed and a forced fumble recovered by DT Ross Kolodziej ... had a big day vs. Ten (10/23) setting a new career-high for tackles (11) and sacked Titans QB Billy Volek, forcing and recovering a Volek fumble in the process ... recorded two tackles before leaving the game with a groin injury @ Det (11/13) ... deactivated with a groin injury @ StL (11/20) ... returned to start vs. Jax (11/27) and recorded nine tackles ... intercepted Eagles QB Mike McMahon and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown, his second of the season; added five tackles and one pass defense vs. Phi (12/24); his two interception returns for a TD are the most by a Cardinals linebacker in one season ... recorded a team-high 10 tackles @ Ind (1/1) to finish the season with 103 tackles, the first 100-tackle season of his career.

2004: Made an immediate impact on the Cardinals' defense after being selected in the second-round of the 2004 draft ... named to Pro Football Weekly's 2004 All-Rookie team ... started 12 games while accumulating 68 tackles, the most of any rookie on the team ... recorded three fumble recoveries, one shy of the team rookie record for fumble recoveries set by Tom Wham with the Chicago Cardinals in 1949 ... played in a reserve role in the season opener @ StL (9/12) and recorded four tackles on defense and one stop on special teams ... recorded the first start and sack of his career @ Atl (9/26) when he took down Michael Vick early in the third quarter to force the Falcons into a third-and-14 situation; also recovered a Vick fumble in the Arizona redzone ... became a regular starter with his second consecutive start vs. NO (10/3); recorded two tackles and one QB hurry ... recorded four tackles and a fumble recovery @ SF (10/10) ... did not record any tackles on defense but his presence was felt after intercepting a Matt Hasselbeck pass by out leaping TE Jerramy Stevens in the second quarter to set up Neil Rackers second 55-yard field goal of the game vs. Sea (10/24) ... recovered his third fumble of the season @ Mia (11/7) when DE Bertrand Berry sacked Dolphins QB Jay Fiedler forcing a fumble; sacked Dolphins QB A.J. Feeley for his second sack of the season ... deactivated for the contest @ Car (11/21) due to a neck and shoulder injury sustained against the Giants the previous week ... had one of the best days of his young career in the 2004 season finale with seven stops, and one QB pressure which led to Darnell Dockett's interception vs. TB (1/2).

DOCKETT TIES SUPER BOWL RECORD

As a defensive lineman, there is no better company than the company Darnell Dockett now shares in NFL record books. With three sacks in Super Bowl XLIII against Pittsburgh, Dockett tied the NFL record for sacks in a Super Bowl, a record he shares with Hall of Famer and sack legend Reggie White.

In helping the Cardinals come back from the largest deficit in Super Bowl history, Dockett dominated in the fourth quarter. With the Cardinals down 20-7 and needing a stop to stay in the game, Dockett tackled Steelers running back Willie Parker for a four-yard loss on second down and then sacked Ben Roethlisberger on the next play, forcing a Pittsburgh punt.

After the Cardinals scored on the ensuing drive to draw within six points, Dockett sacked Roethlisberger for a 10-yard loss on second down on Pittsburgh's next possession, a play which would help force another Pittsburgh punt.

College:

Atlantic Coast Conference 2003 defensive player-of-the-year at Florida State … started 47 of 49 games for the Seminoles, recording 247 tackles (123 solos), 10.5 quarterback sacks for minus 67 yards, 64 stops for losses of 196 yards, 68 quarterback pressures, four forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery … 64 tackles behind the line of scrimmage shattered the previous school career record of 44 by Ron Simmons (1977–80).

Personal:

Full name Darnell Maurice Dockett … regarded by many as the top defensive end in the nation while at Paint Branch High School in Burtonsville, MD … USA Today prep All-America selection with 171 tackles (109 solos), 15 sacks, two caused fumbles, three fumble recoveries, and three blocked punts in his senior season … set a school record with 47 sacks in his career at Paint Branch … political science major at Florida State.

AN UNCLE'S INSPIRATION

Faced with unspeakable tragedy at an early age, Darnell Dockett remembers a time when he thought he was more likely to end up in prison or dead than in the NFL. He credits his uncle, Kevin, as the one individual responsible for turning his life around.

At the age of 13, Darnell arrived home to find the body of his mother, Cheryl Hambrick, who had been killed by a gunshot to the head. Shortly thereafter, Darnell moved from Decatur, GA to Maryland to be with his father, Darnell Sr., who was dying of pancreatic cancer.

Only a few months after moving in with his father, Darnell Sr. passed away and Darnell became an orphan. That's when Kevin Dockett, his father's brother, took him into his Burtonsville, MD home and probably saved his life. Additional challenges would follow but he credits his uncle with providing a foundation and instilling a sense of perspective that enabled him to meet and move past each of them.

Tattooed on Darnell's right forearm is a poem of gratitude to his uncle:

For believing in me
when no one else would.
When the odds were against me, beside me you stood.
For being my friend,
brother, confidant and father.
Because of you I know blood is thicker than water.
Words can't express my gratitude,
nor any amount of money.
From the bottom of my heart,
thank you and I love you
Donny

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Early 980 Doucet Foundation

In 2008, Doucet established the "Early Doucet 980 Foundation" and has contributed significantly to communities in his home-state of Louisiana and Arizona. Combining his college jersey number (9) and his number with the Cardinals (80), the 980 Foundation was created to inspire young people to take responsibility for their future by reducing their at risk status and allowing mentors to take an active role in assisting them to reach their goals.

Doucet himself was once labeled at risk, but he overcame that label by accepting help from his community. The foundation's first event was the Kickoff Luncheon this past December in Baton Rouge, LA. Doucet and friends passed out lunch and Christmas gifts to local kids in the Big Brothers, Big Sisters program in the Baton Rouge area.

Doucet also stayed active in Arizona by participating in a Gatorade Jr. Training Camp for underprivileged children and purchasing 100 tickets for a Cardinals home game for kids from HopeKids.

HOMETOWN: Minneapolis, MN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 6/6
DOB: August 31, 1983

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2005, 2007, 2008

NOTE CARDS

- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history during the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII, shattering the NFL single postseason record for receptions (30), receiving yards (546), and receiving TDs (7).
- With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games, Fitzgerald set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving.
- For the second consecutive season, led the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards in 2008, hauling in 96 receptions for a career-high 1,431 yards. He also established a career-high with 12 TD receptions during the regular season. He tied Detroit's Calvin Johnson for the league lead in TD receptions, finished second in the league in receiving yards behind Houston's Andre Johnson (1,575) and tied for fourth in receptions.
- With 1,431 receiving yards in 2008, Fitzgerald joined Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Randy Moss as the only receivers in NFL history to record at least 1,400 yards receiving in three or more seasons.
- Became the youngest receiver in NFL history (25 years, 119 days) to collect 400 career receptions, reaching the milestone vs. the Giants on 11/23/08. He broke the mark previously held by Randy Moss (25 years, 305 days).
- Earned his second consecutive and third overall Pro Bowl selection in 2008; also earned a spot on the Associated Press 2008 All-Pro Team. Joined Boldin (2003, 2005, 2008) and Mel Gray (1974-77) as the only Cardinals receivers to earn at least three Pro Bowl selections. Fitzgerald caught five passes for 81 yards and two TDs in the Pro Bowl, earning MVP honors in the NFC's 30-21 victory over the AFC.
- Led the Cardinals in receptions in 2008 with 96, the fourth time he has led the team in receptions in his five seasons in Arizona.
- With a career-high 12 TD receptions during the 2008 regular season, Fitzgerald now has 46 for his career and ranks third in franchise history in TD receptions, trailing only Roy Green (66) and Sonny Randle (60).
- With 546 receiving yards in his first four career playoff games, Fitzgerald had more receiving yards in his first four playoff contests than any receiver in NFL history, moving past Tom Fears, who had 495 yards.
- With 96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, joined Boldin (89-1,038) and WR Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. It was also the fifth time in league history (second time by a trio of wide receivers) that a team had three players record at least 75 receptions each in a season.
- Has started all 76 games in which he has appeared since being selected by Arizona with the third overall pick in the 2004 Draft. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (#1 to San Diego) and OT Robert Gallery (#2 to Oakland).
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a franchise single-season mark, breaking Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone @ Indy on 1/1/06.
- Signed a four-year contract on 3/11/08 that will keep him in a Cardinals uniform through the 2011 season.

FITZGERALD PARTICIPATES IN USO TOUR IN PERSIAN GULF

This past offseason, Larry Fitzgerald joined fellow NFL players Jared Allen (Vikings), Will Witherspoon (Rams) and Danny Clark (Giants) on a week-long USO Tour of Iraq and Afghanistan. For over 40 years the NFL has been sending players overseas to visit U.S. troops and, in March, Fitzgerald spent seven days visiting troops deployed to the Persian Gulf.

The mission was to see as many troops as they could, bring as much good will to them as possible, and make sure that they know that the NFL supports them.

All the players had connections to the armed forces that made the trip mean so much more. Fitzgerald's grandfather was a Lieutenant in the Army and won a purple heart for his service in Korea. In addition, his aunt and uncle, Paul and Sam Jones, are both Lieutenant Colonels in the Army. During the trip, Fitzgerald even got to see his cousin Emelda Hadley, a defense contractor stationed in Kuwait, who he had not seen in several years.

The group visited bases and camps signing autographs, taking pictures and getting to know the men and women that protect and fight for the United States. The four players also participated in "football roundtables" where they held panel discussions about all things regarding the NFL-USO tour and NFL football. The troops also had the opportunity to ask the players questions.

The group also had the honor of traveling to an undisclosed location to meet with a company of Navy SEALs. At the end of the visit with the SEALs, the commander of the unit gave the players SEALs coins, as well as official printed invitations to visit the SEALs' training complex in San Diego and were challenged to compete against top SEALs in the obstacle training course.

FITZ LEADS NFC AGAIN

Larry Fitzgerald's performance in 2008 (96 receptions for 1,431 yards) was once again good enough to propel him to the top of the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards. It marked the second consecutive season that Fitzgerald led the NFC in both categories.

Fitzgerald's 1,431 receiving yard and 12 TDs on the season were both career-highs.

In his five NFL seasons, Fitzgerald has now led or tied for the NFC lead in receptions three times in his career. In addition to his 2007 and 2008 totals, Fitzgerald hauled in 103 receptions in 2005. That total tied Carolina's Steve Smith for the most in the NFC and in the NFL. Boldin finished one reception behind Fitzgerald and Smith that season, catching 102 passes.

Since 2005, no receiver in the NFL has more receiving yards than Fitzgerald. Since the beginning of the '05 season, his second in the NFL, Fitzgerald has collected 5,195 receiving yards. His 368 receptions over that span trail only Cincinnati's T.J. Houshmandzadeh (372).

BOLDIN AND FITZGERALD FIND ANOTHER WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

In the Cardinals week 11 meeting with Seattle in 2008, the Pro Bowl receiving tandem of Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald found another way to enter the franchise and NFL record books. They became the first teammates in franchise history to each reach 150+ yards receiving in the same game.

The duo also became just the third set of receivers in NFL history to each have 10-or-more receptions and 150-or-more yards in the same game.

The game in Seattle also marked the eighth time (third time in '08) that Boldin and Fitzgerald went over 100 yards in the same game. Dating back to 1960, only Jacksonville's Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith (9) went over 100 yards more times than Fitzgerald and Boldin.

ARIZONA'S BEST

Fitzgerald's 12 touchdown receptions during the '08 regular season give him 46 career receiving touchdowns, the most by a Cardinal since the team moved to Arizona in 1988, topping Larry Centers, who had 29 (1990-98) and Anquan Boldin, who has 40 since entering the league in 2003.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowl wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald's impact on the Arizona community was evident this past year as he participated in the NFL's "Take a Player to School" program as well as hosting his first "Merry Fitzgerald Christmas."

The annual "Take a Player to School" program presented by JC Penney had Fitzgerald pick up second grade student Jacob Galindo from Gilbert, AZ and take him to Gateway Elementary School where the pair visited the principal's office and spoke to students about the importance of good health. Fitzgerald also led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's PLAY 60 program helping to promote 60 minutes of exercise a day.

Fitzgerald's "Merry Fitzgerald Christmas" allowed the wide receiver to host 200 kids from the Phoenix area in coordination with Black Family and Child Services to a dinner, and an autograph session while distributing holiday gifts.

Fitzgerald also helped establish the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial fund in honor of his late mother who passed away from breast cancer. The fund helps support causes that his mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues. This past spring, Larry along with celebrity guests hosted the fifth annual "Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund Community Weekend." A silent auction and benefit were held to help raise money for each of the highlighted causes.

CHASING 100

Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald have both recorded a pair of 100-catch seasons in their NFL careers. Boldin had 101 in 2003 and 102 in 2005. Fitzgerald caught 103 passes in 2005 and 100 in 2007.

In NFL history, there have been 60 total 100-catch seasons accomplished by 41 different players. Boldin and Fitzgerald are two of just 14 players to record more than one 100-catch season (see list below) and two of the four who have hit 100 twice in their first four years, with Denver's Brandon Marshall and New England's Wes Welker being the others.

TOUCHDOWN TRIO

For the first time in franchise history, the Cardinals had three players with at least 10 touchdowns in 2008. Larry Fitzgerald had a career-high 12 receiving TDs, Anquan Boldin established a new career-high with 11 and rookie Tim Hightower had 10 rushing TDs.

Their combined accomplishment marks just the seventh time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that three players have registered 10 TDs in the same season.

FITZGERALD GOES OVER 100

Larry Fitzgerald recorded his seventh 100-yard game of the 2008 regular season in the finale against the Seahawks. It was his second straight 100-yard game against Seattle and the 20th 100-yard game of his career.

Fitzgerald's seven 100-yard games in 2008 tied for the second most in the NFL. Only Houston's Andre Johnson (8) and Carolina's Steve Smith (8) had more 100-yard receiving games than Fitzgerald in 2008.

Fitzgerald had three games with 130+ yards receiving in 2008, with two of them coming against the Seahawks.

THREE WENT FOR 1,000

In 2008, the Cardinals had three receivers—Larry Fitzgerald, Anquan Boldin and Steve Breaston—who all reached 1,000 yards receiving on the season.

It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that a team has had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Chargers	1980	Kellen Winslow (89-1,290); John Jefferson (82-1,340); Charlie Joiner (71-1,132)

In addition to reaching 1,000-yards receiving, all three players reached 75 receptions for the season. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that three players on the same team hauled in 75+ receptions in a season and just the second wide receiver trio. Although it has happened just five times in league history, even more impressive is that Kurt Warner has now been the quarterback for three of the five teams that had three players with 75+ receptions in a season.

MORE HONORS FOR FITZGERALD

Larry Fitzgerald had the greatest postseason a wide receiver ever had, so it made sense the Cardinals' star added in an MVP performance in the Pro Bowl.

In his third trip to the NFL's annual all-star game, Fitzgerald had two touchdown catches among his five receptions (for 81 yards), including a 46-yard score on a Hail Mary on the last play of the first half, as the NFC captured a 30-21 win in Hawaii.

In his five NFL seasons, Fitzgerald has now been selected to three Pro Bowls. In addition to the 2008 season, he was also selected following the 2005 and 2007 seasons.

Fitzgerald earned Associated Press All-Pro First-Team honors in 2008 as well, the first time in his career he has been named to the All-Pro team. He is the first Cardinals receiver to earn All-Pro honors since Anquan Boldin in his rookie season of 2003.

NOTE CARDS

- A former star in Australian Rules Football before coming to the NFL in 2005, Graham played 12 years for his hometown team of Geelong before signing with the Jets in 2005.
- At 31 years and 13 days old, became the second oldest player to make his debut in an NFL game since the NFL-AFL merger. Only fellow Australian punter Sav Rocca was older when he made his NFL debut (33 years, 293 days).
- With his appearance for the Cardinals in week 14, became the third player in NFL history to punt for three different teams in the same season (Steve Weatherford-NO, KC, Jax-2008; Tom Rouen-Den, NYG, Pit-2002). Had previously punted for the New York Jets and New Orleans Saints before signing with the Cardinals on 12/1/08.
- Became the first Australian to ever appear in the Super Bowl when he handled the punting duties for the Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.
- Landed 12 of his 20 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line during the 2008 playoffs, the second highest total in NFL history since the stat became official in 1970. Only Kyle Richardson dropped more inside the 20 in a single postseason, landing 14 of his 33 punts inside the opponents 20 during the 2000 playoffs as a member of the Ravens.

PLAYOFF TESTED IN 2009

The Cardinals now have a roster full of players with playoff experience after the team's Super Bowl XLIII playoff run. That wasn't the case heading into the 2008 postseason.

Of the Cardinals regular 22 starters from both sides of the ball, 16 made their playoff debut against the Falcons in the Wild Card game last January. That list included: Larry Fitzgerald, Anquan Boldin, Steve Breaston, Mike Gandy, Reggie Wells, Lyle Sendlein, Deuce Lutui and Levi Brown on offense and Darnell Dockett, Bertrand Berry, Gerald Hayes, Karlos Dansby, Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, Adrian Wilson, Antrel Rolle and Aaron Francisco on defense.

Entering last year's Wild Card game against the Falcons, the Cardinals had 13 players with playoff experience.

HOW ACQUIRED: D3/03 (70th)
COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: Paterson, NJ
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 7/7
DOB: October 10, 1980

Pro Career:

The Cardinals third-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft (70th overall), Hayes' involvement in the defense rose dramatically towards the conclusion of the 2004 season. He was poised to be the Cardinals starter at MLB before a knee injury suffered in the preseason opener sidelined him for the entire 2005 season. A restricted free agent, he signed a one-year qualifying offer with the Cardinals on 4/18/06. Came back in a big way in 2006, leading the team in tackles (111) despite missing the final two games. Signed a five-year extension on 11/6/06 that will keep him under contract with the team through 2011.

2008: Started 14 of 16 games and all four postseason contests recording his third straight 100+ tackle season ... finished third on the team with 107 tackles during the regular season and set a career-high with four forced fumbles ... led team and tied career-high with 14 tackles (11 solo) and one tackle for loss @ Was (9/21) ... did not start since the Cardinals opened up with six defensive backs but still recorded seven tackles and one QB hit @ NYJ (9/28) ... registered five tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery vs. Buf (10/5); his forced fumble led to a Neil Rackers FG that put Arizona up 34-17 and the recovered fumble at the Bills 18 yard-line led to a Tim Hightower TD to increase the lead to 41-17 ... registered team-high eight tackles, one tackle for loss and one QB pressure @ Sea (11/16); helped defense allow a season low 43 yards on 22 carries ... earned first NFC Defensive Player of the Week award of his career after leading the team with 12 tackles, one tackle for loss, half a sack and a career-high two forced fumbles vs. StL (12/7); first forced fumble stopped the Rams at the Arizona 22-yard line and second fumble was recovered by DT Darnell Dockett and returned for a TD to make it 27-7 in the 3rd quarter ... led LBs with 10 tackles, one tackle for loss, one QB hit and forced RB Adrian Peterson to fumble and then recovered it at the AZ nine yard-line vs. Min (12/14) ... started first career playoff game and recorded one tackle for loss vs. Atl (1/3/09) ... registered first career postseason interception @ Car (1/10/09) ... finished second on the team with six tackles and one QB hit vs. Phi (1/18/09) ... for the second consecutive week was second on the team in tackles with seven vs. Pit (2/1/09) in SB XLIII.

2007: Started all 16 games registering second straight 100+ tackle season while leading or sharing the team lead in tackles in five games; selected as one of five team captains for the season ... after only recording one sack from 2003-06, opened the 2007 season with a sack @ SF (9/10) ... led team with eight tackles and forced a Matt Hasselbeck fumble that set up game winning 42-yard field goal by Neil Rackers in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) ... for second consecutive week, led team and tied his career-high with 13 tackles and one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... part of defense @ Was (10/21) that held the Redskins to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards total offense on 9/4/94 ... for the second time this season, totaled 10 unassisted tackles with two tackles for loss and one sack @ TB (11/4) ... recorded two tackles vs. Det (11/11) and helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, which is the lowest total in the modern era ... led team with 14 tackles and one sack vs. SF (11/25) ... led team with 11 unassisted tackles and one sack @ NO (12/16); eclipsed 100 tackles for the second straight season (103 in 2006) ... tied for team lead with six tackles and returned a fourth quarter interception 30-yards for first career TD vs. StL (12/30); 115 tackles surpassed previous single season career-high of 111 tackles set in 2006; finished season second on the team in tackles, two behind Karlos Dansby.

2006: Made an impressive return to action after missing the entire 2005 regular season with a knee injury, starting all 14 games he appeared in and eclipsed the 100-tackle mark despite missing the final two games due to injury (rib) ... recorded six tackles, two tackles for loss, his first career sack and a fumble recovery while starting at MLB in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... continued his strong play collecting five tackles, one pass defensed and his first career interception on a Matt Hasselbeck pass deep in Cardinals territory in the second quarter @ Sea (9/17) ... recorded 12 tackles, one for a loss, and also recovered his second fumble in three games vs. StL (9/24) ... turned in another strong performance, this one on Monday Night vs. Chi (10/16), collecting seven tackles and an interception off of Rex Grossman ... had a game-high 13 total tackles @

- Tallied 107 tackles in 2008, giving him 100+ tackles in each of the last three seasons after collecting a career-high 115 tackles in 2007 and 111 in 2006, his first season as a full-time starter.
- Earned his first-career NFC Defensive Player of the Week award in 2008 for his performance vs. St. Louis in week 14, collecting 12 tackles, two forced fumbles and a half sack.
- Established a career-high and led the team with four forced fumbles during the 2008 season.
- For the first time in his career, started all 16 games in 2007 and returned in 2008 to start 14 of 16 regular season games and all four postseason contests. The two contests he did not start, the Cardinals opened the game with six DBs.
- His standout play during the 2006 season earned him a five-year contract extension which he signed on 11/6/06.

Drafted by the Cardinals in the fifth round (149th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft, Hightower appeared in all 16 regular season games (seven starts) and four postseason contests during his rookie campaign.

2008: Started seven of 16 games played and appeared in all four postseason games as a rookie ... became the first rookie to register a TD in each of his first three playoff games since Niners FB William Floyd in 1994 ... made NFL debut @ SF (9/7) in season opener and scored first career TD on two-yard carry on 4th-n-goal; first Cardinals running back to score a TD in his debut since Ottis Anderson rushed for a 76-yard TD vs. Dal on 9/2/79 ... rushed for 24 yards and a TD vs. Mia (9/14) to become the first Cardinals player with rushing TDs in each of his first two games ... registered a career-high two TDs vs. Buf (10/5); converted a fourth-and-one on the Buffalo 10 yard-line and then scored from two yards out to make it 41-17 in the fourth quarter; teamed with Edgerrin James to record three rushing TDs in back-to-back weeks (@ NYJ, vs. Buf) marking the first time the Cards have had three rushing TDs in back-to-back weeks since 1979 ... on two separate TD drives in the second half converted two third-and-ones and moved the chains on third-and-17 with a 17-yard reception vs. Dal (10/12) ... in first career start, registered 109 yards on 22 carries with a career-long 30-yard TD run @ StL (11/2); became the first Cardinals rookie to rush for 100 yards since Ronald Moore (135 yards on 12/26/93 vs. NY Giants) and became the first Cardinals rookie to rush for 100 yards in his first career start since Ottis Anderson rushed for 193 yards in his first start (vs. Dallas on 9/2/79); 30-yard TD run was longest TD run for the Cardinals since Jake Plummer's 34-yard TD run @ San Francisco on 10/27/02 ... registered one TD vs. StL (12/7) to give him 10 TDs on the season and break Ronald Moore's franchise rookie record of nine rushing TDs set in 1993 ... in first postseason game recorded TD that capped off a 14-play, 76-yard drive and gave Arizona a 28-17 lead with under three minutes left in the 3rd quarter vs. Atl (1/3/09); carried the ball a total of four times for 14 yards on the scoring drive ... recorded game-high 76 yards on 17 carries and hauled in first career TD reception @ Car (1/10/09) ... played a crucial role on the 14-play fourth quarter drive that put the Cardinals up for good by converting two third downs and one fourth down vs. Phi (1/19/09); on the biggest play of the season, rushed for six yards on 4th-and-one near midfield, keeping the game-winning drive alive; scored the final go-ahead TD on an eight-yard reception on 3rd-and-goal.

NOTE CARDS

- Led team and tied for the lead among NFL rookies with a franchise rookie record 10 rushing TDs in 2008.
- Along with WRs Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin, scored at least 10 TDs in 2008, marking the first time that three Cardinals players each surpassed 10 TDs in a season. It marked just the seventh time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that three players on the same team have registered 10 TDs in the same season.
- Broke 18 school, game, season and career rushing records during his collegiate career at Richmond, including 1,924 rushing yards and 20 TDs on the ground as a senior in 2007.
- His 3,712 rushing yards are a Richmond career-record as are his 39 total TDs and 4,560 all-purpose yards. He also attempted one pass in his college career—a 24-yard completion that went for a TD.
- Despite a stellar college career, was not one of the 333 players invited to the 2008 NFL Combine.

College:

A two-year starter at Richmond, established school career-records for rushing yards (3,617), all-purpose yards (4,448), rushing TDs (34) and total TDs (39) ... earned first-team All-American and unanimous All-Colonial

TOUCHDOWN TIM

Tim Hightower's 10 rushing TDs during the 2008 regular season established a new franchise record for rushing TDs by a rookie. He passed the mark set by Ronald Moore (9) in 1993. Hightower's TD total was also tied for the best among all NFL rookie rushers.

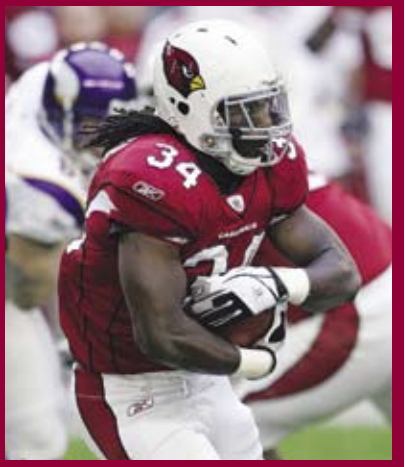

2008 NFL RUSHING TD LEADERS—ROOKIES

Player (Team)	TDs
1T. TIM HIGHTOWER (AZ)	10
1t. Jonathan Stewart (Car)	10
3t. Chris Johnson (Ten)	9
3t. Steve Slaton (Chi)	9

Hightower's 10 TDs rank as the fourth-highest single-season total in franchise history. John David Crow holds the single-season rushing TD record, with 14 in 1962.

RUSHING TDS—SINGLE-SEASON FRANCHISE RECORD

TDs	Player (Year)
14	John David Crow (1962)
12	Ernie Nevers (1929)
11	MacArthur Lane (1970)
10	TIM HIGHTOWER (2008)
	Donny Anderson (1973)
	Johnny Roland (1967)

Hightower had two receiving TDs in the postseason. His three-yard TD reception from Kurt Warner against the Panthers in the Divisional Round was his first career receiving TD. He followed that up with the game-winning TD reception against the Eagles in the NFC Championship on a 3rd-and-goal play from the eight-yard line with just under three minutes remaining.

His TD against the Eagles gave him a TD in each of his first three career playoff games (he had a rushing TD against the Falcons), becoming the first rookie since San Francisco's William Floyd in 1994 to score a TD in each of his first three playoff games.

Athletic Association honors as a senior in 2007 after setting school single-season rushing records for yardage (1,924) and TDs (20) … in 49 career games, recorded 38 starts and rushed 704 times for 3,712 yards and 34 TDs … his 1,824 rushing yards in 2007 rank as the third-highest total in Colonial Athletic Association history behind only Jerry Azumah (2,195 in 1998) and Marcel Shipp (2,542 in 1998) … established school season-records with 1,924 rushing yards and 20 TDs as a senior … his 137.4 rushing yards per game led the conference and ranked sixth in the nation … established a school record by scoring 138 points … caught 32 passes for 228 yards and three TDs for a total of 2,152 all-purpose yards … as a junior, started all 11 games and ranked sixth in the league with 850 yards and five TDs on the ground on 177 carries … completed his only collegiate pass for a 24-yard TD vs. William & Mary … started nine of 13 games and gained 777 yards and nine TDs on the ground on 142 attempts as a sophomore … played in all 11 games as a true freshman and started four … rushed 58 times for 161 yards and had 19 receptions for 158 yards.

Personal:

NOTE CARDS

- With the Cardinals, Iwebema reunited with defensive line coach Ron Aiken, the position coach who recruited him at Iowa and tutored him during his first three years with the Hawkeyes.
- Due to his arm length, reach and vertical leaping ability, was known to excel on special teams at Iowa, where on two separate occasions in his career (vs. Illinois in 2005 and vs. Syracuse in 2007), he blocked two field goals in a game.
- Had a scare this past offseason when a pre-mini-camp x-ray revealed a baseball-sized mass in his chest; the benign tumor was removed and Iwebema is expected to be 100% in time for training camp.

The Cardinals first pick in the 2006 NFL Draft (10th overall), Leinart took over as the starter in week five of his rookie season, starting in 11 of the 12 games in which he appeared and only missed the final game of the season after being deactivated with a left shoulder injury. Suffered a fractured collarbone in game five in 2007 at St. Louis that forced him onto injured reserve for the remainder of the season. Served as the backup to Pro Bowler Kurt Warner in 2008, seeing action in four games.

2008: Served as Cards #2 QB behind Pro Bowl starter Warner, seeing limited action in four regular season games ... saw late game action and completed one of two passes for 15 yards vs. Mia (9/14) ... DNP as backup to Warner for the next 11 games ... came in during the fourth quarter and completed three of five passes for 28 yards vs. Min (12/14) ... played the majority of the second half and registered a career-long 78-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald @ NE (12/21) ... DNP as backup to Warner in postseason.

2007: Started first five games of 2007 before suffering a season ending collarbone injury at St. Louis ... in season-opening start, rushed for career-high 35 yards on six carries with a career long of 20 yards @ SF (9/10) ... registered second-most passing yards of his career with 299 yards in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16); 30-yard touchdown pass to TE Leonard Pope was third-longest scoring toss of his career ... registered 3,000th career passing yard @ Bal (9/23) ... while sharing time with Kurt Warner for the second week in a row, Leinart completed 7-of-14 passes for 93 yards vs. Pit (9/30), including leading the Cardinals on a 13-play 82-yard drive in the fourth quarter that took up over seven minutes and resulted in a two-yard Edgerrin James TD to put the Cardinals up 21-7 with 4:14 to play ... after completing seven of 13 passes for 100 yards and one interception, suffered season ending collarbone fracture in the second quarter @ StL (10/7) when sacked by LB Will Witherspoon ... placed on injured reserve on 10/9/07.

2006: Took over as the starting QB in game five of his rookie season and started 11 games before sitting out the season finale with a left shoulder injury ... saw his first regular season action @ Atl (10/1) when he replaced Kurt Warner in the fourth quarter, completing five of eight passes for 49 yards and an interception ... starting the first game of his NFL career, threw TD passes of 49 and 5 yards in the Cardinals first two possessions vs. KC (10/8); completed 22 of 35 passes for 253 yards and 2 TDs for a 91.7% passer rating ... completed 24 of 42 passes for 232 yards and 2 TDs in the Monday Night contest vs. Chi (10/16), becoming the first QB in NFL history to throw two TD passes in the first quarter of his first two starts ... completed 20 of 38 passes for 216 yards and ran for a three-yard TD vs. Dal (11/12) ... logged his highest QB rating of the season (101.7) while earning his first NFL victory as he completed 19 of 29 passes for 233 yards and one TD in the win vs. Det (11/19); also ran for his second TD in two weeks and second of the season ... completed 31 of 51 passes for 405 yards, all career highs, with one TD pass @ Min (11/26); his 405 passing yards established a new NFL rookie record, surpassing Jake Plummer's previous mark of 388 yards set

- The second quarterback taken in the 2006 NFL Draft (Titans, Vince Young, 3rd overall), selected by the Cardinals with the 10th overall pick.
- Took over the starting QB spot in week 5 of his rookie campaign and started the next 11 games; missed the season finale at San Diego after injuring his left shoulder in game 15.
- In his second NFL season in 2007, started the first five games before suffering a season-ending collarbone injury at St. Louis (10/7).
- Threw for 200 yards or more in eight of his first 11 starts in 2006; completed 60% or more of his passes in five of his final six starts.
- In 2006, became the first Cardinals QB since Jake Plummer in 2001 to have three games in a season with a 100+ QB rating (all were in his final six starts of '06).
- Became the first rookie in NFL history to throw for over 400 yards in a game when he passed for 405 at Minnesota on 11/26/06. The previous league record belonged to Plummer who threw for 388 yards against the New York Giants on 11/16/97.
- Leinart's 2,547 yards passing in 2006 also broke Plummer's franchise rookie record of 2,203 yards, set in 1997.
- Became first QB in NFL history to throw two TD passes in the first quarter of each of his first two games when he did it vs. Kansas City and Chicago.
- Recorded a 37-2 record as a starter at USC, a 94.8% winning percentage.
- Led USC to National Championships in 2003 and 2004, becoming only the third quarterback in the last 30 years to lead his team to back-to-back National Championships.
- Holds the USC and Pac-10 record for career TD passes with 99, shattering the previous school record of 72 set by Carson Palmer and the conference record of 77 set by Stanford's John Elway.

Established in 2006, the "Matt Leinart Foundation" contributes to communities in Arizona and his homestate of California. The foundation's efforts help children facing severe economic, physical and emotional hardships which limit the achievement of their dreams. It is committed to granting funds and opportunities to support disadvantaged young people through creating/building new activity and learning centers that will provide an uplifting outlet to foster development and build character. The "Matt Leinart Foundation" seeks to open the doors of opportunity and advancement for children who need a helping hand guiding them to a better tomorrow.

The foundation has pledged $500,000 over the next four years to fund the new children's wing at Banner Children's Hospital in Phoenix while also creating the LA Urban Youth Football League (UYFL). The UYFL was created in April of 2008 and is a full contact football league targeting 8th grade students who were either too large to participate in Pop Warner football and/or lacked the financial resources to participate. The league will consist of six teams with each team having an owner who is a current or former NFL player.

This past spring, Leinart hosted a group of 25 kids from the Best Buddies organization to a day of bowling in Phoenix. Best Buddies is an organization which strives to enhance the lives of individuals with intellectual disabilities by providing opportunities for one-to-one friendship. Each guest received an autographed picture as well as helping to celebrate Leinart's birthday.

Over the past three years, Leinart has been active in a variety of community activities in Arizona. He has been a frequent visitor to hospitals around the Valley to visit with children at St. Joseph's Hospital and Phoenix Children's Hospital as well as making time to visit the kids at the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix.

Last season, Leinart joined teammates Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and Deuce Lutui to participate in "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes." The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. Leinart's Foundation also hosted a Christmas Party and toy giveaway for 250 children through the "Save the Families" organization last December. Leinart along with Cardinals teammates and celebrities hosted the toy giveaway and BBQ for the families involved in the program. Leinart was also honored with the President's Volunteer Service Award last season for his foundation's work in helping kids understand the value of health, wellness, and exercise.

Last April, Leinart hosted the first Celebrity Golf Classic at the Raven in Arizona. All of the funds raised benefited his foundation and Banner Children's Hospital.

In 2007, Matt took part in the JC Penny's "Take a Player to School" program for the second consecutive year. Leinart joined 4th grade student Riley Graham at school in Glendale to help read announcements, take part in gym class and speak to the students about the value of education. Leinart has also served as the Cardinals spokesman for the NFL's "What Moves U" campaign to promote a healthy lifestyle in today's youth. He also spread the NFL's "Play 60" campaign message throughout the year and at Super Bowl XLII to encourage kids around Arizona to get at least 60 minutes of exercise a day.

At Super Bowl XLII, Leinart hosted a welcome to Arizona party for his NFL friends and Hollywood celebrities at Olive & Ivy in Scottsdale with all of the money raised going towards his foundation. He also joined rapper Snoop Dogg to face off in Snoop Bowl VI in Chandler with all of the money raised through ticket sales being donated to the foundation as well.

This past June, he hosted the third annual Matt Leinart Football Camp on the campus of Cal State-Long Beach. The camp was open to boys and girls ages 7-14, with each participant receiving 20-30 hours of on-field instruction, classroom review of workout sessions as well as individual evaluation for coaches and weight training classes.

HOW ACQUIRED: D2/06 (41st)
COLLEGE: USC
HOMETOWN: Mesa, AZ
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 4/4
DOB: May 5, 1983

Pro Career:

Selected in the second round (41st overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft, Lutui appeared in 15 games, starting the final nine at right guard in his rookie season. Has started 31 regular season games over the last two seasons in addition to all four postseason contests in 2008. Only missed start during that period was the 2007 season finale due to a knee injury.

2008: Started all 16 regular season games for the first time and was part of an offensive line that had the same five starters for all 20 regular and postseason games ... since becoming a starter as a rookie in 2006, has started the last 40 games he has played in ... helped RB Edgerrin James collect 100 yards on 26 carries in season opener @ SF (9/7) ... part of line that did not allow a sack for the first time this season vs. Buf (10/5); helped clear the way for Arizona to record three rushing TDs in back-to-back weeks (@ NYJ, vs. Buf) for the first time since 1979 ... for the second time on the season was part of line that did not allow a sack despite 42 pass attempts vs. SF (11/10) ... helped clear way for James to register his 57th career 100-yard game and eighth as a Cardinal in the season finale vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career playoff game and was part of an offensive line that allowed zero sacks vs. Atl (1/3/09); including the regular season it marked the fourth time they have not allowed a sack ... helped Cardinals run the ball a season-high 43 times for 145 yards @ Car (1/10/09).

2007: Started first 15 games before suffering a knee injury vs. Atlanta (12/23) ... helped Arizona gain 161 rushing yards on 38 carries in the season opener @ SF (9/10) ... assisted James in racking up 128 yards on 24 carries as well as not allowing a sack in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) ... started vs. SF (11/25) and helped offense rack up 552 total yards which is the most by a Cardinals offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) ... started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time this season while helping James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year ... helped James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) becoming only the second Cardinal running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (Ottis Anderson 1983 and 1984) ... before leaving in the second quarter with a left knee injury, contributed to a line that did not allow a sack for the fourth time this season (only happened once in 2006) vs. Atl (12/23) ... inactive (knee) vs. StL (12/30).

2006: The Cardinals second round pick appeared in 15 games with starts in the final nine contests of his rookie campaign ... made his NFL debut on special teams in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... inactive @ Atl (10/1) ... saw his first career action on the offensive line when he replaced the injured Milford Brown vs. KC (10/8) ... logged the first start of his NFL career at right guard @ GB (10/29) ... started his third NFL game just hours after his wife gave birth to a baby girl vs. Det (11/19) ... helped lead James to his second straight 115-yard performance and was part of a line that did not allow a sack vs. Sea (12/10) ... started at RG and was part of an offensive line that led James to 105 yards rushing; James became the first Cardinals RB to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Adrian Murrell in 1998 ... finished the season with his ninth consecutive start at RG @ SD (12/31).

NOTE CARDS

- Taken in the second round of the 2006 Draft (41st overall) and has appeared in 46 games with 40 starts at right guard in his first three NFL seasons. Started all 16 games in 2008 for the first time in his career while also starting all four postseason contests.
- Part of an offensive line that allowed just 24 sacks in 2007, the lowest total since 1978 (22) and well below the league average of 34.4 sacks allowed while also helping lead Edgerrin James to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season for the Cardinals.
- Grew up a Cardinals fan in Mesa, AZ and attended Mesa High School.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Guard Deuce Lutui, a Mesa, AZ native, always told himself that when he became a professional football player in the NFL he would give back to the community in which he was raised. Entering his fourth season as a professional, Lutui is one of the most active Cardinals players giving back their time in the community. Aside from being a regular visitor at Gatorade Junior Training Camps, school visits as part of the "SRP Milk and Cookies" program and sponsored Kids Camps, Lutui has taken part in numerous community visits through a variety of programs.

During this past season, Lutui and Neil Rackers joined 200 local kids to watch the move "The Express." The pair of players spoke with the kids about the values and positive messages that could be learned from the movie. Lutui also joined Matt Leinart and Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie to participate in "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes" this past fall. The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. Lutui also participated in the third annual Gatorade Jr. Training Camp with 200 special needs students from the Valley in Gilbert.

In the 2008 offseason, Lutui stayed busy by joining teammates Ben Patrick and Neil Rackers to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital for "Child Life Week." He also hosted the second annual "Deuce Lutui Kids Camp." Lutui instructed 100 kids from Lindbergh Elementary, the school Lutui attended as a child. Each participant received on-field football instruction while also getting lunch following the camp.

He once again joined a group of teammates to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the Cardinals "Teddy Bear Express." Players visit the children each holiday season and hand out personalized teddy bears to help brighten the holidays.

The Cardinals 2007 "Walter Payton Man of the Year" spoke to a group of rehab patients at "Inspiration Day" at HealthSouth in Glendale about the importance of being mentally strong while facing challenges as well as hosting a kids camp at the team's facility for a group of children from Mexico as part of the "Hands Across the Border" Foundation. He also signed autographs at the 14th annual "Phoenix American Heart Walk and One Mile Stroke" Walk in Tempe. During that summer, Lutui also took part in "Operation Backpack" to pass out 2,500 backpacks to benefit less fortunate kids in the Valley.

During the 2007 season, Lutui joined teammates to participate in the annual NFL and United Way "Hometown Huddle" event to host 100 students and 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona to a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility.

CARDS SPECIAL TEAMS MAKE HISTORY IN OT DEFEAT OF THE COWBOYS

One of the team's most memorable regular season victories and a game that helped the Cardinals gain a firm grasp on first place in the NFC West came against Dallas in week six. The win was keyed by extraordinary special teams play and it came after special teams ace Sean Morey broke through the Dallas line and blocked Mat McBriar's punt following Dallas' first possession in the overtime period. Backup linebacker Monty Beisel, who was right behind Morey on the blocked kick, scooped up the loose ball and returned it three yards for the game winning touchdown and a 30-24 victory over the Cowboys. It was Beisel's first career touchdown.

Morey's blocked punt marked the first time in NFL regular season history that a game has ended on a touchdown off of a blocked punt.

Combined with J.J. Arrington's 93-yard return on the game's opening kickoff, the win marked the first time since at least the 1970 NFL-AFL merger that a team has scored a touchdown on the first and last plays of the game.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE BLOCKED PUNT

- There have been three overtime games in NFL history that have ended on blocked field goal returns; the last was Philadelphia's Clyde Simmons picking up his own team's blocked field goal attempt and returning it 15 yards for a touchdown @ NY Giants (11/20/88). Coincidentally, the Eagles kicker who had his field goal blocked was Luis Zendejas, who is currently the Cardinals Senior Director of Community Relations.
- For the Cardinals, it was the first blocked punt returned for a touchdown since Tommy Bennett recovered a Matt Turk punt (blocked by J.J. McClesky) in the endzone at Washington on 9/14/97.
- It was Morey's second blocked punt as a member of the Cardinals—the other was vs. Seattle on (9/16/07).
- It marked the first time the Cardinals have won in overtime when they lost the coin toss since 9-6 OT win vs. Dallas on 10/20/02.
- The touchdown in overtime vs. Dallas was the Cardinals second overtime touchdown in franchise history, with both coming on returns. There was Beisel's three-yard return on the blocked punt and on 10/29/95 vs. Seattle, Lorenzo Lynch returned an interception 72 yards for a touchdown in a 20-14 win.
- It was the first blocked punt of Mat McBriar's career.

2000: Spent part of the NFL season on New England's practice squad after being released by the Patriots following training camp on 9/27 … was signed to the practice squad on 10/18, but suffered an ankle injury and signed an injury release prior to the end of the regular season 12/18 … played WR with the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe, catching 37 passes for 415 yards and three TDs.

1999: Originally drafted by the Patriots in the seventh round (241st overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft and made the opening day roster … was deactivated for the season opener before being released on 9/15 and re-signed to New England's practice squad … was added to the team's 53-man roster on 12/7 and appeared in the final two games of the season on special teams vs. Buf (12/26) and vs. Bal (1/2), collecting five special teams tackles in the final two contests.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Second year tight end Leonard Pope's bond to his hometown of Americus, GA didn't end when he was drafted by the Cardinals in 2006. Following a tornado that devastated Americus in March of 2007, Pope has continued to be active in trying to raise money to repair the damage at Sumter Regional Hospital. The hospital was severely damaged in the tornado and 700 Sumter employees were temporarily displaced.

He has visited the hospital and staff on numerous occasions and hosted a celebrity basketball game in Americus to assist in raising money for the fundraising process. Pope along with current NFL players from the Georgia area helped campaign for the hospital to receive a brand new MRI machine in 2008 in addition to helping raise money for other brand new state-of-the-art equipment for the facility.

In the spring of 2008, Pope also started the Leonard Pope C.H.A.M.P. Foundation (Creating Hope and Making Progress) which promotes programs that enhance the quality of life for children and families by teaching them leadership skills, assisting in community revitalization, education awareness and providing role models for underprivileged youth. In June, Pope hosted his second annual All-Star weekend in Americus to benefit his foundation. The weekend included a free youth football clinic, a celebrity basketball game and a free kids day in the park. The football clinic was hosted by a number of Pope's Cardinals teammates as well as a handful of other NFL players and featured games, inflatables, and an autograph signing.

College:

A two-year starter for Georgia, came out following his junior season ... caught 59 passes for 994 yards and nine TDs in his career ... started 11 games as a junior ... ranked second on the team with 33 receptions for 491 yards (14.9 avg) and three TDs ... started 10 of 12 games as a sophomore, hauling in 25 passes for 482 yards (19.3 avg) and six TDs ... had at least one scoring grab in five of his last six games ... All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection by the Associated Press and the league's coaches ... attended Hargrave Military Academy in 2002 prior to college.

Personal:

Full name Leonard Pope III ... attended Americus (GA) High School where he earned Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100, Top 50 in Georgia, Class AA All-State, Georgia Sportswriters Association All-State honors and was invited to play in the Georgia-Florida All-Star game ... led his team to two straight Class AA state titles during his junior and senior seasons ... registered seven TDs as a tight end, catching eight passes with a pair of TDs in the playoffs as a senior ... returned an interception for a score while lining up at safety ... caught 25 passes for 491 yards and six TDs as a junior ... has four brothers and four sisters.

HOW ACQUIRED: FA-03
COLLEGE: Illinois
HOMETOWN: St. Louis, MO
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 10/7
DOB: August 16, 1976

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2005

NOTE CARDS

- Entered the league as a sixth-round draft pick by Cincinnati in 2000; spent three seasons with the Bengals but was released on the final roster cut in 2003. He signed with the Cardinals two months later following an injury to Bill Gramatica and has been with Arizona ever since.
- Established a franchise record by surpassing 100 points during the regular season for the fourth consecutive year in 2008, passing Pat Harder, who had 100 points in three consecutive seasons (1947-49).
- Connected on 25-of-28 FGs in 2008 and recorded the second best FG percentage in franchise history (.892) behind his own .952 from 2005 (40-42).
- Recorded 119 points in 2008 for the second highest total in franchise history behind the 140 points he collected in his Pro Bowl season of 2005
- In the midst of his sensational 2005 season, signed a four-year extension on 11/8/05 that keeps him under contract with the Cardinals through 2009.
- Selected to his first career Pro Bowl in 2005, joining Jim Bakken as the only Cardinal kickers honored.
- In '05 established an NFL record by connecting on 40 FGs, breaking the previous mark of 39 set by Miami's Olindo Mare in 1999 and matched by St. Louis' Jeff Wilkins in 2003.
- Also connected on 31 consecutive FG attempts in 2005 to shatter the previous franchise record of 11 set by Bill Gramatica in 2001 (NFL record: 42 by Indy's Mike Vanderjagt, 2002-04).
- Scored 140 points in 2005, the third-most in the NFL and a franchise record, passing Neil O'Donoghue (1984) and Jim Bakken (1967) who had 117 points.
- Despite not kicking off in the final five games of 2005, led the NFL with 22 touchbacks. Set the Cardinals franchise record for touchbacks in a season with 23 in 2004, the previous record was 19 set in 1997 by Joe Nedney and Kevin Butler.
- Established new franchise records for FG percentage (95.2), FG attempts (42) and FGs made (40) in 2005.
- The Pro Football Hall of Fame received the shoes worn by Rackers on 10/24/04 when he earned a spot in the NFL record books. By connecting on FGs of 55, 55 and 50 yards in the Cardinals 25-17 win vs. Seattle (10/24), Rackers earned a share of the NFL's all-time record for most FGs of 50+ yards in a single game, tying Morten Andersen who set the record in 1995. The Hall of Fame also received the shoes and ball from his record setting 40th FG of the 2005 season.

Pro Career:

Originally a sixth-round pick by the Bengals in 2000 (169th overall), Rackers spent three seasons in Cincinnati before being released on 9/1/03 in their final roster cut. He then signed with the Cardinals on 11/11/03 to handle the kicking responsibilities while Bill Gramatica recovered from a back injury and has remained with the team ever since. Rackers signed a four-year contract extension on 11/8/05 which will keep him under contract with the team through the 2009 season.

2008: For the third year in a row and for the sixth time in his career, kicked in all 16 regular season games and all four postseason contests ... connected on three of four FGs and two extra points in season opener @ SF (9/7), giving him 506 points for his Cardinals career becoming only the second player in franchise history to reach 500+ career points (Jim Bakken, 1,380); made one special teams tackle while also trying a pooch kick in which S Matt Ware recovered, leading to a Tim Hightower TD ... converted one of two onside kicks while only FG attempt was blocked @ NYJ (9/28); marked his fifth straight converted onside kick dating back to 2006 and resulted in a Cardinals TD drive to pull within 13 points late in the 3rd quarter; was third blocked FG of career with the other two coming in 2002 as a rookie for Cincinnati ... recorded a season-high two special teams tackles vs. Buf (10/5) ... put Arizona up 24-14 with 3:17 left in the fourth quarter by connecting from 41 yards out vs. Dal (10/12) ... connected on all four FG attempts including a season long of 54 yards @ Sea (11/16); marked 19th career FG from 50+ yards and 16th as a Cardinal ... connected on three of four FGs, failed on two onside kick attempts and made two extra points while a third was aborted due to a failed hold vs. NYG (11/23); only missed FG was a 68-yard free kick after a fair catch with five seconds left in the first half; snapped his consecutive FGs streak that dated back to 9/28/08 at 15, marked the end of the second longest streak in franchise history, trailing only his 2005 mark of 31 ... made both extra point attempts @ Phi (11/27); marked first game he did not attempt a FG since 10/29/06 @ GB ... registered one special teams tackle and connected on both FG attempts as well as all four extra points in first game with new holder Ben Graham vs. StL (12/7) ... did not attempt a FG vs. Min (12/14) or @ NE (12/21) marking only the second time in his career (12/16/01 @ NYJ—12/23/01 @ Bal) he did not attempt a FG in two consecutive games ... tied season-high with two special teams tackles and converted both FG attempts vs. Sea (12/28); connected on 22 straight traditional FG attempts and 22 of last 23 overall with the only miss being the 68-yard fair-catch kick right before halftime vs. NYG in week 12 ... in first career playoff game, recorded three touchbacks on five kickoffs and one special teams tackle while missing only FG attempt from 51 yards vs. Atl (1/3/09) ... recorded a new franchise postseason record for FGs in a game with four, including connecting on a 49 yarder, the longest FG in Cardinals postseason history @ Car (1/10/09); his 15 points scored are second in franchise postseason history ... tied his franchise postseason long by connecting from 49 yards out vs. Phi (1/18/09).

2007: Served as one of five team captains and recorded 110 points in 2007 and moved into second place on the franchise career points list with 495 points; was perfect on three onside kick attempts, giving him four consecutive successful conversions dating back to 2006 ... nailed the game winning FG from 42 yards out with one second left, as well as connecting from 28 and 52 yards (16th career of 50+ yards) while missing from 52 yards before the half in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16); recorded fourth game winning FG of career, first as a Cardinal ... recorded a successful onside kick @ Bal (9/23); gave Rackers his second consecutive successful onside kick attempt, the last onside kick he attempted was at Min (11/26/06) ... made all four extra points, registered one touchback and made two-of-three FG attempts including one from 50 yards @ StL (10/7); 32-yard FG was his 200th career FG attempt ... converted one of two extra points with one being blocked and missed game-winning 55-yard FG wide left with one second remaining after recording his second consecutive successful onside kick of the season recovered by Jerheme Urban @ Was (10/21) ... made all four extra points and recorded a touchback while connecting on a 19-yard FG at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime only to miss from 32-yards in OT vs. SF (11/25) ... converted and recovered his fourth consecutive onside kick in a row (5th as a Cardinal) and missed only FG attempt of the day from 50-yards while connecting on all three extra points @ Sea (12/9) ... converted all three FG tries including a 29-yarder with time expiring to send the game into overtime and then a 31-yarder in extra time vs. Atl (12/23) for the fifth game winning kick of his career and second as a Cardinal.

2006: Had his second consecutive 100-point season, totaling 116 points with 17 touchbacks while appearing in all 16 games ... connected on a 29-yard FG in the first quarter and converted the extra point following Adrian Wilson's franchise record 99-yard interception return for a TD to temporarily give the Cardinals the lead in the second quarter @ Atl (10/1) ... connected on two-of-two extra point attempts and on FGs of 41 and 45 yards vs. KC (10/8); 41-yard FG in the second quarter gave him his 500th career point ... connected on FGs of 21 and 50 yards (missing from 41 yards), was two-of- two on extra point attempts and converted a perfect onside kick in the final minute of the game to give the Cardinals a shot at a last second win @ Min (11/26) ... turned in his best performance of the season, connecting on field goals of 25, 39, 37 and 32 yards while converting two extra points @ SF (12/24).2005: Set a new NFL record for field goals in a season, connecting on 40-of-42 FGs and was named to his first career Pro Bowl ... scored all 12 Cardinals points in the home opener vs. StL (9/18), connecting on FGs from 29, 26, 48 and 35 yards out; hit the end zone on all five kickoffs, recording touchbacks on four ... recorded the Cardinals only points for the second week in a row with 12 points @ Sea (9/25); connected on two FGs from 50 or more yards for 10 career field goals of 50 or more yards; recorded three touchbacks ... extended his consecutive FG streak to 16 hitting six-of-six attempts for a new career-best six FGs in a single game; hit the endzone on nine kickoffs, recording touchbacks on seven vs. SF (10/2) ... connected on the game deciding FG which gave the Cardinals a 13-10 lead vs. Ten (10/23) ... connected on his 11th career FG from beyond 50 yards and his 22nd con-

RACKERS SETS RECORDS IN 2008

Neil Rackers made the most of his first playoff appearance in 2008 after not reaching the postseason in his first eight NFL campaigns.

His 49-yard field goal in the second quarter of the Divisional Playoff at Carolina was the longest field goal in Cardinals postseason history, surpassing the 46-yard field goal that Chris Jacke hit at Dallas on 1/2/99. He matched that record against the Eagles when he kicked a 49-yarder to put the Cardinals up 24-6 going into halftime.

Rackers made four field goals against the Panthers (49, 30, 33, 20), establishing a new franchise postseason record for field goals in a game, surpassing the previous record of two, set by Jacke at Dallas on 1/2/99.

His four field goals, combined with his three PATs in the game, gave him 15 points against the Panthers, the second-highest single-game total in franchise postseason history, trailing only the 18 points that Mario Bates totaled on three rushing TDs at Minnesota on 1/10/99 and the 18 points Larry Fitzgerald accumulated on three receiving TDs vs. Philadelphia on 1/18/09.

With 119 points in the regular season, Rackers' 2008 point total was the second-highest in franchise history, trailing only the 140 points he collected in his Pro Bowl season of 2005.

FOUR YEARS WITH 100

Rackers scored 119 points in the 2008 regular season, recording his fourth consecutive season with at least 100 points, a new franchise record. Pat Harder had three consecutive 100-point seasons from 1947-49.

ON THE LEADERBOARD

Neil Rackers' 119 points in 2008 made it four years in a row with at least 100 points, giving him a total of 614 points since coming to the Cardinals in 2003. He trails only Cardinal great Jim Bakken, who holds the Cardinals career points record with 1,380.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Kicker Neil Rackers had another banner year in the community during 2008-09 as he was active in a variety of community programs and appearances. Rackers once again participated in the Cardinals annual "Teddy Bear Express" at Phoenix Children's Hospital where he and teammates visited sick children during the holiday season and passed out personalized teddy bears. He also joined Deuce Lutui and 200 local kids to watch the move "The Express." The pair of players spoke with the kids about the values and positive messages that could be learned from the movie. Rackers also took part in MidFirst Bank's "Halftime Kick Contest" to help instruct a lucky participant to kick a 40-yard field goal at halftime to win $10,000 at Arcadia High School. Also, prior to Super Bowl XLIII, Rackers and center Lyle Sendlein took time away from their busy schedule to visit the Arizona Children's Center at Maricopa Medical Center.

At another holiday community event, Rackers joined 15 other teammates at the annual "Shop-O-Rama" to shop with children from Homeward Bound, allowing the children to spend money on themselves or family members for the holiday season. He also participated at Bertrand Berry's "B-Train Express" Holiday shopping event last December to shop with kids from ChildHelp to brighten their holiday season.

During the 2008 offseason, Rackers participated in the annual "Just for Kids Fishing Festival" to help provide children with the opportunity to learn how to fish and enjoy the outdoors. He also joined teammates to visit kids at the Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of 'Child Life Week" while also helping to raise money for charity by modeling for the third consecutive year in a fashion show last spring with all of the proceeds going to the East Valley Assistance League.

COLLEGE: Tennessee State DOB: April 4, 1986
HOMETOWN: Bradenton, FL

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2008 draft and the 16th overall pick; was the second cornerback taken in the draft after Troy's Leodis McKelvin went to Buffalo with the 11th overall selection.
- Named an All-Rookie selection by the Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers Association after tying for the NFL lead among rookies with four interceptions. That included a franchise record tying 99-yard INT return for a TD against St. Louis in Week 14.
- Led the Cardinals with four interceptions and 23 passes defensed during the regular season despite starting in just 11 games. Tied for the team lead with two interceptions during the postseason while adding a team-high seven passes defensed.
- Became just the second Cardinal to earn "Defensive Rookie of the Month" (DE Simeon Rice, December 1996) when he received the honor in December.
- Became the first Tennessee State player taken in the first round since 1974 when both DE Ed "Too Tall" Jones (Dallas, 1st overall) and LB Waymond Bryant (Bears, 4th overall) were both selected.
- Is the second cousin of Chargers All-Pro cornerback Antonio Cromartie.
- Of his 11 career interceptions at Tennessee State, he returned four for TDs and averaged 28.5 yards per interception return. In addition to his four interceptions for TDs, he also returned a fumble and a kickoff for TDs and blocked eight kicks in his career.
- Last name is derived from both his mother, Melissa Rodgers, and his father, Stanley Cromartie.

2008: Had a standout rookie year, starting 11 of 16 games played during the regular season and all four postseason contests; registered two interceptions at Seattle in week 11 to become the first Cardinals rookie since CB Aeneas Williams in 1991 (12/15 @ Den) to have two interceptions in a game ... made his NFL debut and had two passes defensed along with a special teams tackle @ SF (9/7); also had one play on offense as a receiver ... registered first two tackles of career and played one play on offense vs. Mia (9/14); stepped in for CB Rod Hood (neck) and CB Eric Green (calf), both of whom returned to the game ... started first career game with Arizona opening with six DBs and recovered a Neil Rackers onside kick that led to a Cardinals TD @ NYJ (9/28) ... recorded first two career interceptions as well as four tackles @ Sea (11/16); second interception off QB Matt Hasselbeck came in final two minutes and sealed the victory ... tied SS Adrian Wilson (10/1/06 @ Atl) for the longest interception return in franchise history, going 99 yards for a TD while also registering one tackle for a loss vs. StL (12/7); tied Johnnie

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie's first season in Arizona, he made his mark in the Valley community. Rodgers-Cromartie was one of the most active participants in the Cardinals Gatorade Jr. Training Camp program and as well as making countless appearance at Cardinals Kids Camps.

Cromartie also took some time during the season to participate in the Cardinals annual "Teddy Bear Express" as he visited sick children during the holiday season and passed out personalized teddy bears and he also spent some time helping to raise money for Cardinals Charities at the annual "Making the Cut" event at Rolf's Salon. DRC, as he is known to his teammates, also joined teammates Matt Leinart and Deuce Lutui to participate in "Pros Vs. G.I. Joes" this past fall. The players competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO.

Johnson of the L.A. Rams (9/2/80) for the longest interception return for a TD by a rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger ... registered first career blocked FG vs. Min (12/14); marked Cardinals first blocked FG since 9/17/06 @ Sea ... made first career playoff start and led team with career-high 12 tackles and one interception vs. Atl (1/3/09); saw action on two plays on offense but did not record any statistics ... recorded team-high three passes defensed as well as one interception @ Car (1/10/09); dating back to the regular season it marked his sixth interception in the last nine games; has registered an interception in each of the last three games; held Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith to 43 yards on two receptions and one TD which came in the final minute of the game, marked Smith's second-lowest yardage total this season; also tipped a pass intended for Smith in the third quarter that was intercepted by Antrel Rolle ... led team with two passes defensed vs. Pit (2/1/09) in Super Bowl XLIII.

RODGERS-CROMARTIE SHINES IN ROOKIE SEASON

It was hard to miss Cardinals rookie cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie during his rookie campaign. Seemingly every week he made a game-changing play. His big play ability began to show through on a weekly basis beginning with his two INTs in Seattle in week 11. Then it was his electrifying 99-yard INT return for a TD against the Rams in week 14, his blocked field goal in week 15 against Minnesota that Rod Hood returned 68 yards for a TD and his INT in the season finale against the Seahawks. It culminated in the playoffs, where he had two INTs in four games. With his INT against the Falcons, he became the first rookie in franchise history to record an INT in a playoff game. Before the Eagles game, the rookie had an INT in three consecutive games dating back to the season finale against the Seahawks.

Against St. Louis in week 14, Rodgers-Cromartie recorded his third career interception with his fourth quarter pick off Marc Bulger. He returned it 99 yards for a TD, tying the franchise record for longest interception return (Adrian Wilson, @ Atlanta, 10/1/06). It also tied for the longest interception return for a TD for a rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (LA Rams, Johnnie Johnson, 9/2/08).

Rodgers-Cromartie's INT of Jake Delhomme in the Divisional playoff game in Carolina was his sixth INT over a nine game span. Including the playoffs, Rodgers-Cromartie had six INTs in 12 starts at cornerback.

Pro Career:

The Cardinals first pick in the 2005 NFL Draft (eighth overall), Rolle was impressive in the first three games of his rookie season before suffering a left knee injury which required surgery and kept him on the sidelines for nine games. With his knee finally healthy, he came back and started all 16 games in 2006 and played in all 16 games (eight starts) in 2007 before switching to safety in 2008.

2008: After moving to free safety in the offseason, went on to start all 16 regular season games for the second time in his career (2006) and all four postseason contests ... finished second on the team with a career-high 119 tackles during the regular season ... in season opener made first career start at FS and recorded six tackles @ SF (9/7) ... led Arizona DBs with six tackles @ Was (9/21); also played one snap as a WR and recorded a reception that was nullified due to a penalty on the play ... recorded one interception he returned 40 yards for a TD @ StL (11/2) ... in 50th career game registered first career reception for a gain of nine yards as well as one QB hit and seven tackles vs. StL (12/7) ... led team with career-high 14 tackles vs. Min (12/14) ... started first career playoff game and returned a botched handoff, forced by DT Darnell Dockett 27 yards for a TD to give Arizona a 21-17 lead early in the third quarter vs. Atl (1/3/09); marked first defensive TD in Cardinals postseason history and was his first career fumble recovery ... recorded a 47-yard interception return @ Car (1/10/09); part of secondary that set a franchise postseason record with five interceptions of QB Jake Delhomme ... led DBs with five tackles and one tackle for loss while playing a handful of plays on offense vs. Phi (1/18/09) ... started Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

2007: Played in all 16 games with eight starts and recorded a career-high five interceptions, return-

NOTE CARDS

- Arizona's first-round selection in 2005 and the draft's eighth overall; was the second cornerback taken after the Titans selected CB Adam Jones with the sixth pick.
- After switching from cornerback to free safety in 2008, finished second on the team with a career-high 119, the first 100-tackle season of his career.
- Scored the first defensive TD in franchise postseason history when he scooped up a botched handoff against Atlanta in the Wild Card Game (1/3/09) and returned it 27 yards for the TD in the turning point of the game.
- Interception return for a TD at St. Louis in week nine of the 2008 season marked his fourth career INT returned for a TD and he now trails only Aeneas Williams (6) and Larry Wilson (5) for the franchise lead. Named the "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" for his performance, the third Player of the Week selection of his career.

ROLLE'S TOUCHDOWN BREAKDOWN

Below is a breakdown of Rolle's five career defensive TDs:

1/3/09 vs. Atlanta (Fumble Return): Scored the first defensive TD in franchise postseason history when he recovered a botched handoff (caused by Darnell Dockett) between QB Matt Ryan and RB Michael Turner and returned it 27 yards for a TD to give the Cardinals a 21-17 lead in the third quarter in the Wild Card game.

11/2/08 at St. Louis (INT Return): With the Cardinals down 7-0 in the second quarter, Rolle stepped in front of a Marc Bulger pass and returned it 40 yards for a TD. It was the second INT return for a TD for Rolle in as many games against the Rams.

12/30/07 vs. St. Louis (INT Return): Picked off a Marc Bulger pass in the second quarter and returned it 47 yards for a TD. It was his third INT return for a TD on the season, tying the franchise record established by Robert Massey in 1992.

11/18/07 at Cincinnati (2 INT Returns): Became just the fifth player in NFL history with two INT touchdowns of 50+ yards when he returned Carson Palmer passes 55 and 54 yards for TDs against the Bengals.

Rolle's 55-yard INT return came in the first quarter with the Cardinals down 7-0 and his 54-yarder came in the third quarter to give the Cardinals a 35-27 lead that would prove to be the final points of the game.

CLOSING IN ON THE RECORD

With four INT returns for TDs in his career during the regular season, Antrel Rolle is closing in on the franchise record of six. Hall of Famer Aeneas Williams, who played for the Cardinals from 1991-2000, holds the current record while another Hall of Famer, Larry Wilson (1960-72), sits in second place with five.

ROLLE KNOWS WAY TO THE END ZONE

Antrel Rolle's fumble recovery for a touchdown in the Wild Card win vs. Atlanta was yet another example of the safety's uncanny ability to find the endzone whenever he gets the ball in his hands.

With the Cardinals down 17-14 at halftime against the Falcons, DT Darnell Dockett broke through the offensive line and disrupted the hand-off between Falcons QB Matt Ryan and RB Michael Turner. Rolle picked up the fumble and returned it 27 yards for a TD, his fifth career TD and first fumble recovery.

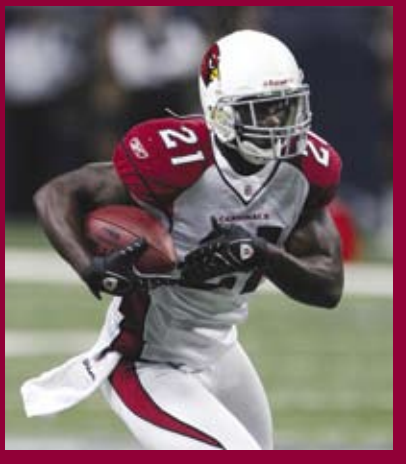

Rolle now has five career TDs on 10 career takeaways (including playoffs). His last INT came against the Panthers in the NFC Divisional game and he returned it 47 yards to the Carolina 26-yard line, one tackler shy of his fifth INT return for a TD.

His 40-yard interception return for a TD vs. St. Louis in week nine was his first interception since moving to safety this season.

Of his eight career regular season interceptions, Rolle has returned four for TDs, with a fifth called back due to an erroneous penalty on the return.

Of the 104 players in NFL history with at least four interception returns for touchdowns, Rolle's 50.0% return rate is by far the best in history. The next best percentage is Darren Smith (1993-2004) who returned four of his 11 interceptions for a TD, a return percentage of 36.4.

There have been only 26 players in league history that have a return percentage over 20.0 and four with a return percentage over 30.0.

NOTE CARDS

2008 CARDINALS HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2008, was honored as the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year for his community service and selected as a starter for his fourth career Pro Bowl (1999, 2000, 2001) after ranking at or near the top of the NFL in nearly every major passing category in 2008: 598 attempts (3rd), 401 completions (2nd), 67.1 completion percentage (2nd), 4,583 yards (2nd), 30 passing TDs (3rd), 96.9 passer rating (3rd).
- Was also awarded the "Good Guy Award" from the Pro Football Writers Association for the player who most helps the media do its job.
- In 2008, established Cardinals regular season franchise records for attempts (598), completions (401), completion percentage (67.1), passer rating (96.9), TD passes (30) and consecutive games with a TD pass (22). He also passed for 4,583 yards, the second-highest total in franchise history (Neil Lomax—4,614, 1984).
- After recording the highest completion percentage in Cardinals history in 2008 (67.1%), now has the three highest single season completion percentage totals in franchise history. He completed 64.5 percent of his passes in 2005 and 62.3 percent in 2007.
- Recorded his third career game with a perfect passer rating of 158.3 in week two in 2008 against the Dolphins, completing 19-of-24 passes for 361 yards and three TDs. His three career perfect games tie him with Indianapolis' Peyton Manning for the NFL record.
- Including the run to Super Bowl XLIII, Warner has now started a career-high 31 consecutive games dating back the 2007 season. His longest previous starts streak was 28, which he reached between 2000 and 2002.
- His 401 completions in 2008 represent the fifth-highest single-season total in NFL history behind Drew Brees (440 in 2007, 413 in '08), Rich Gannon (418 in 2002) and Warren Moon (404 in 1991).
- Threw for 1,147 yards in the 2008 playoffs, an NFL record for most passing yards in a single postseason. It topped the record he set in 1999 with the Rams when he threw for 1,063 yards.
- In 2005, helped the Cardinals rank as the league's #1 ranked passing offense for the first time in team history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time NFL MVP (1999 and 2001); was also named Super Bowl XXXIV MVP after leading the Rams to a victory over the Tennessee Titans (1/30/00).
- A four-time Pro Bowler, has led the NFL in passing yardage, completion percentage and average gain per attempt three times each, has had the highest QB rating and led the league in TD passes twice.
- Threw for 377 yards in Super Bowl XLIII vs. the Steelers, the second-highest total in Super Bowl history, behind the 414 yards he threw for against Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. He now has the top three passing totals in Super Bowl history, having also thrown for 365 yards against New England in Super Bowl XXXVI. He is the only QB in Super Bowl history with three 300-yard performances.
- Has now totaled 1,156 yards passing in his three Super Bowl appearances, the most passing yards of any QB in Super Bowl history.
- After his 377-yard performance against the Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII, Warner has now passed for at least 365 yards in five postseason games, extending his NFL record.
- Became just the second QB (Craig Morton, Dallas and Denver) in NFL history to start a Super Bowl for two different teams. After leading the St. Louis Rams to Super Bowl appearances in 1999 and 2001, guided the Cardinals to Super Bowl XLIII, becoming just the third QB in NFL history (John Elway-8, Craig Morton-7) to start a Super Bowl seven or more years apart.
- Career completion percentage of 65.4% entering 2009 ranks #2 in NFL history behind only Chad Pennington (66.0%).
- Entering 2009, his career QB rating of 93.8 ranks #3 in NFL history behind only Steve Young (96.8) and Peyton Manning (94.7).
- Warner's 4,830 passing yards in 2001 represent the third-highest single-season total in NFL history (Dan Marino, 5,084 in 1984; Drew Brees, 5,069 in 2008).
- Recorded nine 300-yard passing games in both 1999 and 2001 (NFL single-season record is 10 by Oakland's Rich Gannon in 2002 and New Orleans' Drew Brees in 2008).
- Holds a share of the NFL record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games with six in 2000 (shares with Rich Gannon, 2002, and San Francisco's Steve Young, 1998).
- Became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards, accomplishing the feat in his 36th career game.
- Playing in his 76th career game on 9/24/06 vs. St. Louis, became the second fastest quarterback to reach 20,000 yards in NFL history (Dan Marino, 74).
- Has thrown for 300 yards 48 times in his 109-game career. He has thrown for 300 yards in 44.0% of his games for his career, by far the highest percentage among all-time players with 100 games played (Dan Fouts is 2nd with 28.2%).
- After throwing for 351 yards against the Giants in Week 12 of the 2008 season, eclipsed 40,000 career passing yards and has now thrown for a total of 41,178 yards as a pro. Passed for 10,486 yards in three seasons with the Arena Football League's Iowa Barnstormers (1995-97) and 2,101 in his one season with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe (1998) and has thrown for 28,591 yards in the NFL.
- After going 3-1 during the 2008 postseason, has now compiled an 8-3 record in the playoffs and has thrown for 3,368 yards and 26 TDs in 11 postseason games, an average of 306.2 yards and 2.4 TDs per game.
- Despite starting in only 11 games and playing much of the season with a torn ligament in his non-throwing elbow suffered in his first start of 2007, threw 27 TD passes.
- Threw for a career-high 484 yards vs. San Francisco in week 12 of 2007, the second-highest yardage total in franchise history.

WARNER'S CONSECUTIVE STARTS STREAK AT 31

When named the team's starter at the conclusion of the '08 preseason, many questioned whether Kurt Warner could stay healthy. He answered by starting all 16 regular season games and each of the team's four postseason contests.

Warner was one of 16 NFL quarterbacks to start every regular season contest in '08 but the only one to start as many as 20 total games. In fact, he is just the third QB in NFL history to start 20 total games in a season, joining John Elway ('97 Broncos) and Eli Manning ('07 Giants).

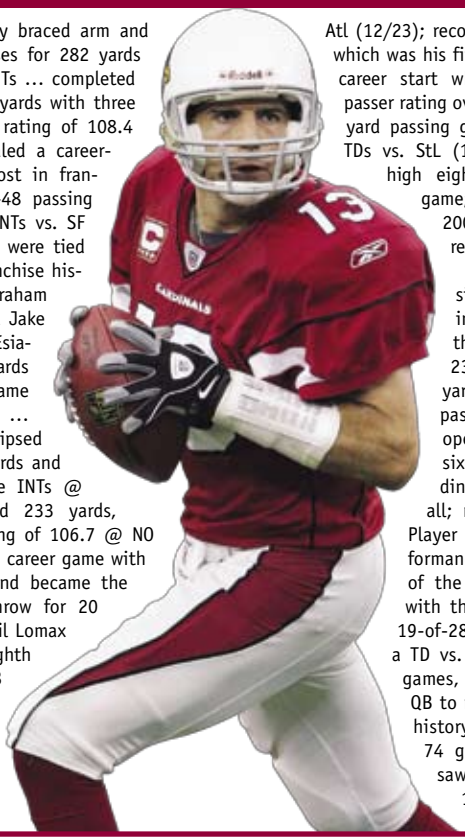

When combining his starts in the final 11 contests of the 2007 season, Warner's streak stands at 31 heading into 2009. Among active QBs, that ranks seventh behind Brett Favre (291), Peyton Manning (191), Eli Manning (78), Drew Brees (67), Philip Rivers (52) and Jay Cutler (37).

The last game Warner missed due to injury was Arizona's regular season finale in 2005 at Indianapolis (knee). His current 31-game streak is also the longest of his career (previous was 28 between 2000-02).

WARNER WINS WALTER PAYTON "NFL MAN OF THE YEAR" AWARD

Prior to the start of Super Bowl XLIII, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell and Connie Payton, the late Walter Payton's wife, presented Kurt Warner with the 39th Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, the only league recognition that acknowledges a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

For all of his on-field accomplishments, including a Super Bowl XXXIV win, two NFL Most Valuable Player awards and four Pro Bowl selections, Warner's community work remains his biggest source of pride. After visiting flood-ravaged regions in 2008, he created a partnership with Habitat for Humanity to sponsor home builds throughout the Midwest. To date, he has raised over $650,000, including a $100,000 personal contribution, $100,000 from his foundation, and $100,000 each from the Arizona Cardinals and the NFL Disaster Relief Fund. Warner established the First Things First Foundation in 2001 and has personally contributed more than $1.5 million since then to fund trips for Make-A-Wish families, home builds for underprivileged families, and Punt, Pass and Kick clinics with Special Olympians.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Kurt and his wife Brenda established "First Things First" in 2001 as a foundation dedicated to promoting Christian values, sharing experiences and providing opportunities to encourage everyone that all things are possible when people seek to put first things first. Some of the projects through which the foundation has enriched the lives of those less fortunate have included trips to Disney World for ill children, building recreation centers in children's hospitals, rewarding single parents who achieve the dream of homeownership and teaching Special Olympians football basics. The target outreach areas for "First Things First" include Arizona, Missouri and Warner's home state of Iowa. The highlight of the 2008 season for Kurt off the field was being honored as the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year, the NFL's most prestigious award that recognizes a player's community contributions in addition to his on-field performance.

In 2008, Warner pledged his support to the rebuilding effort in the Midwest following the devastating floods that pummeled the region. After traveling back to Cedar Rapids, IA to tour the destruction firsthand, he created a partnership with Habitat for Humanity to sponsor as many home builds as possible in the Midwest's hardest hit areas. Warner has raised over $650,000 including a $100,000 personal contribution, along with $100,000 each from his Foundation, the Cardinals and NFL Charities.

Warner established the First Things First Foundation in 2001 and has contributed more than $1.5 million to actively initiate twelve on-going projects which affect people in communities in Phoenix, St. Louis, Iowa and beyond. A small sampling of First Things First's outreach includes:

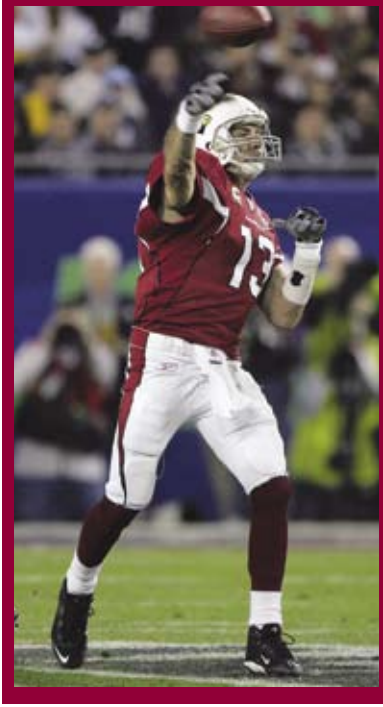

- Since 2002, 57 Make-A-Wish and Dream Factory families from five different states have joined the Warner's for the annual week-long "We're Going to Disney World" trip.
- First Things First Homes for the Holidays program surprises first-time single parent homeowners with complete furnishings for their new home thanks to teammates like Aaron's Rents. Seventeen single mothers, 1 single dad, and 44 children from five states have benefited since 2001.
- The annual Warners' Warm-up Coat Drive in partnership with Operation Food Search has collected more than 100,000 winter coats since 2001 which are distributed to men, women and children in the Missouri/Illinois region.
- PPK clinics with up to 50 Special Olympics athletes have been held in Phoenix, St. Louis and Iowa. To date, fifteen such clinics hosted by Kurt have taught the football basics to more than 700 athletes.
- Since 2001, Kurt and Brenda have made frequent visits to pediatric patients delivering Baskets of Hope and Smiles. The inspirational baskets are filled with toys, journals, bibles, prayer books and much more!
- The Mission: Possible! Scholarship program benefits high school and college-age youth participating in service-based mission trips in the U.S. Since 2005, 95 scholarships have been awarded totaling more than $108,000.
- In 2008, First Things First joined forces with the University of Phoenix to award up to six annual full-ride Bachelor Degree scholarships to clients served at partner organizations in Phoenix, Iowa and St. Louis.

In addition to his tireless foundation work, Warner has always been a "team player" supporting team initiatives, as well as those of the NFL and other charities, during his eleven-year career. Recent examples include Super Kids Super Sharing, Keep Gym in Schools, Teddy Bear Express, Community Quarterback and ARC Disaster Relief.

WARNER IN OTHER PROFESSIONAL LEAGUES

In addition to the NFL, Warner played three seasons with the Iowa Barnstormers of the Arena Football League from 1995-97 and one with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1998.

After throwing for 351 yards against the Giants in week 12 of 2008, Kurt Warner reached a unique milestone, eclipsing 40,000 career passing yards. He has now thrown for a total of 41,178 yards as a pro.

Warner passed for 10,486 yards in three seasons with the Arena Football League's Iowa Barnstormers (1995-97) and 2,101 in his one season with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe (1998).

After throwing for 4,583 yards in 2008, he has amassed 28,591 passing yards in the NFL with the Rams, Giants and the Cardinals. He has thrown for 12,090 yards since coming to the Cardinals in 2005.

THE GLOVED ONE

The sight of Kurt Warner wearing gloves in games – regardless of the conditions – is now so commonplace it's hard to remember when he began the custom.

Midway through the 2006 season, Warner started wearing them in practice to improve his grip. He first wore the gloves in a game on 12/24/06 at San Francisco and he has continued the practice ever since – a total of 36 games in all (32 starts).

In that span, the be-gloved Warner has been outstanding. He's completed 65.5% of his passes (805-1,229) for 9,608 yards with 69 TDs compared to 34 INTs and a passer rating of 96.4. In that time, he's topped 300 yards 13 times (including two 400-yard games) and had a passer rating of 100+ on 15 occasions.

"At this point, it's more of a comfort thing," said Warner of the gloves. "It's kind of the security of maybe having a little more grip on the ball than before. I don't feel like I am throwing the ball any different. Maybe the spirals are a little tighter … but other than that, I don't notice that much of a difference. But now if I throw without them, it feels like something is missing."

completing 325-of-499 passes for 4,353 yards, 41 TDs and 13 INTs … his passer rating of 109.2 was the fifth-highest in NFL history … led NFL in TD passes, completion percentage (65.1), third down passer rating (137.3), fourth quarter passer rating (116.0), and was second in the league in passing yards … set eight team records: QB rating, passing yards, completions, completion percentage/ season, completion percentage/ game (86.9), most games with 300 passing yards in a season (9), most consecutive 300-yard passing games (4), and most TD passes in a season, while tying record for most TD passes in a game (5) and tying NFL record for most 300 yards passing games in a season (since passed by Oakland's Rich Gannon in 2002) … threw more TD passes in first four starts (14) than any player in NFL history, throwing three TD passes in opening victories vs. Bal (9/12), vs. Atl (9/26), and @ Cin (10/3) and throwing a career-high five scoring passes in win vs. SF (10/10) … threw for more passing yards (1,217) in first four starts than any player in NFL history … led Rams on 19 scoring drives (17 TDs) between 71-80 yards (team had four in 1998) and 11 TD drives between 81-90 yards (team had five in 1998) … threw for then career-high 351 yards in division title-clinching win @ Car (12/5) … had streak of 133 consecutive passes thrown without an INT in Games 4-8, third longest in team history … completed 27-of-33 passes for 391 yards and five TDs in NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Min (1/16); threw game-winning 30-yard TD pass to Ricky Proehl with 4:44 remaining to give Rams 11-6 win vs. TB in NFC Championship Game (1/23) … passed for Super Bowl record 424 yards in win over Tennessee (1/30); threw game-winning 73-yard TD pass to WR Isaac Bruce with 1:54 to play in the game.

1998: Saw first career action in the 4th quarter of Rams' final game vs. SF (12/27); completed 4-of-11 passes for 39 yards … assumed the backup role behind Steve Bono for the final two games after a season-ending knee injury suffered by Tony Banks vs. NE (12/13) … did not play @ Car (12/20) … inactive as third QB for the first 14 games.

1998: (NFL Europe): Started all 10 games for the Amsterdam Admirals … led league in passing yards (2,101), attempts (326), completions (165) and TDs (15).

1995-97 (Arena Football): Passed for 10,486 yards and 183 TDs in three seasons with the Iowa Barnstormers (now New York Dragons) … led Iowa to two straight Arena Bowl appearances named one of the top-ten players in Arena Football history to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the league.

IT CAN'T BE A COINCIDENCE

Larry Fitzgerald finished the 2008 season with 96 receptions, Anquan Boldin finished with 89 and Steve Breaston had 77. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history that three players on the same team hauled in 75+ receptions in a season and just the second wide receiver trio. Although it has happened just five times in league history, Warner has been the quarterback for three of the five teams that had three players with 75+ receptions in a season.

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 7/7

Pro Career:

Arizona's first selection in the sixth round (177th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft, Wells started every game for the Cardinals in 2004 after making his first career start in the dramatic 2003 season finale vs. Min (12/28). Started nine games for the Cardinals at left guard in 2005 before suffering a broken ankle @ Det (11/13) and was placed on the injured reserve on 11/15. A restricted free agent following the 2005 season, he remained a Cardinal when the club matched Buffalo's offer sheet, keeping him under contract through 2010.

2008: Started all 16 regular season and all four postseason games, playing every offensive snap at left guard … blocked for RB Edgerrin James' seventh 100-yard rushing game as a member of the Cardinals @ SF (9/7) in season opener … part of line that did not allow a sack for the first time this season vs. Buf (10/5) … helped offense post a season-high 510 yards of total offense and 177 yards rushing @ StL (11/2) … for the second time this season, was part of line that did not allow a sack despite 42 pass attempts vs. SF (11/10) … made 70th start of career @ Phi (11/27) and was part of line that didn't give up a sack for the second time in the last four games … helped clear the way for James to register his 57th career 100-yard game and eighth as a Cardinal in the season finale vs. Sea (12/28) … started first career playoff game and part of line that allowed zero sacks vs. Atl (1/3/09) … helped the Cardinals run the ball a season-high 43 times for 145 yards @ Car (1/10/09) ….. started Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pit (2/1/09).

2007: Started all 16 games at left guard and joined Mike Gandy as the only offensive lineman to start every game in 2007 … the only Cardinal offensive player to play every snap in '07 … helped Arizona gain 161 yards on 38 carries in the season opener @ SF (9/10) … part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack and helped Edgerrin James run for 128 yards on 24 attempts in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) … showed flexibility by starting at left guard and moving to right tackle when starter Elton Brown got injured in the second quarter @ StL (10/7); recovered a James fumble in the endzone to tie the game at 10 in the second quarter; it was his first TD since his senior year of high school … led the way for the offense to rack up 552 total yards vs. SF ((11/25), the most by a Cardinals offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) … started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time in '07 while helping James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year … helped James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) … line allowed zero sacks in the final two games of 2007 (vs. Atl 12/23, vs. StL 12/30) and a total of five times in which the Cardinals went 4-1.

2006: Started all 16 games and played every offensive snap while switching between left guard and right tackle throughout the season … part of an offensive line that allowed just 24 sacks in '07, the lowest total since 1978 (22) … started at LG in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) … switched to his second position on the offensive line in as many weeks, starting at RT @ Sea (9/17) … switched back to LG vs. StL (9/24) where he stayed through the game @ Oak (10/22) … switched to RT for the start @ GB (10/29) and would stay there for the remainder of the season … helped James to

NOTE CARDS

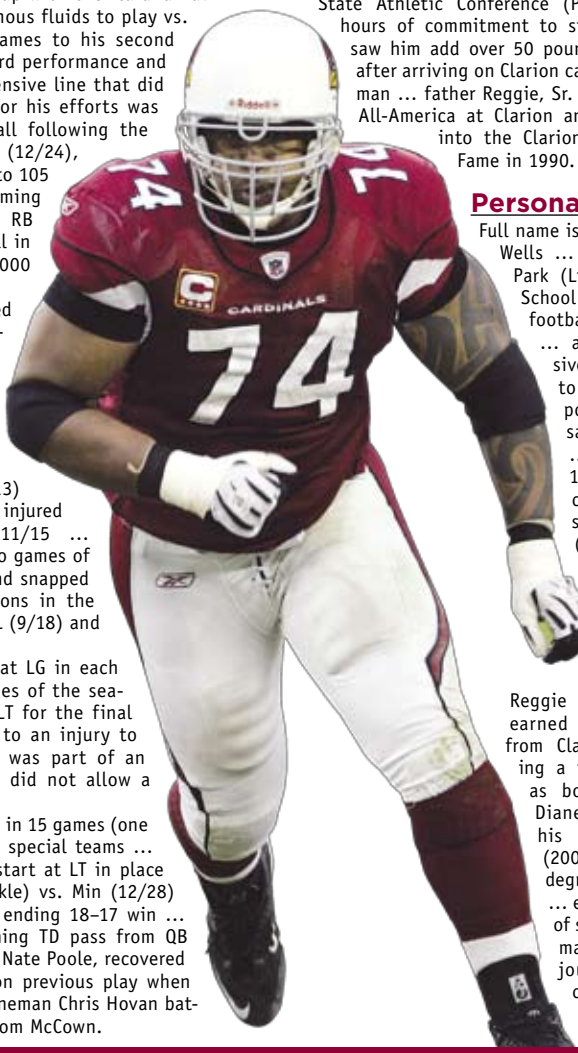

- Arizona's sixth-round selection in the 2003 NFL Draft, Wells has appeared in 88 games over six seasons and has started 74 straight games dating back to the final game of the 2003 season.
- Was a restricted free agent following the 2005 season; Cardinals matched an offer sheet from the Buffalo Bills, resulting in the five-year deal Wells signed on 3/21/06 that keeps him under contract through 2010.
- Joined T Mike Gandy and DT Darnell Dockett as the only Cardinals to start every game for Arizona in the 2007 and 2008 seasons and has played every offensive snap in that span.
- Selected by his teammates as one of five team captains prior to the start of the 2008 season.
- Started all 16 games and all four postseason contests in 2008 and has now started all 16 games for the last three seasons.
- His 74 career starts have come at three different positions: left guard (62), right tackle (10) and left tackle (2).
- Scored the first TD of his NFL career when he recovered an Edgerrin James fumble in the endzone @ St. Louis on 10/7/07. It was his first TD since his senior year of high school when, as a defensive end, he picked up a fumble that was forced on a sack by his brother Ryan, and returned it for a TD.

his first 100-yard rushing game as a Cardinal and led the way for Marcel Shipp to run for a career high three TDs @ StL (12/3) ... played an inspired game after waking up with the flu and having to take intravenous fluids to play vs. Sea (12/24); led James to his second consecutive 115-yard performance and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack; for his efforts was given the game ball following the contest ... @ SF (12/24), helped lead James to 105 yard rushing, becoming the first Cardinals RB since Adrian Murrell in 1998 to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

2005: Continued his streak of consecutive starts for the Cardinals in 2005, starting the first nine games of the season before a broken ankle suffered @ Det (11/13) landed him on the injured reserve list on 11/15 ... started the first two games of the season at LG and snapped in shotgun formations in the home opener vs. StL (9/18) and @ Sea (9/25).

2004: Started at LG in each of the first 15 games of the season ... shifted to LT for the final game of 2004 due to an injury to Leonard Davis and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack vs. TB (1/2).

2003: Appeared in 15 games (one start), primarily on special teams ... recorded first NFL start at LT in place of L.J. Shelton (ankle) vs. Min (12/28) in dramatic season ending 18–17 win ... prior to game-winning TD pass from QB Josh McCown to WR Nate Poole, recovered a McCown fumble on previous play when Vikings defensive lineman Chris Hovan batted the ball away from McCown.

College:

Four-year starter at Clarion (PA) State ... two-time NCAA Division II All-America and all-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) choice ... hours of commitment to strength program saw him add over 50 pounds to his frame after arriving on Clarion campus as a freshman ... father Reggie, Sr. was a basketball All-America at Clarion and was inducted into the Clarion Sports Hall of Fame in 1990.

The Cardinals third-round draft choice in 2001 (64th overall), Wilson is the longest tenured player on the Arizona roster. Signed a five-year contract extension on 12/22/04 and another on 6/4/09.

2008: Started 14 of 15 games played during the regular season and all four postseason games while earning his second trip to the Pro Bowl ... collected his first interception of the season off QB J.T. O'Sullivan in the first quarter @ SF (9/7) in season opener ... after missing practice all week due to a hamstring injury, saw action on a limited basis and recorded one QB hit that forced QB Trent Edwards (concussion) out of the game early in the first quarter vs. Buf (10/5) ... led team with six unassisted tackles to eclipse 600 career tackles and forced QB Marc Bulger to fumble on his own 21-yard line in the second quarter @ StL (11/2) ... recorded a QB hit and one interception that stopped a 49ers drive at the AZ 18-yard-line with 2:34 remaining in the fourth quarter vs. SF (11/10); late in the third quarter disrupted a play by blitzing just off the center in which QB Shaun Hill fumbled and was recovered by LB Clark Haggans at the SF 10 yard-line and later resulted in a FG to cut the 49ers lead to one point ... finished second on the team with seven tackles, one sack, a pass defensed, a forced fumble and one QB hit @ Sea (11/16); forced RB Julius Jones to fumble at AZ 32 yard-line and was recovered by DT Darnell Dockett and resulted in a FG on ensuing drive to put the Cards up 19-7 in the third quarter ... before leaving the game in the fourth quarter due to a sprained shoulder, registered nine tackles and a tackle for loss vs. NYG (11/23) ... recorded two tackles for loss as well as a season-high 10 tackles vs. Min (12/14) ... started his 100th career game vs. Sea (12/28) ... started first career playoff game and registered five tackles, a forced fumble and a QB hit vs. Atl (1/3/09); part of defense that held the Falcons, the second best rushing team in the NFL during the regular season with 152.7 yards per game average, to just 60 yards on 24 carries (2.5 avg.) ... registered two sacks and forced a fumble on one that was recovered by Cardinals DE Bertrand Berry vs. Phi (1/18/09); marked the fourth multi-sack game of his career and first since 9/17/06 vs. Sea ... led team with seven solo tackles vs. Pit (2/1/09) in Super Bowl XLIII.

2007: Started first nine games, registering 54 tackles with two interceptions before suffering season-ending heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... second on the team with season-high 10 total tackles and eight unassisted tackles as well as one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... registered five total tackles (three solos) and two tackles for loss while intercepting Ben Roethlisberger in end zone in a critical play following a Cardinals fumble that gave the Steelers the ball at the AZ four-yard line with the score tied in the third quarter vs. Pit (9/30) ... recorded five tackles, an interception and one pass defensed @ StL (10/7); marked the first time in his career with an interception in consecutive games ... registered six tackles @ Was (10/21) as part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards on 9/4/94 ... recorded a tackle for loss and one quarterback pressure that resulted in a Karlos Dansby interception before leaving the game in the third quarter due to a heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... had made 59 consecutive starts while appearing in 73 straight games before being inactive with a right heel injury @ Cin (11/18) ... inactive vs. SF (11/25) and placed on injured reserve on 12/1/07.

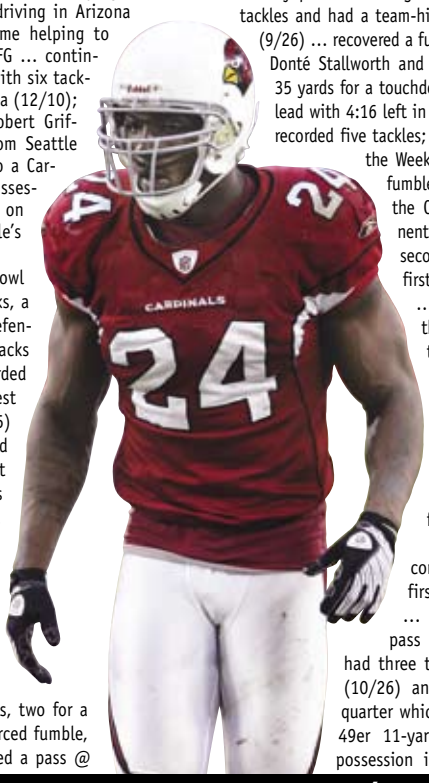

2006: Selected to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games, returning both a interception and fumble 99 yards for touchdowns ... had a solid all around game with seven tackles, two sacks and an interception of QB Matt Hasselbeck @ Sea (9/17); the two sacks gave Wilson, who set an NFL record for defensive backs with eight sacks in

- The longest-tenured Cardinal, 2009 will be Wilson's ninth season with the team. Opted not to become an unrestricted free agent following the 2004 season and instead signed a five-year extension on 12/22/04. Signed his second extension on 6/4/09, another five-year deal that will keep him with the Cardinals through the 2013 season.
- Enters 2009 with 18 career INTs and 18.5 career sacks. Looks to become just the 10th player in NFL history with 20+ sacks and 20+ INTs.
- Received long-overdue recognition and earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 2006 when he was selected as a starter to the NFC squad. Named to his second Pro Bowl in 2008 when he again started at strong safety.
- In 118 career games with the Cardinals, has recorded 651 tackles, 18.5 sacks, 18 interceptions and scored four TDs.
- In 2006, returned both an interception and a fumble 99 yards for TDs, becoming the first defensive player in NFL history with two TDs of 99+ yards in the same season; also only NFL player ever with multiple 99-yarders without the benefit of a kickoff return.
- His 8.0 sacks in 2005 were the most in NFL history by a defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 and also led the team. The previous record belonged to Chicago's Dave Duerson (7.0 in 1986).

2005, eight sacks in his previous nine games ... intercepted a Michael Vick pass near the Cardinals endzone and returned it a franchise record 99 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter to help temporarily give the Cardinals the lead @ Atl (10/1); also recorded five tackles ... on Monday Night Football vs. Chi (10/16) recorded six tackles, a sack of Rex Grossman, one pass defensed and a forced fumble ... totaled nine tackles and recovered a fourth quarter Chester Taylor fumble at the Cardinals one-yard line and ran in back 99 yards for a TD @ Min (11/26) ... came up with another big game, tying for the team-high with nine tackles while adding an interception, two passes defensed and a forced fumble @ StL (12/3); the interception, his fourth of the season tying his career high, came as the Rams were driving in Arizona territory minutes before halftime helping to set up a Neil Rackers 23-yard FG ... continued his push for the Pro Bowl with six tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Sea (12/10); fumble recovery came after Robert Griffith knocked the ball loose from Seattle RB Shawn Alexander and led to a Cardinals TD on the ensuing possession; also made the key tackle on fourth down that stopped Seattle's potential game winning drive.

2005: Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate ... recorded eight sacks, a team-high and the most by a defensive back in the NFL since sacks became official in 1982 ... recorded 11 tackles, the second highest total on the team @ Sea (9/25) and broke up one pass ... recorded a career-high 17 tackles @ Det (11/13) and defended one pass ... had a career game @ StL (11/20) sacking the Rams QBs three times and forcing Marc Bulger out of the game with a shoulder injury; recorded eight stops, also recorded a forced fumble and recovered a fumble ... had another outstanding day as he notched seven tackles, two for a loss, a sack on Alex Smith, a forced fumble, recovered a fumble and deflected a pass @ SF (12/4) ... recorded five tackles, three for a loss, and sacked Mike McMahon twice while defending two passes vs. Phi (12/24) in one of the strongest days of his career.

2004: Started every contest for the Cardinals in 2004 ... finished the season second on the team in tackles, and one shy of his second career 100-tackle season ... recorded four tackles, one fumble recovery and a pass breakup in the season opener @ StL (9/12); recovered a fumble on the first St. Louis drive of the game after Quentin Harris forced a Steven Jackson fumble on the Arizona 26-yard line ... intercepted Michael Vick at the Atl 29 and returned it to the Atl 18 to set up a Neil Rackers field goal, which gave the Cardinals their only points of the game; tied for a team-high seven tackles and had a team-high two passes defensed @ Atl (9/26) ... recovered a fumbled reverse handoff between Donté Stallworth and Aaron Stecker and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to give the Cardinals a 7-0 lead with 4:16 left in the first quarter vs. NO (10/3); recorded five tackles; named NFC Defensive Player of the Week following his five tackles and fumble recovery for a touchdown; the Cards defense held their opponent without a touchdown for the second consecutive game for the first time since November, 1970; ... recorded his first sack of the season in addition to two tackles and a forced fumble vs. StL (12/19) ... notched six tackles, one pass defensed and intercepted a Chris Simms pass with 1:06 remaining to play which sealed the win for the Cardinals in the season finale vs. TB (1/2).

2003: Started all but one contest ... produced the Cards' first blocked punt since 1997 ... recorded eight stops and a pass deflection vs. Bal (10/12) ... had three tackles from scrimmage vs. SF (10/26) and blocked punt in the third quarter which rolled out of bounds at the 49er 11-yard line; Cards converted the possession into a field goal in eventual

WORKING TOWARDS THE 20/20 CLUB

Adrian Wilson is on the verge of joining an elite club among NFL defenders. The Pro Bowl safety can soon become just the 10th player in NFL history with at least 20 sacks and 20 interceptions.

Wilson made progress towards his goal in 2008 and now has 18 INT and 18.5 sacks after collecting two INTs and 2.5 sacks in the 2008 regular season.

AGENT 99

Entering 2006, Pro Bowl safety Adrian Wilson had two touchdowns in his previous five NFL seasons – a 61-yard INT return at Washington on 1/6/02 and a 35-yard fumble return vs. New Orleans on 10/3/04.

He not only matched that figure in 2006, but nearly went the length of the field on each.

The second of those two TDs came at Minnesota on 11/26 when he scooped up a fourth quarter fumble by Chester Taylor and raced 99 yards for a TD. Wilson also had a franchise record 99-yard INT return for a TD off Michael Vick in Arizona's game at Atlanta on 10/1/06.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson was the first player in NFL history to record two touchdowns of 99+ yards in the same season without the benefit of a kickoff return TD.

Wilson became just the fifth player since the 1970 NFL merger to record two 99+ yard scores of any kind in the same season. The four others all scored on kickoff returns.

Players with two 99+ yard TDs in one season (since 1970 merger)

ADRIAN WILSON, ARIZ.	2006	INT RETURN (99) & FUMBLE RETURN (99)
Justin Miller, NYJ	2006	Both kickoff returns (103 & 99)
Terry Fair, Det.	1998	Both kickoff returns (105 & 101)
Roell Preston, G.B.	1998	Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)
Raymond Clayburn, N.E.	1977	Both kickoff returns (101 & 100)

Wilson's 99-yard fumble return at Minnesota also ranked among the longest in NFL history.

Longest fumble returns in NFL history

	ADRIAN WILSON	ARIZ. VS. MIN.	11/26/06

The Vikings game began when J.J. Arrington returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a TD. When Wilson later scored on his 99-yard fumble return, it marked just the second time in NFL history that teammates scored touchdowns of 99+ yards. According to Elias, the other time was a Cowboys-Eagles game on 10/14/62 when Dallas' Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter had a 100-yard INT return.

18–17 victory; whistled for two personal fouls in fourth quarter and ejected from the game … did not start vs. Car (12/14) due to an illness but came off bench to provide three tackles.

2002: Vaulted over 100-total tackle plateau in first season as a starter … recorded three interceptions in 9–6 win vs. Dal (10/20); earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors, most by Cardinal since Kwamie Lassiter made four interceptions in 1998 season finale vs. SD … game-day inactive for season-opener @ Was (9/8) while still on mend from preseason right-shoulder dislocation vs. Den (8/24) … dismantled the Cowboys with three interceptions plus thundering sack of Quincy Carter on opening play of game vs. Dal (10/20) … season-best 12 combined tackles vs. StL (11/3) … set the table for both Cardinal touchdowns @ Phi (11/17); on first, knocked the ball loose from Eagle QB Donovan McNabb on third play of game to set up 12-yard touchdown pass; McNabb suffered a fractured an ankle on the play; on second pick, Wilson intercepted McNabb in the second quarter and returned the ball 35 yards to Philadelphia's two-yard line; Arizona scored on its ensuing play from scrimmage to knot game at 14–14; finished contest with 10 tackles, half-sack, one interception, and one forced fumble … inactive with hamstring injury for season finale @ Den (12/29).

2001: Playing time from scrimmage increased as season progressed … active game in win vs. KC (10/21) with three tackles, a quarterback hurry on a corner blitz and two deflected passes; also got a hand on a Corey Chavous interception in the end zone to stymie last-second Chiefs' rally from their own one-yard line to the Cards' two-yard line with five seconds remaining … recorded first NFL pass interception @ Dal (10/28) which he returned 36 yards to give Arizona the ball near midfield with four minutes left … gave Cards an early 7–0 lead in first quarter @ Was (1/6) when he stepped in front of Redskin wide receiver Michael Westbrook on a slant route and returned the interception 61 yards for his first NFL touchdown at the 10-minute mark of the opening period.

College:

Two-year starting strong safety at North Carolina State … recorded 254 total tackles (144 solos) and 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage in 33 games for the Wolfpack … career tackle total most by a N.C. State defensive back since James Walker collected 289 stops from 1993–95 … added three interceptions and 11 pass deflections in 23 career starts before entering the NFL Draft following his junior season.

2008 TEAM MILESTONES

- Under second-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, the Cardinals won their first division title since 1975, winning the NFC West with a perfect 6-0 record against divisional opponents.
- The Cardinals made their first playoff appearance since 1998, earned the second road playoff win in franchise history and appeared in their first-ever Super Bowl.
- Arizona became the first #4 seed to host a conference championship game and the first #4 from the NFC to advance to the Super Bowl.
- The Cardinals recorded 12 wins on the season, the most in a single-season in franchise history. They won more playoff games in 2008 (3) than they had in their total playoff history (2) entering the season.
- Including the playoffs, the Cardinals finished 8-2 at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2008, bringing their overall record to 14-4 at home in two seasons under Whisenhunt.
- The Cardinals finished the regular season by scoring a franchise record 427 points, the third-highest total in the NFL in 2008. Their 118 points scored in the postseason were the third-most in playoff history.
- The Cardinals finished the regular season with the fourth ranked offense in the NFL and the second ranked passing offense. It marked the third time in the last four seasons that the Cardinals passing offense has been ranked among the league's top five.

2008 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt

- Led the Cardinals to their first-ever Super Bowl appearance and more wins in a single season (12) than any coach in franchise history. Whisenhunt's 20 wins in his first two seasons as head coach are the most in franchise history for any head coach in his first two campaigns.
- Under Whisenhunt, the Cardinals won the NFC West, giving the franchise their first division title since 1975.
- Whisenhunt guided the Cardinals to a 30-24 win over the Atlanta Falcons in the Wild Card game, their first playoff victory since the 1998 season and the first home playoff victory for the franchise in 61 years.

QB Kurt Warner

- Named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year and was selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl and first since 2001 as a member of the Rams. He became the first Cardinals QB selected to the Pro Bowl since Neil Lomax in 1987 and the seven-year lapse since his last Pro Bowl selection was the second-longest among QBs since 1970 (Randall Cunningham and Phil Simms, 8).
- Threw for 377 yards in Super Bowl XLIII, the second-highest total in Super Bowl history, behind the 414 yards he threw for against Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. He now has the top three passing totals in Super Bowl history, having also thrown for 365 yards against New England in Super Bowl XXXVI. He is the only QB in Super Bowl history with three 300-yard performances.
- Warner has now totaled 1,156 yards passing in his three Super Bowl appearances, the most passing yards of any QB in Super Bowl history.
- Became just the second QB (Craig Morton) in NFL history to start a Super Bowl for two different teams. After leading the St. Louis Rams to Super Bowl appearances in 1999 and 2001, Warner guided the Cardinals to Super Bowl XLIII, becoming just the third quarterback in NFL history (John Elway-8, Craig Morton-7) to start a Super Bowl seven or more years apart.
- Warner established regular season franchise records for attempts (598), completions (401), completion percentage (67.1), passer rating (96.9), TD passes (30) and consecutive games with a TD pass (22). He also passed for 4,583 yards, the second-highest total in franchise history (Neil Lomax—4,614, 1984).
- Tied Peyton Manning for the NFL record with three games with a perfect QB rating of 158.3 after completing 19-of-24 passes for 361 yards and three TDs against the Miami Dolphins in week two.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history, shattering the NFL record for receiving yards (546), receptions (30), and receiving TDs (7) in a single postseason. With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games, Fitzgerald set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving.
- For the second consecutive season, led the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards, hauling in 96 receptions for a career-high 1,431 yards. He also established a career-high with 12 TD receptions during the regular season. He tied Detroit's Calvin Johnson for the league lead in TD receptions, finished second in the league in receiving yards and tied for fourth in receptions.
- Became the youngest receiver in NFL history (25 years, 119 days) to collect 400 career receptions, reaching the milestone vs. the Giants on 11/23/08. He broke the mark previously held by Randy Moss (25 years, 305 days).
- Earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl after leading the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards for the second consecutive season. He caught 96 passes for 1,431 yards and a career-high 12 TD passes during the 2008 regular season. Fitzgerald caught five passes for 81 yards and two TDs in the Pro Bowl, earning MVP honors in the NFC's 30-21 victory over the AFC.

WR Anquan Boldin

- Despite missing four games due to injury, caught 89 passes for 1,038 yards and 11 TDs during the regular season, earning his third trip to the Pro Bowl as a starter. His 1,000-yard season was the fourth of his career for the Cardinals, becoming the first receiver in franchise history to accomplish the feat.
- Reached 500 career receptions in his 80th career game (vs. Minnesota in week 15), reaching the career milestone in fewer games than any other receiver in NFL history, nine games faster than the previous record holder (Lionel Taylor, Denver, 89 games).
- With three 100-yard games during the regular season, reached 24 career 100-yard games as a member of the Cardinals, becoming the franchise's all-time leader in the category. Jackie Smith held the previous record with 22 100-yard receiving games.

DT Darnell Dockett

- With three sacks in Super Bowl XLIII against the Steelers, he tied the NFL record for sacks in a Super Bowl, a record he now shares with Hall of Famer and sack legend Reggie White. He also added six tackles and two tackles for a loss the Super Bowl.

RB Tim Hightower

- His 10 rushing TDs during the regular season established a new franchise record for rushing TDs by a rookie. He passed the mark set by Ronald Moore (9) in 1993. Hightower's TD total was also tied for the best total among all NFL rookie rushers.

CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie

- The rookie first-round draft pick started the final nine games of the regular season and all four playoff games for the Cardinals. He led the team in the regular season with four INTs and tied for the team lead with two INTs in the postseason. Heading into the NFC title game against the Eagles, Rodgers-Cromartie had six INTs over a nine-game span.
- Named the "NFL Rookie Defensive Player of the Month" for December after finishing the month with 15 tackles, six passes defensed, a fumble recovery, and two INTs—one of which he returned 99 yards for a TD, tying the franchise record for longest INT return.

CARDINALS 23, 49ERS 13

SEPTEMBER 7, 2008
CANDLESTICK PARK (67,186)

The Cardinals opened the season with a 10-point victory at San Fran. It was the team's first week one road win since 1999. Combined with Seattle & St. Louis losses it also gave Arizona sole possession of first place in the NFC West. Keys to the victory were a 5-0 edge in takeaways and a time of possession advantage in the second half of 22:38 to 7:22. Anquan Boldin led all receivers by catching 8 passes from Kurt Warner for 82 yards (all in the 2nd half) and Edgerrin James gained 100 yards on 26 carries. Defensively, veteran newcomer Travis LaBoy notched 2.0 sacks of J.T. O'Sullivan and a forced fumble on one.

The Cardinals opening drive reached the SF 7 before a 25-yard Neil Rackers FG gave them an early lead. On the 2nd play of the next series, FB Zak Keasey caught a pass from O'Sullivan but DT Darnell Dockett forced a fumble that LB Karlos Dansby recovered at the SF 11. The drive reached the 2 but a personal foul on LT Mike Gandy backed it up and Rackers missed from 35. The Niners then moved quickly into AZ territory and Frank Gore put San Fran ahead with a 41-yard TD run. The next San Fran drive ended when SS Adrian Wilson INT'd O'Sullivan and returned the pick to the SF 33 but the Cards were forced to punt. Early in the 2nd quarter, AZ faced a 3rd-n-7 when Warner hit WR Steve Breaston with a 40-yard completion to the 1. On the next play he lofted a ball to the corner that Larry Fitzgerald snared for a TD. The next SF drive again ended with a turnover when Bertrand Berry stripped O'Sullivan and Antonio Smith recovered but the ensuing drive ended with a punt. The Niners then tied it late in the 2nd on a 39-yard Joe Nedney FG. Despite a 3-0 edge in takeaways and a decisive AZ advantage in field position, the game was tied 10-10 at the half.

Because they deferred on the opening coin flip, AZ got the ball to start the 3rd quarter. Thanks to a pass heavy attack (including 3-47 to Boldin) the Cards took the lead on a 31-yard Rackers FG. Rackers then pooched the kickoff to the SF 33 where LB Takeo Spikes muffed it and Matt Ware recovered. The drive penetrated the red zone and on a 3rd-n-4 pass from the 5, Warner's completion to Breaston was originally spotted at the 2 but a Cardinal challenge moved it inside the 1, though still shy of a first. On 4th-n-inches, rookie RB Tim Hightower scored his 1st career TD and gave AZ a 20-10 lead. As a result of the 2 drives, AZ was able to chew up 11:03 before the Niners offense re-took the field. When they did, SF moved 60 yards in 13 plays and Nedney hit a 30-yard FG that made it 20-13 with 12:05 to play. That's when the Cardinals were able to put the game out of reach with a sustained 18-play drive that consumed 10:08 and ended with a 30-yard Rackers FG. San Fran's next play from scrimmage saw LaBoy pull the hat trick on O'Sullivan with a sack, forced fumble and recovery.

CARDINALS 31, DOLPHINS 10

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM (63,445)

In their home opener, the Cardinals offense rolled up 445 total yards and 31 points on the Dolphins en route to a 21-point victory and their first 2-0 start since 1991. QB Kurt Warner passed for 361 yards and 3 TDs. All 3 went to WR Anquan Boldin who finished with 6 catches for 140 yards and his first career 3-TD day. Fellow WR Larry Fitzgerald was 6-153 and the duo eclipsed the century mark in the same game for the 6th time. Boldin's 22nd career 100-yard game tied him with Jackie Smith for the most in franchise history. Warner finished with a perfect passer rating of 158.3, becoming the first Cardinal QB with a perfect rating since Jim Hart on 11/23/75 vs. NYJ. It was Warner's third career "perfect game" tying him with Peyton Manning for most in NFL history.

Warner's first pass of the day set the tone for a big game. After a delay penalty and another for illegal formation, the Cards' 1st down play saw Warner throw it deep down the middle for Boldin, who continued on for a career-long 79-yard score. On Arizona's next drive, the QB connected with Fitzgerald on a 75-yard pass to the 4 and 3 plays later, Warner hit Boldin with a 3-yard TD toss. While Miami's first 4 drives ended with punts, Arizona's produced points as Neil Rackers put the Cards up 17-0 with a 45-yard FG midway thru the 2nd quarter.

On the opening series of the 2nd half, Arizona was aided by 3 Miami penalties that kept the drive alive and rookie Tim Hightower capped it with a 1-yard TD run that put AZ up 24-0. Hightower became the first player in team history with TD runs in each of his first two games. The Dolphins got on the board with a 32-yard Dan Carpenter FG but the Cards answered right back. They moved 80 yards in 8 plays as Warner and Boldin connected again, this time on an 8-yard hook-up. Only a Ronnie Brown 1-yard run with 2:38 left made the final 31-10. Both squads pulled their starting QBs as Chad Henne replaced Chad Pennington with 9:42 to play and Matt Leinart came in for Warner for the final series.

Edgerrin James reached a career milestone on the opening drive of the 3rd quarter when he became just the 14th player in NFL history to eclipse 15,000 total yards from scrimmage.

REDSKINS 24, CARDINALS 17

FED EX FIELD (90,060)

The Cardinals suffered their first defeat and fell to 2-1 with a 7-point loss at Washington. The Redskins produced 10 points off Arizona's first two turnovers of the season and the Cardinals snapped their streak of 10-straight games scoring 20+ points.

The Redskins opened the game with an 11-play, 60-yard drive that ended with a 3-yard Clinton Portis TD run that gave the hosts an early 7-0 lead. On the first play of the 2nd quarter, Edgerrin James fumbled and Carlos Rogers recovered at the AZ 34. That turnover – Arizona's first of the season – led to a 48-yard Shaun Suisham FG and 10-0 Redskin lead. Later in the quarter, the Cards embarked upon an 11-play, 84-yard drive and Kurt Warner capped it with a 4-yard TD pass to Anquan Boldin. The TD came one play after an 18-yard pass from WR Jerheme Urban to RB Tim Hightower took it to the 4.

That TD made it 10-7 at the half and the Cards opened the 3rd quarter with a 15-play, 72-yard drive to the 9 and tied the game with a 26-yard Neil Rackers FG. Washington responded with its own long drive on the ensuing possession (11 plays, 80 yards) and took a 17-10 lead when Jason Campbell connected on a 2-yard scoring pass with TE Todd Yoder. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner went deep down the middle to Larry Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard game-tying TD. When the Cards got the ball back after a Redskin punt, Warner went deep down the middle again, this time looking for WR Steve Breaston. However, Leigh Torrence tipped the ball away at the last second. Rogers grabbed the deflection and returned the INT 42 yards to the AZ15. Two plays later, Campbell hit Santana Moss on a screen pass that resulted in a 17-yard scoring pass and a 24-17 lead with 12:10 to go. After an Arizona punt, the Redskins appeared to go up 2 TDs on a 68-yard Campbell pass to Devin Thomas but the play was negated by tackle Stephon Heyer's personal foul. That drive ended when Suisham's 52-yard FG try was no good and the Cards took over at their own 42 with 3:23 to go. Facing a 4th-n-4 at the AZ48 with 2:46 to go, Arizona opted to punt and hope for a stop. Instead the Redskins picked up the necessary first downs to salt away the remaining time.

JETS 56, CARDINALS 35

GIANTS STADIUM – (78,222)

The Cardinals fell to 2-2 following a wild 56-35 road loss at the Jets that saw the hosts explode for 34 points in a nightmare 2nd quarter for Arizona. The Cards then responded with 21 straight in the 3rd to close the gap to 13 points. They never got closer though as Brett Favre threw 3 of his career-best 6 TD passes in the 4th to ensure the win. The game ended with a frightening moment when Anquan Boldin absorbed a vicious hit from Eric Smith at the goal line. He left the field on a stretcher and was taken to the hospital but he was ultimately OK.

Arizona missed 2 big chances on its opening drives of the game. After reaching the NY 9, a Warner sack & fumble pushed it back to the 32 and on the next play, a Boldin fumble was returned by Hank Poteat to the NY43. Three plays later, LB Chike Okeafor killed the threat when he INT'd Favre and took it to the NY16. That led to a 37-yard FG try by Neil Rackers that was blocked by DT Kris Jenkins. The Jets took over at midfield and 2 plays into the 2nd quarter Favre hit Laveranues Coles with a 12-yard TD. On the next drive, Darrelle Revis picked off Warner's 3rd-n-8 pass and returned it 32 yards for a TD. The Jets extended the lead to 21-0 with a 34-yard Favre-Coles connection on the next series. The first play of the ensuing drive saw Warner INT'd again, this time by Eric Smith who returned it to the AZ 19 and that led to a 20-yard Jay Feely FG. The spiral continued on the next AZ drive when LB Calvin Pace sacked Warner forcing a fumble that the Jets recovered at the NY 40. It set up the 3rd Coles TD catch (2 yards). A Warner fumble on the next play from scrimmage gave the Jets time for a 30-yard FG and a 34-0 lead as the devastating 2nd quarter ended.

Arizona fought back in the 3rd with 3 long drives that ended with short TD runs set up by Warner passing. Edgerrin James scored on rushes of 4 & 2 yards and after a successful on-side kick, Tim Hightower's 1-yard run made it 34-21 late in the 3rd. The Jets responded by going 80 yards in 12 plays and Favre threw the first of 2 TD passes to Jerricho Cotchery. AZ again cut it to 13 with 9:49 to play on an 8-yard Warner-to-Boldin TD. With 7:33 to go the Jets went for it on 4th-n-1 at the AZ 40 and Favre delivered with a 40-yard TD pass to Cotchery. The no-huddle Cards quickly narrowed it to 13 again on a 14-yard Jerheme Urban TD catch. AZ's final hopes were dashed by another Favre TD pass with 1:54 left.

CARDINALS 41, BILLS 17

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM (63,830)

The Cardinals rebounded from a pair of tough east coast road losses to score a decisive home win over the unbeaten Bills. Arizona improved to 3-2 and remained in sole possession of 1st place in the NFC West. Buffalo entered the game at 4-0 but turned it over 4 times and suffered 5 sacks while AZ played a sack-free/turnover-free game. Kurt Warner bounced back from a rough outing at the Jets to complete 78.5% of his passes to 9 different receivers. Playing without all-pro WR Anquan Boldin, Larry Fitzgerald caught a pair of TDs while rookie RB Tim Hightower added 2 on the ground. The Bills lost starting QB Trent Edwards (concussion) on the game's 1st drive and back-up J.P. Losman played the rest. AZ opened the game by scoring TDs on its first 3 drives and scored points on 7 of its first 8 possessions.

On the game's 3rd play, SS Adrian Wilson-who was limited due to a groin injury-came untouched on a blitz off the right side and delivered a punishing blow to Edwards. Two plays later, DE Antonio Smith blew up a backfield handoff between Losman and Marshawn Lynch and recovered the fumble himself at the BUF38. That led to a 2-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD. Arizona's next drive went 80 yards in 8 plays and ended on Hightower's 17-yard scoring run that made it 14-0. Buffalo cut it to 14-7 when Losman hit Lee Evans with an 87-yard scoring pass. The Cards responded with another long TD drive (12-78) and ended this one on Edgerrin James' 1-yard run. Late in the 1st half, Losman scored on a 2-yard TD run with 1:46 to go to make it 21-14 but Warner & Co. marched into position for a 47-yard Neil Rackers FG as the 1st half expired.

Buffalo produced a 48-yard Rian Lindell FG on its first drive after intermission to make it 24-17. The Cards then went 78 yards in 13 plays on a drive aided by several key conversions by J.J. Arrington on 3rd-n-long. The drive appeared to end when Rackers hit a 28-yard FG but a Buffalo offside penalty gave AZ a 1st down. They capitalized with a 2-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD 2 plays later. The first play of the next drive saw Gerald Hayes force a fumble by TE Robert Royal and Darnell Dockett returned it to the BUF34. When Rackers knocked a 38-yard FG in off the upright 4 plays later, AZ led by 3 scores early in the 4th. The Cards then put the final nail in the coffin when DT Gabe Watson sacked Losman forcing a fumble that Hayes recovered at the BUF19. That led to Hightower's 2-yard TD run which made it a 41-17 final.

CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 24 (OT)

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,389)

In one of the most thrilling games of the year, the Cardinals improved to 4-2 and won their 6th straight home game as Arizona became the first team in NFL history to score TDs on the first and last plays of a game.

After J.J. Arrington returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a TD, the first half failed to produce the shootout that many had anticipated in this match-up of top 5 offenses. Dallas' 2nd drive appeared to end when Darnell Dockett sacked Tony Romo forcing a fumble that AZ recovered but referee Pete Morelli ruled forward progress had been stopped. Two drives later, with 4:04 to play in the 2nd, AZ appeared to go up 14-0 when Dockett sacked Romo in the end zone forcing a fumble that Antonio Smith recovered for a TD. However, Dallas challenged and Morelli negated the score based on the infamous "tuck rule" that instead made it an incomplete pass. The Cowboys capitalized 5 plays later on a 55-yard TD pass to Patrick Crayton. When the ensuing pooch kickoff was muffed, the Cowboys recovered at the AZ27 with 0:56 left poised to take the halftime lead. But the AZ defense produced a 3-n-out and Nick Folk's 37-yard FG try clanged off the upright.

On the opening series of the 3rd quarter, Dallas took a 14-7 lead with a 14-yard TD pass to Miles Austin. AZ responded with a long drive of its own (11-60) and tied the game at 14 on a 2-yard scoring pass from Warner to Fitzgerald. The Cards then tried a surprise on-side kick but the Cowboys recovered at the AZ46. On 3rd-n-9 at the AZ 31, a bad snap pushed Dallas back to the 47, forcing a punt. Fitzgerald then came up with another huge play when he outleapt everyone on a 39-yard jump ball that moved from the AZ23 to the DAL38. That led to an 11-yard TD pass to Steve Breaston. After a Dallas 3-n-out, the Cards went up 10 with 3:17 to play thanks to Neil Rackers' 41-yard FG. Dallas did not go away. Romo hit Marion Barber with a short pass in the flat that turned into a 70-yard TD play. The Cards went 3-n-out giving Dallas the ball back at its own 32 with :50 left. In the closing seconds, Romo hit Jason Witten for a 30-yard gain to the AZ39 and killed the clock with :04 left. Cards DE Travis LaBoy was injured on the play and when he couldn't get to the line of scrimmage a 5-yard offside penalty was added. Folk then connected on a 52-yarder that forced OT.

Dallas won the toss and started OT at its own 22. Chike Okeafor sacked Romo on 1st down and after 2 incompletions the Cowboys lined up to punt from their own 11. Special teams captain Sean Morey then burst thru the middle and blocked Mat McBriar's punt that Monty Beisel returned 3 yards for a TD.

PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 23

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM (72,010)

Arizona faced a formidable test at Carolina against a 5-2 Panther team that was 4-0 at home and boasted the NFL's 5th-ranked defense (#2 vs. the pass). Thanks mostly to a potent passing attack led by Kurt Warner and bolstered by the return of WR Anquan Boldin, the Cardinals led by 14 early in the 3rd quarter. However a pair of turnovers and two Panther TDs within a minute in the 3rd quarter enabled Carolina to emerge with the win. The Cards fell to 4-3 but maintained a 2-game division lead when the 49ers & Rams both lost. Boldin caught 9 passes for 63 yards a 2 TDs in his first action since suffering a head injury on a vicious hit at the Jets that caused him to miss 2 games. Fellow WR Larry Fitzgerald had 115 yards on 7 catches and Steve Breaston was 9-91 receiving.

On Arizona's first drive of the game, a 30-yard Boldin run on a reverse set up a 21-yard Neil Rackers FG. Early in the 2nd, LB Karlos Dansby set the offense up at the CAR 5 when he sacked Jake Delhomme, forcing a fumble that he recovered. On the next play, Warner hit Boldin with a 5-yard TD pass. After punting on its first 3 series (including two 3-n-outs) Carolina proceeded to move downfield on the fourth. On 1st-n-goal at the 4, WR Muhsin Muhammad dropped a sure TD pass and the Panthers instead settled for a John Kasay FG. Late in the 2nd quarter, AZ looked poised to add more points when Rackers lined up for a FG on 4th-n-15 at the CAR 21. Instead the Cards tried a fake FG but holder Dirk Johnson's completion to TE Jerame Tuman gained just 10 yards.

AZ opened the 2nd half by moving 64 yards in 8 plays and capped the drive with a 2-yard Tim Hightower TD run that put the Cards up 17-3. Carolina responded with its own long drive that ended with a 15-yard TD run by DeAngelo Williams. On the 2nd play of the next drive Edgerrin James fumbled, turning it over at the AZ18. The Panthers capitalized on the next snap when Jake Delhomme hit Steve Smith on an 18-yard TD pass that knotted the score at 17. Arizona re-took the lead late in the 3rd when Boldin's 2nd TD reception of the day (2 yards) capped an 11-play, 78-yard drive that made it 23-17 after the PAT snap was mishandled. Carolina struck quickly again when Delhomme threw a short pass to Smith that he took 65 yards down the left sideline. Smith appeared to step out of bounds near midfield and the Cards challenged but referee Walt Coleman refused to overturn the original call. Now down 1, Arizona moved to the Carolina 15 but Warner's 2nd-n-3 pass bounced off J.J. Arrington's hands and was picked off by LB Jon Beason. He returned the INT to the Carolina 49 and that set up a 50-yard Kasay FG that gave the Panthers a 4-point lead. Arizona's next drive stalled near midfield and resulted in a punt. Taking over at their own 20 with 5:57 to play, the Panthers picked up three 3rd downs that enabled them to run out the clock.

CARDINALS 34, RAMS 13

EDWARD JONES DOME – (61,303)

The Cardinals closed the first half of the season with an important NFC West tilt at St. Louis. AZ racked up a season-high 510 yards of offense behind a Kurt Warner-led passing attack and a run game headed by rookie Tim Hightower, who made his first career start. Warner was again sharp against his old team completing 23-34 passes (67.6%) for 342 yards and 2 TDs with no turnovers. Hightower became the first Cards rookie to top 100 rushing yards since 1993. Defensively, AZ allowed just 231 total yards and 61 rushing, both season lows. The game turned in the 2nd quarter when the Cards outscored the Rams 24-0 and outgained them 229-18. AZ improved to 5-3 with the win and extended its division lead to 3 games over the Rams, 49ers and Seahawks (all 2-6).

The early going was not exactly easy for the Cards. They marched downfield on the opening drive and appeared to score on a 1-yard Hightower run on 3rd-n-goal. However, a successful St. Louis challenge reversed the TD call and Warner was stopped for no gain on a 4th down sneak. After the teams exchanged punts, St. Louis took over at its own 20 on the game's 4th series. On 1st down, Marc Bulger went deep down the left sideline to WR Derek Stanley who hauled in the pass for his first career catch and an 80-yard TD. Early in the 2nd, the Cards evened the game at 7 when FS Antrel Rolle stepped in front of a Bulger pass and returned the pick 40 yards for his 4th career INT-TD. On the next Rams drive, SS Adrian Wilson sacked Bulger and forced a fumble that DE Bertrand Berry recovered at the Ram 23. That led to a 36-yard Neil Rackers FG that made it 10-7. On their next drive, the Cards moved 92 yards in 5 plays and Hightower scored on a 30-yard burst just after the 2:00 warning. A 3-n-out quickly gave AZ the ball back at its own 44. When Warner threw it deep down the right sideline, the ball bounced off the hands of DB Jonathan Wade and straight to WR Jerheme Urban at the 30. That 56-yard TD gave AZ a 24-7 halftime lead.

The Cards scored the 3rd quarter's only points when Anquan Boldin's 7-yard TD grab ended an 8-play, 82-yard drive that made it 31-7. The Rams made it 31-13 early in the 4th on a 3-yard Torry Holt TD reception but the Cardinals then ended any comeback hopes on the next series. A 12-play drive netted a 30-yard Rackers FG but more importantly chewed 8:50 off the clock. St. Louis' final possession ended with a Rod Hood INT off Bulger.

CARDINALS 29, 49ERS 24

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,519)

In a Monday night nail-biter, Arizona improved to 6-3 and extended its division lead to 4 games over the 3 other NFC West teams with a 29-24 home victory over the Niners. While the win gave the Cards a season sweep over San Fran, there was certainly nothing easy about it. Arizona trailed from the get-go after Allen Rossum returned the opening kickoff 104 yards for a TD. Behind another exceptional effort from Kurt Warner, the Cards stayed close and took their first lead with 4:16 to play when a Karlos Dansby INT set-up Anquan Boldin's 2nd TD of the night (10th of the year). Still the Cards had to withstand a pair of threats from the 49ers and did not seal it until a goal-line stop on the game's final play. It marked the 7th straight home win for the Cards, their longest streak since winning 9 in a row in 1925.

After the Rossum score, the Cards moved to the SF10 but settled for a 28-yard Neil Rackers FG. Early in the 2nd, a 31-yard Shaun Hill-to-Josh Morgan TD gave SF a 14-3 lead. AZ responded by moving 78 yards in 4 plays including consecutive completions of 18 & 46 yards to Steve Breaston. The drive ended with Warner's 13-yard TD pass to Boldin, who extended his streak of games with a TD to a club record 6 games. A 33-yard Rackers FG made it 14-13 but with 0:29 left in the half, Hill hit Vernon Davis for an 18-yard TD on 3rd-n-11.

The Cards opened the 3rd quarter with a 7-play, 61-yard drive that ended with a gamble. On 4th-n-1 at the 5, Warner hit Fitzgerald with a TD that cut it to 1. The 49ers faced a similar decision on their next drive with a 4th-n-1 at the AZ24 and kicked a 41-yard Joe Nedney FG that made it 24-20. Late in the 3rd, the Cards appeared to take the lead when FS Antrel Rolle picked off Hill and returned it for a TD. However, the play was wiped out by a neutral zone infraction called on Adrian Wilson. Two plays later, a blitzing Wilson forced a Hill fumble that Clark Haggans recovered at the SF 10. The Cards could only turn it into a FG that cut the SF lead to 24-23. However, when Dansby picked Hill with a little over 5:00 to go and returned it 34 yards to the 5, it set the Cards up for their first lead. Warner's 4-yard TD pass to Boldin put AZ up 29-24 (2-point try failed). The gritty Niners responded by moving to the Cards 18 but Wilson again snuffed the drive with a diving INT of a Hill shovel pass. When the AZ offense went 3-n-out, SF took over at the AZ 42 with 1:06 left after the punt (no timeouts). Three straight passes to Jason Hill quickly moved it downfield, including the final one of 14 yards that took it to the 1. In the final frenetic seconds, SF stopped the clock with a spike before Frank Gore ran for minus-1 on a play that was reviewed and upheld. After the review, SF had 0:02 left with the ball on the 2 when Michael Robinson was stuffed by Haggans and others to preserve the win.

CARDINALS 26, SEAHAWKS 20

QWEST FIELD – (65,403)

The Cardinals won in Seattle for the first time since '02 and notched their 3rd straight win with a 6-point decision. The victory improved Arizona to 7-3 and strengthened the team's commanding lead in the NFC West. The Cards scored on 6 of their first 7 drives and held a 26-7 lead after 3 quarters. A pair of 4th quarter turnovers led to Seattle TDs that narrowed it to 26-20 but Arizona's defense held the Seahawks on their final 2 offensive possessions to clinch the win. Kurt Warner became the first Cards QB to top 300 passing yards in 4 straight games while WRs Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald each caught 10+ passes and topped 150 yards. Seattle was bolstered by the return of QB Matt Hasselbeck from a 5-week layoff (back); he completed 58% of his 29 passes for 170 yards and threw 3 INTs.

On the game's opening drive, Warner was 9-10 for 61 yards and put the Cards in position for a 38-yard Neil Rackers FG. The lead grew to 10-0 on the next possession when J.J. Arrington scored on a 4-yard run; the biggest play was a 45-yard catch-n-run by Boldin. The next AZ drive's big play was a 33-yarder to Fitzgerald that set-up a 48-yard Rackers FG and 13-0 lead. Rookie Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next Seattle series with a diving INT and late in the 2nd, the Cards seemed in position to put the game away. However, Josh Wilson's INT and 58-yard return set up a 13-yard Mo Morris TD catch made it 13-7 with 0:56 left. Warner then guided AZ into position for a 54-yard Rackers FG as the half ended.

On the opening series of the 2nd half, Julius Jones fumbled and turned it over at the AZ33. A 44-yard Boldin catch took it to the SEA28 and that led to a 26-yard Rackers FG. After a Seattle punt, the Cards moved 82 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 6-yard Warner-to-Arrington TD. Early in the 4th, Karlos Dansby appeared to end a Seattle drive deep in AZ territory with his goal-line INT but when he fumbled on the return, the Seahawks got another chance. They capitalized on a 1-yard T.J. Duckett run. On the 2nd play of the next drive Warner was sacked and fumbled, giving the ball back at the AZ14 and Duckett's subsequent 2-yard TD run made it 26-20 with 9:41 left. An AZ punt gave the Seahawks the ball back with 5:38 left but the Cards send them 3-n-out. Seattle would get another chance when they took over at their own 28 with 2:05 left but on the 1st play, Rodgers-Cromartie again picked Hasselbeck to seal the game.

GIANTS 37, CARDINALS 29

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (64,541)

In a match-up of division leaders, the Giants moved to 10-1 by playing an efficient, mistake-free game while the Cardinals made just enough to fall to 7-4. Two turnovers were costly for the Cards as were a pair of long Domenik Hixon kickoff returns. The loss snapped Arizona's 7-game home win streak and was NY's 6th straight victory. AZ also missed a chance at clinching the NFC West crown.

On Arizona's opening drive, Kurt Warner converted a pair of 3rd-n-9's on passes to Steve Breaston (17) and J.J. Arrington (9) that set-up a 34-yard Neil Rackers FG. Early in the 2nd, NYG RB Derrick Ward – playing in place of injured starter Brandon Jacobs – scored on a 1-yard TD plunge. Arrington then returned the kickoff 55 yards to the NY42 and 7 plays later, Tim Hightower scored on a 4-yard run that made it 9-7 after a bad hold on the PAT. Hixon then had an 83-yard KOR to the AZ17 that set-up a 33-yard John Carney FG. Arrington's next return set the Cards up near midfield and a 32-yard Warner-to-Jerheme Urban pass moved it to the 19. After Rackers' 20-yard FG made it 12-10 Cards, another long Hixon KOR (68) set the Giants up at the 32 and that led to a 12-yard Eli Manning TD pass to Amani Toomer. To close the 1st half, the Cards took advantage of the fair catch-free kick rule to try a 68-yard Rackers FG but it was unsuccessful.

The Cards got the ball first after intermission but turned it over when Justin Tuck stripped Warner and Mathias Kiwanuka recovered at the AZ40. Manning's 30-yard connection to Steve Smith took it to the 2 and on the next play he hit fullback Madison Hedgecock on a TD pass out of the backfield. The Cards responded with a 12-play, 90-yard drive and Hightower made it 24-19 with his 2nd TD run of the day. NY extended the lead back to 12 with its own long, methodical drive that Manning ended with his 3rd TD pass of the day, a 10-yarder to TE Kevin Boss. After Arrington's KOR took it to midfield, a 32-yard Warner-Breaston hook-up got it to the 5 and set-up a 5-yard Anquan Boldin TD catch that cut the deficit to 8. Rackers' onside try glanced off the hands of Ralph Brown and the Giants recovered to set-up a 33-yard FG with 1:55 to go extending the lead to 11. The Cards then kicked a 44-yarder with 0:31 left but were unsuccessful again on an onside kick and the Giants clinched the game with the recovery.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD (69,144)

Four days after hosting the Super Bowl champion Giants, the Cards took on the Eagles in Philadelphia in a Thanksgiving night showdown. The host Eagles scored 21 straight to start the game, thanks in part to a pair of Kurt Warner INTs and prevailed with a 48-20 win. The Cardinals lost an opportunity to clinch the division crown and fell to 7-5 but remained firmly in first place in the NFC West. The Eagles moved to 6-5-1 and kept their playoff hopes alive.

Philly took the opening kickoff and moved 70 yards in 12 plays as Brian Westbrook scored the first of his 4 TDs (2 rushing/2 receiving) on a 5-yard pass from Donovan McNabb. On the 5th play of the next drive, Joselio Hanson INT'd a tipped Warner pass and returned it to the AZ41. Five straight Westbrook runs got it into the end zone, including the final one from a yard out. The next AZ drive ended when Quintin Mikell picked off Warner. While the ensuing possession didn't produce any points, the Eagles went up 21-0 midway thru the 2nd quarter on a 2-yard McNabb-Westbrook pass. The Cards scored late in the half on a 1-yard Warner TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald but David Akers' FG in the closing seconds made it 24-7 at intermission.

Westbrook opened the 2nd half scoring with a 9-yard TD run. A muffed Eagles punt led to an AZ TD – a 6-yard pass from Warner to Steve Breaston - that made it 34-13 but the Eagles again answered with an Akers FG. Early in the 4th, the Cards cut it to 14 with a 7-yard Warner-Fitzgerald connection and got the ball right back with 12:46 to play after a Philly 3-n-out. However, the comeback hopes were dealt a severe blow when Anquan Boldin fumbled after a reception and the Eagles took over at the AZ19. Five plays later, McNabb hit DeSean Jackson with a 5-yard scoring pass that made it 41-20 and an 8-yard McNabb TD pass to Jason Avant 5 minutes later provided the game's final points.

CARDINALS 34, RAMS 10

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM (63,720)

The Cardinals clinched their first playoff appearance since 1998, first division title since '75 and first home playoff game since '47 thanks to a convincing home win over the Rams. Arizona scored TDs on its first 2 drives to take the early lead and a pair of 2nd half defensive TDs put it out of reach. Kurt Warner threw for 279 yards and set the club's single-season record for completions with a 22-37 effort. Anquan Boldin became the first player in team history to record four 1,000-yard campaigns and moved into 3rd on the club's all-time receptions list. Defensively, MLB Gerald Hayes forced Steven Jackson fumbles on the first two drives of the second half while DT Darnell Dockett & CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie each scored their first career touchdowns.

Arizona came out of the gates quickly as Warner took the team 76 yards in 10 plays and RB Tim Hightower rushed for his 10th TD of the season to set the club rookie record. The next Cardinal drive ended when Larry Fitzgerald caught a 10-yard scoring pass from Warner capping a 6-play, 63-yard drive. Warner's lone miscue of the day came on the next series when he was INT'd by Ron Bartell who returned it 24 yards to the AZ6. That led to St. Louis' only TD of the day, a 3-yard Marc Bulger to Jackson pass. Arizona then added a pair of Neil Rackers field goals (44 & 22 yards) to take a 20-7 halftime lead.

St. Louis opened the 2nd half by advancing to the AZ24 and appeared poised to make it a one score game. However, Hayes forced a Jackson fumble that fellow LB Karlos Dansby recovered to kill the drive. On the 2nd play of the next Rams drive, Hayes again forced a Jackson fumble and Dockett not only recovered, but returned it 11 yards to the end zone. Josh Brown's 51-yard FG with 10:21 left made it 27-10 and it remained that wait until late in the 4th. With 3:11 to go and the Rams at the AZ10, Rodgers-Cromartie stepped in front of a Bulger pass near the goal line and returned it a franchise record-tying 99 yards for a TD that provided the exclamation point on the historic win.

VIKINGS 35, CARDINALS 14

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM (64,457)

In a match-up of division leaders with 8-5 records, the visiting Vikings jumped on top early thanks to a punt return touchdown and a pair of Arizona turnovers that both led to Minnesota TDs. Thanks to those scores, the Vikings led 21-0 after one quarter and it was an uphill battle from there. Adrian Peterson ran for 165 yards while Tarvaris Jackson started in place of an injured Gus Frerotte and threw for 4 scores. The win was Minnesota's 4th in a row and gave them the inside track on the #3 seed over Arizona, who fell to 8-6 a week after clinching the NFC West.

After a dropped pass on 3rd down ended the first Cardinals drive, Bernard Berrian returned the ensuing punt 82 yards down the left sideline. CB Cedric Griffin then snuffed out the next AZ drive near midfield with his diving INT of a Kurt Warner pass that tipped off the hands of Steve Breaston. Facing a 3rd-n-15 from the 41, Jackson lofted a perfect pass down the right sideline that Berrian pulled in for his 2nd TD. On the 2nd play of the next series, Warner hit Anquan Boldin on a slant but the receiver fumbled and Minnesota recovered at the AZ23. Six plays later, Jackson hit Sidney Rice with a 6-yard TD pass that gave the Vikings a 21-0 lead. Late in the 1st half, the Vikings completed a 12-play, 91-yard drive with an 11-yard Jackson TD pass to Chester Taylor that made it 28-0.

On the 3rd play after intermission, Jerheme Urban caught a short pass from Warner and took it for a 50-yard TD. The next Cardinal drive appeared to be aided by a 49-yard pass interference call on Antoine Winfield but Ron Winter's crew picked up the flag and the drive stalled. The Vikings then advanced to the AZ16 and attempted a 34-yard Ryan Longwell FG. However, Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie blocked it and Rod Hood returned it 68 yards for a TD that made it 28-14 with 4:27 left in the third. That was as close as AZ would get. On the next drive, Jackson hit Bobby Wade on a pump-and-go that resulted in a 59-yard score that provided the game's final points.

PATRIOTS 47, CARDINALS 7

GILLETTE STADIUM (68,756)

The Cardinals headed to Foxboro for the final road game of the regular season and a showdown with the Patriots. Like Arizona, the Pats entered the game at 9-5. However unlike the Cardinals, who clinched the NFC west two weeks earlier and were pretty much locked into their playoff spot, New England was in a three-way tie atop the AFC East and fighting for its post-season life. In addition to the must-win Patriots, Arizona also had to contend with Mother Nature. A winter storm socked much of the east coast and the game was played amid a steady snowfall. The Cardinals had not played a game in snow in over 25 years (12/18/83 vs. Philadelphia at St. Louis) and it was clear New England was far more comfortable in the environment. The Arizona offense entered the game #2 in the NFL with a 26.6 points/game average but was limited to a season-low 7 points. The Patriots offense was more successful and rolled up 514 total yards. It all added up to a very one-sided contest.

Of its six first half possessions, New England scored four touchdowns and a field goal. Conversely on its six drives, Arizona went 3-n-out 5 times and turned it over on downs once. Those two factors resulted in a 31-0 New England halftime lead. LaMont Jordan capped each of the first two Patriot drives with short TD runs. Early in the 2nd, a 15-yard Matt Cassel pass to Kevin Faulk made it 21-0 and an 11-yard Cassel pass to Wes Welker on the next series made it 28-0. Stephen Gostkowski's 38-yard FG in the closing seconds of the first half made it 31-0.

A bad situation for AZ got even worse on the first play from scrimmage after intermission. Cassel hit Randy Moss with a quick screen at the line of scrimmage and the receiver took it 76 yards down the left sideline for a TD that made it a 38-0 score :19 into the 2nd half. The Pats then added Gostkowski FGs on their next three drives. Kurt Warner was replaced at QB by Matt Leinart late in the 3rd quarter and he finished the game. It was Leinart's 78-yard TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald with 6:17 to play that kept the Cardinals from being shut out.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,874)

After dropping a pair of one-sided contests following their week 14 win that clinched the NFC West title, the Cardinals entered the regular season finale vs. Seattle looking to regain some rhythm and momentum before the playoffs. They found it in the 2nd quarter thanks in large part to WR Larry Fitzgerald. Playing without fellow all-pro Anquan Boldin (shoulder), Fitzgerald caught a pair of TD passes and set up another with a 50-yard grab as part of another 100-yard outing. RB Edgerrin James saw his most action since early October and topped 100 rushing yards. The win gave the Cards a 9-7 mark – its best since the '98 season – and spoiled the final game of outgoing Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren.

Seattle led 7-0 after one quarter thanks to a 1-yard T.J. Duckett run that capped a 12-play drive that began with a Warner fumble recovery. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Seahawks had a chance to make it 10-0 when they advanced to the AZ23 but Olindo Mare's 42-yard field goal try was wide left. On the next snap, Warner went deep to Fitzgerald and his 50-yard catch took it to the SEA18. That led a play later to Warner's 16-yard TD pass to WR Jerheme Urban. On the next Seahawk drive, Karlos Dansby forced a Maurice Morris fumble that CB Ralph Brown returned to the SEA12. Two plays later, Warner and Fitzgerald connected on a 5-yard TD pass. The Seahawks came right back and scored before halftime when Seneca Wallace threw a perfect 30-yard TD pass to WR Deion Branch that made it 14-14 at intermission.

After the team's traded punts to open the 3rd, Fitzgerald put the Cards up 21-14 on his 38-yard TD grab. After a Seattle 3-n-out, Warner capped a 68-yard drive with a 14-yard TD strike to Steve Breaston. It was Warner's 4th TD of the day, his most as a Cardinal and most since 2001 with the Rams. Branch and Wallace connected on a 2-yard TD pass on the next Seattle drive to make it 28-21. Matt Leinart then came on in relief of Warner and led FG drives on each of the next two possessions. CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie put the final dagger into the Seahawks with his INT in the final minute.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, three James carries perfectly set up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the AZ23, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a INT off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim the lead to 6. AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the AZ15 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26.That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successful executed a surprise pooch kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misruled the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-n-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the AZ47 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steeler 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumbled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Santonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steeler 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was ruled to have fumbled before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

Post World War I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles to face the Rams. There they incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 and afterwards tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett. He missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

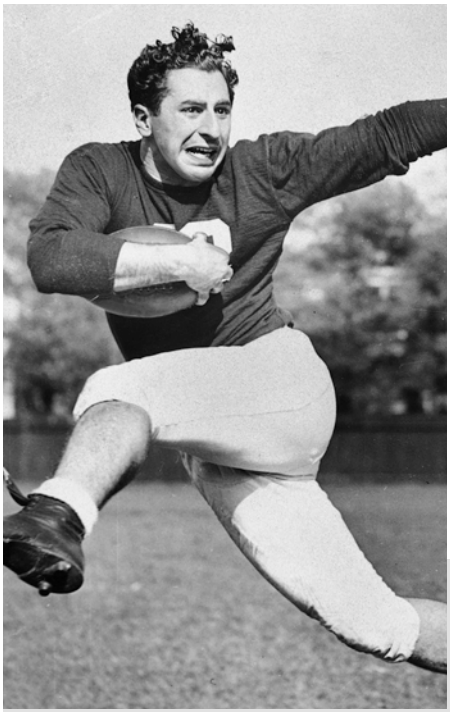

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice and did not rejoin the team until the day before the game. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

Marshall Goldberg sealed the 1947 championship game victory with a fourth quarter interception.

circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line before racing 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

On to St. Louis

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald gave the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

PAT TILLMAN SAFETY 40

Professional—Fierce competitor defied odds as seventh-round draft choice in 1998 to become three-year starting safety and establish franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000 … successfully converted from college linebacker to pro defensive back … named All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 2000 … in 1998 became first rookie starting safety for Cardinals since team relocated to Arizona in 1988 … left the Cardinals prior to 2002 season to enlist in U.S. Army and become member of elite Army Ranger unit, as did his brother, Kevin, who tabled a professional baseball career in the Cleveland Indians organization … admirably declined all media attention throughout tour of duty … killed April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan.

College—Local favorite during college career at Arizona State University … Pac-10 Conference defensive player-of-the-year in 1997 … key member of Sun Devils' 1996 Rose Bowl squad … three-year starting linebacker … selected by Cardinals in seventh round (226th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft.

Etc.—Born Nov. 6, 1976 in Fremont, Calif. … graduated summa cum laude in three and one-half years with marketing degree from ASU with 3.84 grade-point-average with academic all-America honors … outdoors enthusiast also competed in triathlons as part of training regimen.

LARRY WILSON SAFETY 8

Professional—One of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history … enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978 … named to the all-time NFL team in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary … played entire career as a Cardinal in St. Louis (1960–72) … played in eight Pro Bowls … all-NFL six times … 52 career interceptions … cat-like defender and exceptional team leader … interceptions in seven consecutive games in 1966 … NFL's top free safety during 13-year career … made the safety blitz famous.

College—Utah … 6–0, 190 … two-way star for Utes from 1957–60 … seventh-round draft pick by St. Louis Cardinals in 1960.

Etc.—Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho. … regarded as one of the toughest players in NFL history … once intercepted a pass for a go-ahead touchdown with two broken wrists … retired from the team's front office in 2003, ending 43-year NFL career, all as a Cardinal.

STAN MAULDIN TACKLE 77

Professional—Tackle for the Chicago Cardinals (1946–48) … opened holes in the line with hard-hitting bulk for the Cardinals' "Million-Dollar Backfield" … member of the Cards' 1947 NFL championship team … died of a heart attack after opening-day victory over the Eagles in 1948.

College—Texas … 6–2, 215 … all-America tackle for the Longhorns … winner of the Outstanding Athlete Trophy in 1942 … one of Texas' "13 Immortals" in 1940.

Etc.—Born December 27, 1920 in Amarillo, Texas … flew bombing missions with the 15th Air Force Division over Italy during World War II.

J.V. CAIN TIGHT END 88

Professional—Doubled at tight end and wide receiver for the St. Louis Cardinals (1974–77) … part of Head Coach Don Coryell's messenger service as a rookie wide receiver in 1974 … replaced Hall of Famer Jackie Smith at tight end in mid-1975 … caught passes in 12 of 13 games in 1976 … one-handed touchdown catch in 1977 provided margin of victory in 16–13 win over Chicago … died after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp in 1979.

College—Colorado … 6–4, 220 … all-America … two-time all-Big 8 Conference selection … caught 53 passes for 700 yards during junior and senior seasons … first-round draft choice of the Cardinals in 1974.

Etc.—Born July 22, 1951 in Houston, Texas … played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games.

MARSHALL GOLDBERG RUNNING BACK/DEF. BACK 99

Professional—All-round player who starred as a ball carrier, defensive back, and return specialist for the Chicago Cardinals (1939–43, '46–48) … second team all-pro selection in 1941 … NFL mid-season rushing, punt and kickoff return, and interception leader in 1941 … career statistics included 1,644 yards rushing in 476 attempts for 11 touchdowns, and 60 pass receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns … member of Cards' 1947 NFL championship team.

College—Pittsburgh … 5–11, 195 … two-time consensus all-America halfback at Pitt.

Etc.—Born October 24, 1917 in Elkins, West Virginia … 1980 inductee into the Jewish Hall of Fame in Tel Aviv, Israel … playing career interrupted for two years (1944–45) during World War II when he served in the Navy … nicknamed "Biggie." … passed away on April 3, 2006.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery … Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) … defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons … safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 … Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 … the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach … he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach … running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round … Jim Hart is named starting quarterback … despite 4–9–1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards … Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32–10 win.

NOTES

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11–3 mark, a franchise best since an 11–1 record by the 1948 team … fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks … wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch," to send game into overtime as Cards win 20–17 over Washington … Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35–23 after trailing 28–9 at halftime … seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

NOTES

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs … Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day … but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a post-season berth … eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker … Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America … Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards … all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice … Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 … return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records … Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team post-season Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 halftime deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown … in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half … Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points … Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating … WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach … with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests … QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times … Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach … injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark … rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl … Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 … WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions … just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history … QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery … Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience … little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 … LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season … defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) … CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) … Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job … rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth … defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 … first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game … Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns … Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) … franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 … Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job … defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries … Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) … low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years … FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record … Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach … RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards … QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 … 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 … first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity…team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes…Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998…strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth….an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich …defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others… the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games…. in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs…the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs....S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list) … Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection … WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl … Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards … Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season …in his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5% … FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982…Arizona finished with the league's #1 passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)…the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467…2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

NOTES

The Cardinals capped 2008 season with a memorable playoff run, winning the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia and playing in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pittsburgh … won their first division title since 1975, winning the NFC West with a perfect 6-0 division record and finishing the regular season 9-7 overall … under second-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, Cardinals made first playoff appearance since 1998 in Wild Card game vs. Falcons, and earned second road playoff win in franchise history with victory at Carolina … became first #4 seed to host a conference championship game and first #4 seed to advance to Super Bowl … Cardinals recorded 12 wins on the season, the most in a single-season in franchise history and they won more playoff games in 2008 (3) than they had in their total playoff history (2) … finished the regular season with an 8-2 home record and improved record at University of Phoenix Stadium to 14-4 under Whisenhunt … Kurt Warner sets franchise record with 30 TD passes while also earning his fourth Pro Bowl selection … Warner also sets team marks for attempts, completions, completion percentage, passer rating and finished second in passing yards … Larry Fitzgerald earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and third overall after once again leading the NFC in both receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,431) while also collecting a career high 12 touchdowns … Fitzgerald set single postseason records for receptions (30), yards (546), and receiving touchdowns (7) while also collecting over 100 receiving yards in all four postseason games … Anquan Boldin earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl after becoming the first receiver in team history to have four 1,000 yard receiving seasons to go along with a career high 11 TDs … reached 500 receptions in 80th game, reaching the milestone in fewer games than any other receiver in NFL history … also set franchise mark with 24 100-yard receiving games … Tim Hightower's 10 rushing TDs during the regular season set a franchise record for rookie … Rookie Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie led the team with four INT's during the regular season including tying the franchise record for longest INT return with a 99-yard return for a touchdown against St. Louis… for the third season in a row, the team sold out every home game including both playoff contests.

FLEX SCHEDULING

In 2009 the NFL will play its fourth season under its flexible scheduling format, which provides the best match-ups to fans across the nation for the final seven Sunday night games on NBC.

Twelve days before each game – or as few as six days in Week 17 – the league will announce its Sunday night games. For the Cardinals, this means that every game after the November 15 game at Seattle (with the exception of the Monday Night game at San Francisco in Week 14) has the potential of being moved to an NBC Sunday night game.

Stay tuned to www.azcardinals.com for the latest updates regarding game time changes.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

The policy dictates that the home team will decide the status of the roof (open or closed) 90 minutes before kickoff. If the game begins with the roof open, it will be closed only if 1) hazardous conditions develop or are anticipated; or 2) it begins to rain.

The roof will not be closed for rain any time after the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter (including overtime). The roof can be closed at any time to address hazardous situations and if the roof is closed, it will not be re-opened.

Below is the excerpt from the 2009 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, Vol. II detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Cowboys Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

General Policy

One and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home team will have the authority to determine if the roof should be open or closed for the game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others. In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, or if the game starts with the roof in the closed position, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

Pre-game Procedures

1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
2) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than the time that the teams take the field for pre-game warm-ups. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
3) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

In-Game Procedures

4) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
5) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
6) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 4 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Cardinals Charities' grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities has supported programs for victims of domestic violence through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Chrysalis Shelter, the American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter, the Jewish Family and Children's Services in Maricopa County, BOTHANDS in Flagstaff and to The Brewster Center in Tucson.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $4.5 million to over 300 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

In 2008, Cardinals Charities distributed over $500,000 to 87 worth Arizona charitable organizations. Included in that number were Boys & Girls Clubs across the state, domestic violence shelters, and various education programs.

General Guidelines for Beneficiaries

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year.
- Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

Application Process

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is June 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts five signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Locker Room Breakfast, Celebrity Golf Classic, the Dinner and Auction, and the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge. As a substitute for the Dinner and Auction, the Cardinals hosted the first Kingpin Challenge in 2008 at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.

Kickoff Luncheon

- Entering its 12th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2008, 450 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium in a talk-show style event emceed by Chris Rose, the host of the Best Damn Sports Show. Over $210,000 was raised for Cardinals Charities.

Dinner and Auction—Kingpin Challenge

- Entering 16th consecutive season.
- The annual dinner and auction format was put to the side in 2008 as the inaugural Kingpin Challenge was held at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- In 2008, 40 teams were paired with a current Cardinals player or coach for a bowling tournament that raised $132,000 for Cardinals Charities Grant program.

NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge

- Entering 5th consecutive season.
- A celebrity golf tournament partnering with the Arizona Chapter of NFL Alumni, the Challenge has fans and business partners playing with NFL alumni with the winning team entered in the Super Bowl of Golf each year.

- In its fourth year in 2008, the Challenge had 44 NFL alumni (Larry Wilson, Dave Krieg, JD Hill) pair up with 270 other golfers to raise $207,000 to help out the Ronald McDonald House and the Arizona Preparatory Academy.

Locker Room Breakfast

- Entering 6th consecutive season.
- An exclusive gathering inside the Cardinals locker room, the breakfast offers a peak at the upcoming season each year and allows fans to get an up close look of where the Cardinals players prepare before home games.
- In 2009, the breakfast was once held in the Cardinals locker room of University of Phoenix Stadium. More than 120 people were in attendance to listen to Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt and meet all of the Cardinals assistant coaches while raising more than $55,000 for Cardinals Charities.

Celebrity Golf Classic

- Entering 21th consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with Cardinals players and coaches.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2009, over 275 attendees played golf with current and former Cardinals players and coaches at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass helping to raise $300,000 for Cardinals Charities.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2008 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2008 season, 66 different players took part in 276 different community events and appearances that impacted over 100,000 adults and children throughout Arizona. The Cardinals also donated more than 40,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2009 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 65 community events involving 39 different players that impacted over 30,000 children and adults.

The Cardinals three signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and the NFL Flag Football program – all continued to grow in popularity and attendance last year and should continue to develop in 2009.

SRP/Safeway Milk and Cookies Program

- Entering its 8th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red reads to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributes book covers and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- Seven players visited 8 different schools and read to 600 students in 2008.

Gatorade Jr. Training Camps

- Entering 12th consecutive season. During the 2008 season, the Cardinals put on clinics using Gatorade Jr. Training stations and interactive zones.
- Cardinals players and Big Red provided football instruction and guidance for students while hosting the kids camps at Valley elementary schools or at the Cardinals training facility in Tempe.
- Seven players participated in 8 Gatorade camps impacting 1,000 students during the 2008 season.
- During the 2009 offseason, the Cardinals hosted 10 kids camps for over 1,600 children.

NFL Flag Football Program

- Entering 7th consecutive season and fourth sponsored by the University of Phoenix and Toyota.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the state of Arizona and in Nevada.
- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 15,000 players.
- For the fourth consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at University of Phoenix Stadium. In 2008, the tournament hosted over 450 athletes participating throughout the weekend.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly US Army "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2008 season. Both programs will be back for the 2009 season.

"High School Coach-of-the-Week"

- Starting its 15th consecutive season and second presented by US Army.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school coach of the week, awards him with a certificate from Cardinals President William V. Bidwill and a $2,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities and the US Army.
- In 2008, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $20,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2008 high school season and Richard Taylor from Centennial H.S. was awarded an additional $4,000 for his school.

"High School Player-of-the-Week"

- Starting its 7th consecutive season and fourth presented by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school player of the week who receives a football trophy acknowledging the award at the players' school during an awards ceremony.
- In 2008, 10 players were selected and each was awarded at their school in front of their peers with team mascot Big Red and an alumni player.

- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and running back Jamal Miles from Peoria H.S. was given a Cardinals jersey with his name on it and a football trophy engraved with his season stats.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive that benefits Chicanos Por La Causa and a game day canned food drive that benefits St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are the "Help Feed the Hungry" program and the "Teddy Bear Express."

Help Feed the Hungry

- Last year, five players (including QB Kurt Warner) and their families along with front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 100 people.
- The 2008 season marked the 7th consecutive year of working with the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

Teddy Bear Express

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visit hospitals to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays away from home.
- Last year 10 players visited 200 children at Phoenix Children's Hospital and Watkins Shelter, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.

- The 2008 season was the 9th consecutive year of program.

The 2009 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by SRP as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by SRP.

"Football Skills and Education Camp"

- 7th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP.
- 600 high school football players from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at University of Phoenix Stadium.
- Current Cardinals players and coaches, NFL alumni and junior colleges coaches helped coach and instruct each individual position.

Arizona Cardinals Kicking Camp

- 4th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP
- 200 kickers, punters, and long-snappers from Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah had the opportunity to gain instruction from Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas, punter Ben Graham, former Cardinals punter Rich Camarillo, former long snapper Mark Walczak, and current college kickers.

In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

Cardinals Donations

- The Cardinals donated 20,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2008.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 2,600 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations throughout the Valley.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

From the outset, Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill along with son and team President Michael embarked upon the task of building a new stadium for the team with a very clear focus. They were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006 on a 165-acre site in Glendale, just west of Phoenix. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it was also the site of Super Bowl XLII in addition to hosting the annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Bowl Championship Series title game on a rotating basis.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: Thanks to a successful partnership between the Cardinals, Tempe, AZ-based Insight and Cisco Systems the stadium boasts a variety of head-turning technology and innovations that are changing the way fans experience the game. An advanced Internet Protocol (IP) network from Cisco handles all data, voice and video communication traffic pulsing through the stadium, which 1) enables every fan in the stadium to enjoy fantasy football and surf the Internet from their wireless-enabled devices such as PDAs. 2) supports cell phone service for every seat in the house and enables fans to watch instant replay on the stadium's 70 jumbo plasma screens. 3) during a game allows fans in the stadium's luxury lofts to access statistics, scores, and monitor fantasy football activity using Cisco\ IP phones with touch-screen displays.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted a Super Bowl, the Rolling Stones, high school proms, the first-ever BCS national championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, the 2008 West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other events. In a given year, Global Spectrum (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM CONTINUES TO COLLECT HONORS

University of Phoenix Stadium continues to rank as one of the NFL's best stadiums. In 2008 it finished number one in the NFL Players Association playing surface rankings as well as number one in Sports Illustrated's annual poll of NFL players on what the best playing surface is.

Street & Smith's Sportsbusiness Journal and Sports Business Daily presented the results from their fourth annual SBJ/SBD Readers Survey on the state of the sports industry and after two consecutive top selections, University of Phoenix Stadium was selected second in the NFL. Historic Lambeau Field regained the top spot after losing to University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 and 2007.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public.

Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area.

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Steve worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

CARDINALS PRIMARY HOME STADIUMS

Since the NFL was founded in 1920, the following venues have served as the primary site for Cardinals home games:

1920-1921. . .Normal Park, Chicago *
1922-1925. . .Comiskey Park, Chicago
1926-1928. . .Normal Park, Chicago *
1929-1930. . .Comiskey Park, Chicago
1931-1938. . .Wrigley Field, Chicago
1939-1958. . .Comiskey Park, Chicago **
1959. Soldier Field, Chicago
1960-1965. . .Busch Stadium, St. Louis ***
1966-1987. . .Busch Memorial Stadium, St. Louis
1988-2005 . .Sun Devil Stadium, Tempe
2006 - UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM, GLENDALE

* Normal Park was also known as Normal Field

 In 1944, the Cardinals and Steelers merged during WWII and home games were split between Comiskey Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field

 Busch Stadium was known as Sportsman's Park from 1909-1952; the Cardinals moved to the newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium in 1966

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community, according to Brian Mueller, president of Apollo Group, the University's parent company.

University of Phoenix was founded over 30 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 191 campuses and learning centers in 39 states and four foreign nations.

CARDINALS FASTEST GROWING TEAM BRAND

In May of 2009, Forbes released the results of a study that looked at the fastest growing team brands in sports over the last three seasons. It should be noted that the study included the NFL's 2008 regular season but not the postseason. Even though the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII wasn't counted, Arizona still was the fastest growing team brand in the four major sports.

Over the three year span analyzed by Forbes, the Cardinals brand grew to $68 million, at a rate of 143%. The rate is nearly double that of the second-ranked football team, the New York Giants and well above the 115% growth that the Tampa Bay Rays registered for second place in the four major sports.

Forbes attributes the Cardinals growth mainly to the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006. The team has sold out every game since moving into the new stadium in Glendale and Arizona's 20 year, $155 million naming rights deal with University of Phoenix that began in 2006 is the third largest in the NFL. Forbes also states that stars such as Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin contribute to the team's brand growth.

NFL

Team	Growth	Value
Cardinals	143%	$68M
Giants	75%	$100M
Cowboys	74%	$207M
Jets	73%	$90M

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

Last season the Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued, selling out all 12 games (including preseason and postseason). Entering the 2009 season, the team has now sold out all 32 games played at the new stadium. Arizona averaged 64,383 fans per game in 2008, with the highest attended game coming when the team hosted the Philadelphia Eagles for the NFC Championship, drawing 70,650 fans.

The sellout crowds have helped the Cardinals win 11 of their last 13 games at home, including a 6-2 home record during the regular season and 2-0 postseason mark last year. The 6-2 regular season record matched the Cardinals 2007 record which marked the first time they won six home games since 1976. The 12-4 record at home over the last two seasons is number one in the NFC and second in the NFL behind only Pittsburgh and New England (13-3).

Arizona has scored 463 points in 16 regular season home games over the last two seasons. Their 28.9 points per game average over that span ranks as the third-highest average in the NFL behind only San Diego and New England. Last season the Cardinals scored at least 29 points in seven of their eight home games and both postseason contests.

Before the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006, there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

SUPER BOWL XLIII BOASTS LARGEST TOTAL AUDIENCE IN TV HISTORY

Super Bowl XLIII featuring the Cardinals and Steelers achieved the largest television audience in U.S. history with a total audience of 151.6 million viewers, according to official national ratings data released by Nielsen Media Research.

It surpassed 2008's audience of 148.3 million for Patriots-Giants, meaning that the two largest audiences in TV history were for Super Bowl XLIII in which the Cardinals participated and Super Bowl XLII that the Cardinals hosted at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Most-Watched TV Programs of All-Time, Total Viewers
Source: NFL, Nielsen Media Research

Program	Total Viewers
Super Bowl XLIII (Cardinals-Steelers), 2/1/09	151.6 million
Super Bowl XLII (Giants-Patriots), 2/3/08	148.3 million
Super Bowl XXXVIII (Patriots-Panthers), 2/1/04	144.4 million
Super Bowl XL (Steelers-Seahawks), 2/5/06	141.4 million
Super Bowl XLI (Colts-Chicago), 2/4/07	139.8 million

The game had an average audience of 98.7 million people - the second-highest average in TV history behind the M*A*S*H finale in 1983 (106 million). The record 98.7 million average viewers for Super Bowl XLIII exceeded the combined total of the 2008 American Idol season premiere (33.5 million), 2008 Academy Awards (32.0 million viewers), and the Nov. 2008 Dancing with the Stars finale (20.7 million) – 86.2 million. Average viewership represents the average number of people watching at any one point in the game while total audience represents anyone who tuned in for at least six minutes of the game.

Locally, the game was the most-watched television program in Phoenix history. It generated a 47.5 rating and an 80 share while reaching 882,000 homes. The 80 share locally was the highest of any market in the country, edging the 79 share the game earned in Pittsburgh. Super Bowl XLIII was watched by an average of 38.3 million women – the most since 38.6 million women watched the 1994 Winter Olympic figure skating competition featuring Nancy Kerrigan on Feb. 25, 1994.

CARDINALS RECEIVE TWO OF P.F.W.A.'S TOP HONORS

This past April, the Professional Football Writers of America today presented their annual awards and the Arizona Cardinals came away with two of the organization's five honors.

Quarterback Kurt Warner was given the P.F.W.A. Good Guy Award as the NFL player who best helps the media do its job while the Cardinals media relations department was selected for the Rozelle Award as the league's top staff according to P.F.W.A. members.

For Warner, the Good Guy award is the most recent on a long list of honors he has received for outstanding performance both on the field and off. In 2008 he was selected as a Pro Bowl starter and became just the second QB in NFL history to take two different teams to the Super Bowl while setting franchise passing records for completions, attempts, touchdowns, and passer rating. He also received the Walter Payton "NFL Man of the Year" Award, which acknowledges a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. Warner was a finalist for the P.F.W.A.'s Good Guy Award in 2004.

The Cardinals media relations staff – made up of Mark Dalton, Chris Melvin, Mike Helm, Nate LoCascio and Amber Kelley - was a finalist for the Rozelle Award a year ago and this year earns the honor for the first time in team history.

In the other three categories, Pittsburgh Steelers owner Dan Rooney received the Horrigan Award (non-player or team media relations staffer who best helped the media do its job), Sports Illustrated writer Peter King won the McCann Award for distinguished service by a media member, and Tampa Bay Buccaneers kicker Matt Bryant received the Halas Award (individual in the NFL who overcame the most adversity to succeed last season).

If there is a scheduling conflict with the Suns or Diamondbacks, all of the Cardinals game day programming will air on News Radio 92.3 KTAR while the baseball or basketball game will be carried on Sports 620 KTAR.

Calling the play-by-play for his eighth straight season with the Cardinals will be Dave Pasch. He joined the Cardinals in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA and college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for his fifth year as the radio analyst will be Ron Wolfley, a four-time Pro Bowl selection and special teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Sports 620 KTAR, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Sports 620 KTAR Radio personality and Cardinals Reporter Paul Calvisi will return to offer sideline commentary on the game broadcasts.

Game-day programming begins three hours prior to kickoff on Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM) with "The NFL Kickoff Show." Mike Goldberg, who also serves as the team's preseason TV play-by-play voice, will join former NFL center Bill Lewis (Raiders 1986-88, Cardinals 1990-92, and Patriots 1993) and azcardinals.com writer Darren Urban to discuss the upcoming Cardinals matchup and the latest news from around the NFL.

Goldberg can also be heard calling the action for UFC events and college football on Fox Sports Net while Lewis serves as the analyst for the pre-season TV broadcast team. In addition to his game day duties, Lewis is also the Cardinals Manager of Alumni Relations.

Two hours prior to kickoff, Calvisi will be joined by former Cardinals Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore and former Cardinal linebacker Rob Fredrickson for the "Pre-Game Huddle."

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game call-in show hosted by Lewis, can be heard immediately following each contest on Sports 620 KTAR. Cardinal Talk allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Moore and Fredrickson.

Weekday Radio Programming

Returning to the airwaves in 2009 is "The Big Red Rage." Live, from Majerles in Chandler for the second consecutive season, "The Big Red Rage" is hosted by Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley, who will be joined by a player-host for each program. The show typically airs from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings throughout the season on Sports 620 KTAR. If there is a scheduling conflict with a Diamondbacks or Suns game, check azcardinals.com for date and time changes.

Spanish Radio

In 2000, the Cardinals became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games – preseason and regular season, home and away - on Spanish radio. For the fourth season, those broadcasts can again be heard on 710 ESPN Deportes Radio in Phoenix.

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst) will be back again in 2009.

Trujillo returns for his 10th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantu played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantu is also the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

Gabriel Trujillo

Rolando Cantu

In addition to the game action, a pre-game show and a weekly talk show, "Primera Y Diez" ("First and Ten") can be heard in Spanish on 710 ESPN Deportes. The pre-game show begins one hour prior to kickoff for each game and "Primera Y Diez" airs live from 5:00-7:00 p.m. on Friday's throughout the season.

CARDINALS ON TELEVISION

Pre-Season TV

The Cardinals are back again on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) for the 2009 pre-season and for the first time, the games will be presented in High Definition. Calling the action for the second consecutive season will be the team of Mike Goldberg (play-by-play), Bill Lewis (analyst), and Jody Jackson (sideline).

Team Shows

The team will produce two TV programs throughout the 2009 season: "Maximum Cardinals" and "The Ken Whisenhunt Show". The programs will have a new home this season on 12 News (KPNX-TV).

"Maximum Cardinals" is a weekly half-hour program dedicated to providing an inside look into the team. Each week, segments such as the popular "Wired," as well as "Building the Gameplan" get Cardinals fans ready for the upcoming matchup. The show is anchored by Jody Jackson and features reports from Ron Wolfley and Paul Calvisi. "Maximum Cardinals" will air at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon's on 12 News.

New to the Cardinals Broadcast Network this season, "The Ken Whisenhunt Show" is the official TV program of Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt. Hosted by Wolfley, the show will feature an in-depth look at the pivotal plays from the previous week's game with an eye on the next opponent and a fan-email segment in which Whisenhunt will answer questions. "The Ken Whisenhunt Show" will air at 12:00 a.m. on Sunday's following "Saturday Night Live" on 12 News.

TRAINING FACILITY

While the Cardinals home games moved from the East Valley to the West Valley in 2006, the team continues to train and maintain its corporate headquarters at the South Tempe facility that opened in 1990.

Covering 14.7 acres of land that was formerly a cotton field, the Cardinals' facility opened in September of 1990. The 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sports desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields - one of which is lighted - on nearly five acres of land.

The second and third floors comprise the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the media relations department.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the University of Phoenix Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, Northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations. The excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) provide the team's preseason training camp home.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the world. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as an unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 15,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

2009 TRAINING CAMP SCHEDULE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club will return to Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff in late July to begin their 2009 training camp.

The team will report to N.A.U. the night of Wednesday, July 29 and begin practice on Friday, July 31. The Cardinals will break camp on Thursday, August 20.

In all, the team will conduct a total of 23 practices during their three-week stay in Flagstaff.

On Saturday, August 8 the Cardinals will host a special "Red & White" outdoor practice from 11:30 AM until 1:20 PM. The practice will be preceded by a full-team autograph session and conclude with a live goal-line session.

Once again, the Cardinals will have a pair of night practices that will be held on Wednesday, August 5 and Tuesday, August 18 from 7:05-9:10 PM at Lumberjack Stadium on N.A.U.'s campus.

All other practices in Flagstaff will be held on the grass fields adjacent to the Walkup Skydome. In the event of inclement weather, they will be moved inside to the Skydome.

Practice times are subject to change and fans are encouraged to check the team's official website www.azcardinals.com for the most up-to-date practice info.

In addition, Cardinals players and coaches will be available following each practice to sign autographs as they come off the field.

All practices at N.A.U. are open to the public. Admission and parking are both free.
